The Summer Skating Story

Eastern

The fourth summer at Hershey featured exhibitions every Saturday evening and each skater, in the season's course, presented a solo. Pair and group numbers were also skated. The season (June 14-Aug. 17) was sponsored by the Hershey FSC, and was under the direction of Felix Kaspar, with Harry Stafford and Lois Thomson completing the professional staff. An innovation was the skating camp, managed and directed by Harry Stafford, along the Swatara Creek about a mile away from the Hershey Sports Arena. The skaters were housed in rustic cottages and a boathouse apartment. The skating schedule was enlarged to include swimming, boating, badminton and archery as popular diversions. As the Arena borders the Hershey Park, each Wednesday and Friday the students were guests of the Park at the Hershey Pool. A buffet supper combined with a swimming party at the skating camp was the final event; Chinese lanterns glowed along the shores of the creek and swimmers splashed a final farewell to the skating camp season.

The first ISU Gold Dance Tests to be given on this continent were held at Lake Placid on Sept. 6. After all the Gold Figure and Dance Tests were over for this 27th season, the totals showed that eight Gold Medals had been earned. The summer opened on June 9 with professionals Walter Bainbridge, Otto Gold, William Kipp, Howard Nicholson, Priscilla Snow, Cliff & Edwina Thael and Jean Westwood. More than 80 persons participated in the 22nd annual Figure Judging School and Conference on July 18-20. The faculty included Col. Harold Storke, Alex Krupy, Mrs. Lloyd Sanderson, Mrs. Arthur C. McGowan, Jr., Spencer Cram, E. Newbold Black, IV, and Mrs. L. A. Graham—the latter two were Chairman and Co-Chairman of the Judging School Committee. A highlight of the three-day program was the second annual Free Skating and Pair Skating Championships on July 19 (see page 12). The outstanding events of the dance weeks (Aug. 3-17) were the Dance Conference and Dance Judges School on Aug. 9-11, and the Dance Championships on Aug. 14-16 (see page 9). Members of the Dance School faculty were Mrs. Lyman M. Drake, Jr., Minerva Burke, Mrs. Charles DeMore, Harry Keighley, F. Ritter Shumway, Webster Eshelman and Mrs. L. A. Graham, Chairman of the School. The weekly ice revues culminated over the Labor Day weekend with the annual operetta, entitled A Sky Fantasy. The program featured inhabitants of the sky—from the planets and nature's elements to Sputnik and airline hostesses. The group numbers were choreographed by Pro Beverley Bainbridge. Featured skaters were Andree & Donald Jacoby, U. S. Gold Dance Champions; Rhode Michelson, U. S. Novice Champion; U. S. and Canadian World Team Members Claire O'Neill, Beverley Orr and John J. Bejshak, Jr.; Svata & Mirek Staroba, Canadian Junior Dance Champions; and Pros Jean Westwood & William Kipp.

Ice Parade of '58 climaxed the season (June 18-Sept. 7) at the North Shore Sports Center, Lynn, Mass. The show, presented on Sept. 6-7, concluded the eighth annual summer sponsored by the North Shore SC. In the spotlight were performances by Bradley Lord (1957 U. S. Junior Champion), Maribel Owen & Dudley Richards, Faith Paterson & Peter Betts, Frank Muckian, Joanna Niska, Ronna Mae Goldblatt, Norvetta Tribby, and many others. The group numbers were produced by the professional staff: Cecilia Colledge, Thomas McGinnis, Maribel Vinson Owen, Lillian Tribby and Janus Waring. "South Pacific" opened the first half of the show with a South Seas flavor, while the second half returned the scene to New England with "Topsfield Fair." Additional groups were the military "Left, Right," the rock and roll "Sing, Sing, Sing," and the Follies number.

ISU GOLD DANCE—Geraldine Fenton, Hamilton SC; William McLachlan, Granite Club; Kathleen McCormick, Minto SC (all at Lake Placid).

The Wissahickon SC, Philadelphia, operated its first summer season from June 23 to Aug. 24. A typical one-hour schedule included seven patch sessions and three free skating periods—six days a week. Senior dance sessions were held three evenings a week—Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays—and the public evening sessions were popular on Fridays and Saturdays. The professional staff included Albert Edmonds, Martin Forney, Bruce Mapes and Megan Taylor. Because the air in the rink had been air conditioned—that is, temperature and humidity controlled—the net result was the complete absence of fog and drip from condensation, and an exceptionally excellent ice surface.

The third annual summer at the R. I. T. Ice Rink in Rochester, N. Y. opened on June 23, sponsored by the Genesee FSC. The complement of instructors included Mary Lou & Howard Butler, Peter Dunfield, Eleanor & Lewis Elkin, Slavka Kohout and Donald Laws. The first Judging and Dance School on July 26-27 added the latest chapter in the Kodak City's rapidly growing book on skating. Welcoming addresses were given by Alfred Davis, Director of Public Relations of the Rochester Institute of Technology, and Thomas Miller, Vice-President of the Genesee FSC. A large percentage of the summer skaters, almost every parent, plus many local club members and enthusiasts from nearby cities were present. Mrs. L. A. Graham conducted a thoughtfully-planned program in which most of the highlights in both figure and dance judging were encompassed by the faculty, composed of Minerva Burke, Dr. Sidney Soanes, Mrs. Charles DeMore, E. Newbold Black, IV, and Mrs. Donald Archie. The summer pupils, willing "guinea pigs," added much color to their performances of the dances and figures for the special benefit of the embryo judges; Andree & Donald Jacoby, U. S. Gold Dance Champions, wound up the demonstrations with an exhibition, including the new version of the Foxtrot. Two picnics on July 9 and Aug. 8 featuring swimming and refreshments provided relaxation for the skaters. On the final day of the session, Aug. 24, the second R. I. T. summer dance competition was held (see page 11).

The seventh summer (June 25-Aug. 24) was marked by the largest number of figure and dance tests held in Syracuse, N. Y., on Aug. 24. On July 9, the Syracuse FSC held a "Reciprocity Night" inviting members of the Clinton, Cornell and Genesee FSC's. The guest night was given in appreciation of the hospitality extended by those clubs to Syracuse members during the winter. Ice games and Paul Jones dances filled the skating program while cakes, cookies and coffee filled the 100 skaters! As in former years the summer was sponsored by the Municipal Recreation Commission and Department of Parks in cooperation with the Onondaga County Park Board, the New York State Youth Commission and the Syracuse FSC. The high point of the activities was the Ice Carnival on Aug. 21-22 featuring a cast of 500, directed by Pro Connie Cantlon Jamieson. Starring in the production were U. S. Gold Dance Champions Andree & Donald Jacoby, Pro Sonya Klopfer, U. S. World Team Member John J. Bejshak, Jr., Canadian Junior Dance Champions Svata & Mirek Staroba, and Christie Allen. The group numbers included "A Most Unusual Coronation," "Land of Nod," "Holiday in Rio," "Sugar 'n Spice," and "Ridin' High."

Quaker City FSC, for the second consecutive year, sponsored the summer season at the Valley Forge Country Club Rink, in Audubon, Pa. The summer (June 1-Sept. 2) staff consisted of Pros Melitta Brunner, Jack Devitt, Randolph McCulley, Marie Pierce and Sally-Anne Reid. Dancers came from distant points to attend the very popular dance sessions on Tuesday evenings and Sunday mornings. Many social activities took place: teen-age dances on the pool patio every Friday evening; a couple of old-fashioned clam bakes; and an authentic smorgasbord given by the Country Club and attended by many skaters and their friends. The production Stars on Ice was presented for the benefit of the Montgomery County Association for the Handicapped Children. Group numbers included "A Day at Valley Forge," featuring "elbow benders," badminton players, golfers, picnickers and bathing beauties, "Only Man on the Island," and the "Ballet of the Elements." Guest star was Pro Bill Dougherty.

Midwestern

Skaters from the Eastern States of Connecticut and Virginia as well as many Midwestern States were attracted to the fifth summer at the Cincinnati Garden. The season (July 18-Aug. 31) had as professionals Lillian Erdman, Laurel Pietsch and Joan Schaiper. Fifteen figure and 75 dance tests were given on Aug. 23, 24, 30 and 31, jointly sponsored by the FSC of Cincinnati and Queen City FSC. Evening sessions—FSC of Cincinnati on Wednesday and the Queen City FSC on Monday evenings—were exceptionally well attended. At the last Wednesday session on Aug. 27 the Cincinnati club had a party for members and guests. The highlight was an award for the funniest or most unique hat; these hats were worn during the half hour of patch and through the warm-up preceding the dance period. A door prize of a book of 15 tickets to the public sessions was also awarded, with Mrs. Mary Lynch and Margie Schroder the lucky winners. In the public sessions, local park and recreational groups, youth and adult organizations, and the Cincinnati schools took part—over 100 groups in all. Special Girl Scout courses were conducted so the girls could earn their merit badges; this program went over with flying colors and a new course is scheduled for the fall, open to all Scouts, Brownies and Camp Fire members.

The 21st summer at Colorado Springs (June 10-Sept. 6) was highlighted by the Broadmoor Ice Revue of 1958, held on Aug. 13-17. The seven performances of the show—produced by Pro Edi Scholdan and directed by Edith Palmer—were attended by sell-out crowds. Pro Jack Jost choreographed the dance numbers. Gerry Huesing completed this summer's professional staff at the Broadmoor Ice Palace. The elaborate children's number was an underwater fantasy complete with all kinds of sea-bottom creatures. Bubbles gave an underwater effect and fluorescent lighting was used. World Champion David Jenkins and his teammate, Tim Brown, World runner-up, topped the list of stars. German Champion Ina Bauer, Yuko Araki from Japan, and Stephanie Westerfeld were the featured girls. Susan Sebo, Judy Boner, Carole Banbury, Tom Weinreich, Monty Hoyt, Janet Smith, Lynda Waldrop and Christine Haigler were other principal performers. Professional talent included the Luparecos and Joe Jackson, Jr. A picnic was given for the entire cast a week before the show; and a dinner at the Broadmoor Hotel after Sunday's performance climaxed the summer events.

The University of Denver Arena was again the locale for a summer school—the first after a lapse of five years—with Norma Sahlin the instructor. The season ran from June 16 to Aug. 4 and was sponsored by the Denver FSC. Every Friday evening Denver FSC members gave exhibitions in figures, free style and dancing.

Summer skating in East Lansing reached the first decade at the Michigan State University Ice Arena. In this 10th season (June 28-Aug. 24) the professional staff included Pierre Brunet, Jean Arlen Jordan, William Swallender, Beryl Williamson and Montgomery Wilson. A departure from the previous summers' full-scale carnivals were three shows—all entitled Talent on Ice—presented on July 23, Aug. 6 and 20. These talent nights were minus the elaborate costume numbers of other years, as the ice time to produce them was required instead to fulfill the needs of the skaters. Among the stars were World Champion Carol Heiss, who also performed a trio with her sister Nancy (U. S. World Team), and brother Bruce; several members of the U. S., Canadian, and French World Teams—Carol Wanek, Donald Jackson, Alain Giletti, Alain Calmat, Corinne Altman—three 1957 U. S. Singles Champions—Diana Jean Lapp (Junior), Bradley Lord (Junior), and Gregory Kelley (Novice)—and Brenda Farmer and Douglas Ramsay. Gold Tests were held on the final days of the season with seven successful Eighth Test candidates. In addition to Michigan judges, "imports" were flown in from Buffalo, Chicago and Cleveland; out-of-town judges were entertained at a party given by Dr. & Mrs. Nelson Waters on the last night of the Gold Tests. Shaw Hall was the scene of the skaters' party on Aug. 16; dancing to "live" music and a buffet supper formed the ingredients for a lively, fun-filled evening.

The Memorial Coliseum situated in a 100-acre park was the site of the second summer season in Fort Wayne, Ind. Pros Ronnie Baker, Noel Ledin, Nino Minelli and Mimi Pong Page composed the staff. The season was sponsored by the Fort Wayne ISC from June 14 to Aug. 3. A costume party held on June 30 highlighted the social events. Given by the Coliseum Management, who also provided refreshments, skaters found the rink attractively decorated, with special lighting effects.

Sponsored by the FSC of Omaha, the second summer at Pershing Municipal Auditorium, Lincoln, Nebr., found the first Lincoln FSC skaters passing tests. An average of 85% of the tests taken were successful. The season—June 9-Aug. 24—had as Pros Jimmy Lawrence and Carol Vraa. The local club and its skaters have shown a growing enthusiasm since the tests were held. Special sessions, organized according to age groups, were conducted throughout the season.

The 18th summer (June 23-Aug. 24) at the Mayo Civic Auditorium, Rochester, Minn. found skaters gathered from several Midwestern States and Canada. The staff consisted of Pros Helen Carr, Ailsa G. McLachlan, Dick Potticary and Norton Wait. Highlights of the season included the high test skaters' exhibitions on Aug. 16 and a picnic on Aug. 3 at Lake City. The Auditorium sponsored the picnic on Lake Pepin where swimming, boating, water-skiing and shuffleboard were featured. The 12th annual Judging School—Aug. 23-24—included both dance and figure judging topics. On the faculty were Mrs. Lyman M. Drake, Jr., H. Kendall Kelley, Mrs. L. A. Graham, Dr. Robert R. Kierland and Mrs. Roy Schermerhorn. The summer dance competition took place on Aug. 23 (see page 10).

The 22nd summer of skating at St. Paul found the Pop Musical Ice Revues in full swing. Performances were given on Wednesday, Friday and Saturday nights from July 9 through Aug. 30—a total of 25 concerts. Stars were Bobby Mecay, Barbara Hartwig, Louise Strudwick, Dick Bravold and Margaret Grant. Co-sponsors of the shows with the St.

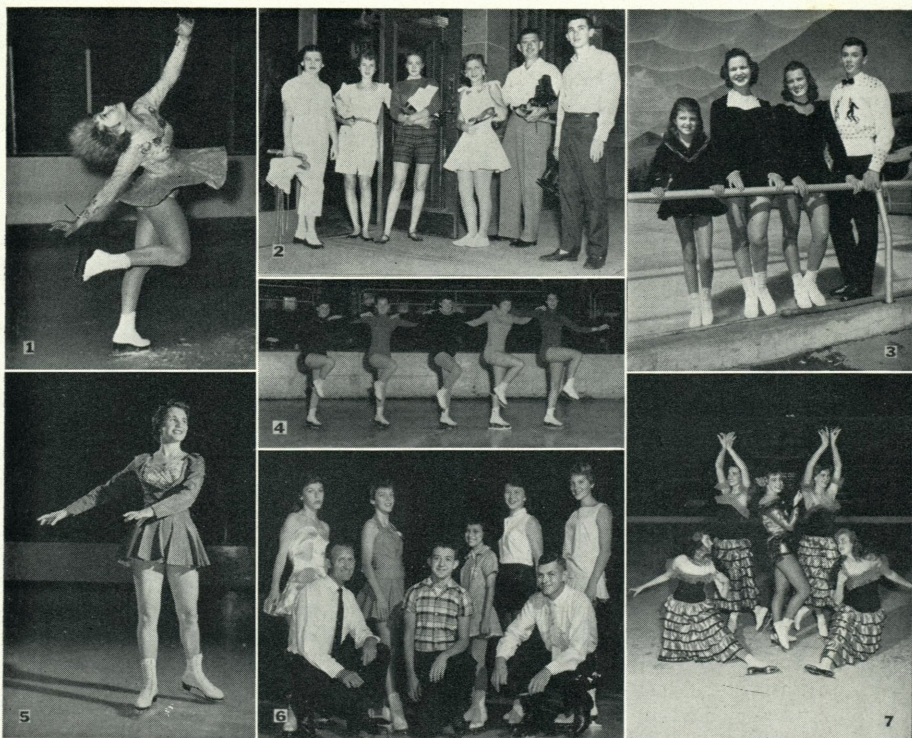

Paul FSC were the St. Paul Musicians Association, St. Paul Civic Opera Association, and the Department of Libraries, Auditorium, Museums and Stadia. In addition to skating numbers, the programs contained selections by the orchestra, the Civic Opera Chorus, various soloists, the Pops Quartet and the Quintet. The season itself began on June 30 with a professional staff of Janet Gerhauser Griffiths, Robin Lee, Joan & Robert Ogilvie and Madelon Olson Williams. Skaters, their families and friends enjoyed a picnic at St. Croix Falls, Wisc., on Aug. 23. The Karschnia's were hosts at an open house, attended by 25 adults and 35 teenagers, following the final "Pops" on Aug. 30.

The first summer season at the Auditorium in Sioux City, Iowa extended from June 2 to July 5. The Sioux City FSC sponsored season was inaugurated with a picnic supper on the evening preceding the opening date, when all the senior skaters were entertained at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Calvin Hayes. About 60 local and six out-of-town skaters participated in the sessions, under direction of Pros David & Leone Spalding. Low tests were taken throughout the five-week period, with dance tests given on July 4 and high tests on July 5. Judges were imported from Denver, Omaha and Saskatoon. On June 29, a picnic dinner at Stone Park, featuring hiking and badminton, climaxed the social activities.

Pacific Coast

The fourth summer (July 18-Aug. 27) at Butte, Mont. was one of extremes—although attendance was low, enthusiasm ran high and the ice was super-fine. The season, sponsored by Butte FSC, was ably handled by Mrs. Joe Malyevac and Mrs. George Harkonen, and the professionals were David & Leone Spalding. Among the students were skaters from Sioux City, Kansas City, Helena, Spokane and Seattle. Three patio luncheons for all the skaters provided relaxing breaks in what was otherwise a serious training period.

The seventh summer season at Sun Valley was the most successful ever conducted. The demand for patch exceeded that of

(1) Lynn Irwin, Toronto CS & CC, new Gold Medalist. (2) Cincinnati summer skaters: Mrs. Stuart M. Duvall, Marilyn Ochs, Judy Stall, Margie Schroder, Robert Griffin & Leonard Grady. (3) Skaters at Sun Valley: Nikki Lynne Howland, Suzanne Winner, Karen Howland & John Hendrickson. (4) The "No Business Like Show Business" Quintet at the Hershey Summer School. (5) Marilyn Mutrie Barlow, Professional, new Gold Medalist. (6) The first Lincoln, Nebr. skaters to pass their Preliminary Figure Test: kneeling, Ron Evans, Fred Jesse & Jim Berger; standing, Judy & Rosemary Rudolph, Sharon Kay Robertson, Pam Hansen & Mary Guilford. (7) Senoritas from St. Paul Pops Ballet "Fiesta": kneeling, Dianne Karschnia & Sharon Kulenkamp; standing, Mary Lou Goodwin, Mary Beth Tonskemper & Gay Steindorf. Photo credits: (2) Edward H. the previous year by almost 40%, and it was necessary to introduce a special free skating hour for advanced students. The regular teaching staff, composed of Director Hans Johnsen, Herman Maricich and Carol Mittun, was busy keeping pace with lesson requests. Assistant instructors were Hugh McAulay, James Waldo, Robert Daily and Douglas Duffy. The resort's "Learn-To-Skate" week plan, initiated this summer (June 30-Aug. 31), met with much favor; many of these guests joined the Sun Valley FSC and took USFSA tests for the first time. Two major series of tests were held—the first on July 28-31, and the second, Aug. 25-30. In all,

55 figure and 97 individual dance tests were given; highlighting the August series was one successful Eighth Test. The carnival, directed by Hans Johnsen, was staged on nine consecutive Saturdays from July 5 to Aug. 30, with a special performance on July 8. Stars included World Team member Robert Lee Brewer, DeAnn Beideck, Kristin Mittun, Lynn Thomas, Karen Howland, Anne Lapeyre, John Hendrickson, Scott Allen and Carl Olson; professionals were Jacquie Koukal, Douglas Duffy, Herman Maricich and James Waldo. On Aug. 25, the club gave a dinner party at Trail Creek Cabin for the entire cast.

Lakewood Ice Arena's 10th annual summer (June 23-Aug. 16) had John Johnsen, Muriel Kay, Nancy Larsen and Peggy Skala on its professional staff. Sponsored by the Lakewood WC, Tacoma, Wash., the summer was marked by high temperatures which caused adverse ice conditions during part of the school. However, since the club has its own dock by the lake on which the Arena is located, skaters were able to swim and sun-bathe on the spot. Both Figure and Dance Judges Schools were part of the schedule of events.

Canada

The Meadowlark Curling Club was the home of the second annual Calgary Summer School (Alta.), from June 31 to Aug. 31. Peggy Currie and her daughter Sonja, and Bernard Youtlen made up the professional complement. Three trainees were successful in passing their Seventh Tests. A departure from the skating schedule in July was an all-day bus trip. About 40 persons toured Banff, swam at Cave and Basin, took a tour of Johnson's Canyon, and picnicked at Banff Park.

Spring, summer and fall sessions were held at the Guelph Curling Club (Ont.) from May 2 to Sept. 28. The summer school in Guelph has been operating for the past eight years, but this summer it was directed by Pro Ross Smith for the first time, with Joan Meloche as the second professional. A large number of skaters attended from many points in Western and Central Ontario. Tests passed averaged about 80%—ranging from the Preliminary to Sixth in figures and from Preliminary to Gold in dance.

At Kelowna, B. C., the Jeanne Ross Beaton Summer Skating School operated for the second year. Exhibitions were given each Friday night throughout the season (July 2-Aug. 31). The staff, in addition to Mrs. Beaton, included Winnie Silverthorne and Gerald Woodstrom.

A high point of the second summer at the Kentville Skating School (N. S.) was a trip to Grand Pre National Park. The season (July 10-Aug. 23) was directed by Pros Maxinne Armstrong and Alexander Balisch. Skaters combined their daily patch, free skating and dance sessions with a full sports schedule at a camp situated by salt water, and Marilyn Miller, a gold medalist swimmer, gave swimming instruction.

The New Toronto (Ont.) Summer Skating School at the Lakeshore Memorial Arena was under the direction of Pro Marcus Nikkanen, assisted by Ellen Burka, Rosemary Gordon, Mary Jane Halsted and Donald Tobin. Warm-up sessions were conducted each morning during the season (June 29-Aug. 31), followed by four solos of high test skaters; these were a popular feature. Extra dance sessions were added in the morning and afternoon. This year the school had its first fall session in September and plans to hold a spring session next year.

The eighth Stamford Summer Skating School, Niagara Falls, Ont., was the most social one to date. Weekly exhibitions were held every Sunday evening throughout the season (June 23-Aug. 24). The first social affair was a surprise birthday party given by the skaters for Director Wally Distelmeyer. The next week all the skaters joined in a "Masquerade Hop"; they wore costumes and danced in the arena lounge. In July Sundae Bafo was host to the school at a spaghetti party in Buffalo, with entertainment and music for dancing provided by "The Tune Rockers." In August skaters enjoyed a corn roast given by Jane Mason and Paul Crowther. The small fry provided a Friday afternoon open house on Aug. 15 for the teen-agers. Lynn Nicholson held a swimming and barbecue party at her home in Burlington. To close the successful summer's activities, Pros Wally & Bette Distelmeyer gave a wiener roast along the Niagara River.

The 17th annual "figure skating academy" at McIntyre Community Building had a nine-week season from June 30 to Aug. 31. The staff at the Schumacher Skating School (Ont.) consisted of Alex Fulton, Sheldon Galbraith, Hans Gerschwiler, Freddy Mesot, Dennis Silverthorne and Barbara Taplin. Three skaters won their Eighth Test Medals on the final day of the session. On eight Thursdays through the summer, starting on July 10, weekly Pop Concerts were presented. Among the top amateurs who performed in the shows were World Pair Champions Barbara Wagner & Robert Paul, and Canadian Singles Champions Margaret Crosland and Charles Snelling. Many Sectional Champions from the U. S. and Canada were also featured. Dance, pair and specialty numbers gave variety to the programs.

For the first time a fall season was held at the East York Arena in Toronto, from Sept. 3 to 30. An enrollment of about 40 skaters enjoyed the ample amount of ice time available at the school; tests were scheduled for the end of September. Director June Barringham had a staff of instructors including Toby Keeler, Gordon Manzie and Jean Owen. Plans are being set for a spring, fall and, possibly, a summer school in the future.

For the fourth year, the spring, summer and fall sessions of the Metropolitan Figure Skating School took place at the Weston Arena in Toronto, from May 1 to Sept. 30. The professional staff was composed of Directors Margaret & Bruce Hyland, Osborne Colson, Liliane de Kresz, John Rodway and Maureen Senior. There was an attendance of over 100 at the third annual Judges Conference, conducted by the CFSA Central Ontario Section on May 24-25 at the Arena. Dr. Sidney Soanes was Chairman and Mrs. D. J. Macdonald, Secretary. Among the speakers were Mrs. L. A. Graham, Nigel Stephens, Isabelle Henderson, J. Gordon Garden and William A. de Nance, Jr. On Aug. 28, the School gave a successful benefit for crippled children. Added to three court numbers, there were performances by U. S. and Canadian World Team Members—Carol Wanek, Otto Jelinek and Donald Jackson—and Louis Stong, Vicky Fisher and Henry Jelinek. A three-day period the end of August was devoted to the CFSA Centralized Tests, held at the Arena. Before the summer activities concluded, skaters enjoyed a wiener roast.

Many U. S. as well as Canadian skaters enjoyed Montreal's French Canadian atmosphere at the second annual Town of Mount Royal Skating School. The season—June 16 to Sept. 6—was directed by Pro Gustave Lussi, with a staff which included Ann Johnston, Daniel Ryan and Ede Kiraly. Three ice shows, presented on Aug. 14, 21 and 28, added sparkle to the summer's program. Champions from both sides of the border starred in the productions: Margaret Crosland and Sonia Snelling, Canadian Senior and Junior Singles; Gayle & Karl Freed, U. S. Junior Pair; and Harvey Balch, U. S. Novice. Also featured were Eddie Collins, Ann Martin, Lynn Finnegan, Lise Petit and Nancy Davidson. Among the social events were a couple of dances held for the skaters. Also memorable for the boys were the hunting trips in the Laurentians, supervised by Director of Recreation, K. H. Linder. A large number of tests were held towards the end of the season, and several students travelled to Lake Placid to take Gold Tests and to compete in the summer championships.

Although no data was furnished by presstime, six additional seasons were reportedly held. . . . The Plaza FSC in Warrensville Heights, Ohio obtained a sanction for a season to run from July 17 to Aug. 30. . . . At the Lake Bernard School in Sundridge, Ont., the fourth season (June 30-Aug. 30) was to be directed by Paul Tatton with Rosina &

Ray Lockwood also on the professional staff. . . . Camp Ak-O-Mak (Assistant Director Mary Frances Greschke) featured skating at the School on its program. . . . The second season at Welland, Ont. was to have Director Ronald Vincent, Philip Racine and Mona Sams as the instructors. . . . Vancouver, B. C. was again to be the site for two summer skating schools—one conducted by Albert Enders and the other directed by Edy Rada. . . . A summer skating school was again to be held in Victoria, B. C.

Howard D. Herbert

Meet the New USFSA President

By WILLIAM E. RUSSELL

Buffalo Skating Club

"GOLD IS WHERE YOU FIND IT." In the case of Howard D. Herbert, our new USFSA President, we know that we have a valuable leader who at one time, ironically, was a gold prospector in northern Canada. Perhaps Howard's love for ice skating started when he was playing hockey for Cobalt and Kirkland Lake, Ontario, where ice and time were plentiful during the winters.

Howard was born in Cleveland, Ohio. After completing his formal education, he spent nine years in the silver and gold mines. Returning to Akron, Ohio, Howard entered the rubber business. While in Akron, he became a charter member of the Akron Skating Club and served as a Club President. At Akron, Howard also served as a delegate to the USFSA meetings and in 1946 was elected to the Executive Committee, on which he has served in one capacity or another since that time.

He has been either a chairman or member of just about every committee in the structure. Howard was Chairman of the Summer Skating Committee for two years, Chairman of Finance for three years, Chairman of the Sanctions Committee also for three years, and was Association Treasurer for two years. These are just a few of the chairmanships that Howard has held, not to mention the numerous committees on which he has served. Through these years of working so closely with the Association, he has gained an outstanding insight and understanding of the workings of the Association.

Mr. & Mrs. Herbert (the former Mignon Ford, of Cleveland) moved to Buffalo in 1946. Later Howard served as president of the Buffalo Skating Club. It was here that he originated the Niagara Invitational competition and helped make the Buffalo Skating Club one of the most active clubs in the Association. In 1955, the club honored him with a lifetime honorary membership.

The Niagara Invitational competition was scheduled to be held every other year, and brought together American and Canadian skaters from an area encompassed by Detroit, Oakville, Ontario and Troy. It proved a wonderful opportunity for young skaters who were eager to enter competition but perhaps were not quite ready for the larger sectionals. Though no longer living in the Buffalo area, Howard's interest in his competition continues.

The Herberts not only skate for their own enjoyment, but further contribute to the sport by acting as judges for tests and competitions. On Sunday mornings in Buffalo, you could always find Howard taking a lesson on patch from Pro Lew Elkin and, later, "Red" Bainbridge. Howard enjoys nothing more than watching a Dutch Waltz executed by expert skaters.

Howard loves children. He has a son who is a research engineer with DuPont and five grandchildren living in Wilmington, Delaware. Children and skating just naturally go together and Howard has always been in the "juniors" corner, particularly when it came to competitions and carnivals. He watched keenly the early figure skating efforts of Hayes, Nancy and David Jenkins, and lent encouragement to many other youngsters at Akron, Cleveland and Buffalo.

In Buffalo, Howard was Manager of Sales of the Restfoam Division of Hewitt-Robbins, Inc. He is now Vice-President of the American Foam Rubber Company of Burlington, New Jersey. At the time of his promotion, the Herberts moved to Moorestown, New Jersey, where they have resided since 1956.

Golf is his one hobby other than figure skating. Here he is an average "business man" golfer having to go some to keep up with Mrs. Herbert, who is an above-average lady golfer. The Herberts are excellent bridge players and gracious hosts. If you have ever tasted Mignon's "wild rice and beef kidneys," you have had a real treat.

As Howard begins his term, we predict that his past achievements will be but a stepping stone to the new glories he will attain as President of the United States Figure Skating Association—a position he will fulfill with his usual efficiency, enthusiasm and loyalty.

News About Skaters

... World Champion David Jenkins has accepted a four-year scholarship to Western Reserve School of Medicine, in Cleveland, and has entered the first year class. David spent the summer skating on home ice at the Broadmoor SC. In September, David and Toronto's World Pair Champions, Barbara Wagner & Robert Paul, flew to Berlin, Germany, to appear in a three-day show put on by the Berlin Eissport Verband and the Berlin Schlittschuh Club.

... Hayes Jenkins, Olympic Champion, worked in a law firm during the summer and managed to skate at East Lansing on several weekends. He plans to make some professional appearances this winter while he is in his third year at Harvard Law School.

... World Champion Carol Heiss last May was elected Secretary of the New York Chapter of the U. S. Olympians; she and Nancy and Bruce Heiss summer skated at East Lansing. Carol was one of the guests at the Sports Illustrated sponsored dinner at the Waldorf-Astoria, New York City, on September 22, kicking off the People-to-People Sports Committee program. Other prominent skaters present were Tenley Albright, Dick Button and Hayes Jenkins.

... Olympic Champion Tenley Albright vacationed from her first year at Harvard Medical School with a six-week European trip last summer which took her to Paris, Germany, the Brussels Worlds Fair, London, and Ireland. On her return in mid-August she was featured skating on one of the many floats in connection with General Motors' Fiftieth Anniversary celebration in Flint, Mich. Coincidentally, at that time Dick Button, former Olympic and World Champion, was playing that city in a skating-acting role in the musical, Girl Crazy.

... Canadian Champion Margaret Crossland was one of the debutantes presented last summer to the Lieutenant Governor of Alberta at the Calgary Highlander Ball. Margaret will train in Winnipeg again this winter for the 1959 competitions. In preparation for studying pharmacy at the University of Manitoba next year, Margie will serve her apprenticeship this year in a drug store.

... Canadian Dance Champions Geraldine Fenton & William McLachlan passed the ISU Gold Dance Test in Lake Placid in September, making them triple Gold Medalists. Kathleen McCormick, Minto SC, also passed the ISU Gold in Lake Placid, giving her a fifth Gold Medal; she also holds her CFSA and USFSA Gold Dance and Eighth Test Medals. This was the first time that ISU Gold Dance Tests were given in this country.

... Canadian pair competitors Maria & Otto Jelinek were to leave for Switzerland in early October to attend the Alpine Mittelschule in Davos. Bronze medalists in the last two Worlds, they are planning to fly back from Europe in time to compete in this year's World Pair Championship.

... USFSA official Henry M. Beatty, who accompanied U. S. top skaters on a tour of Japan last spring, was made an honorary officer of the National Skating Union of Japan, and presented with an officer's pin—the first time a foreigner was so honored. ... Walter S. Powell, USFSA official, was honored by his club, the St. Louis SC, last May when he was appointed an Honorary Life Term Member of the Board of Directors.

Notes from Abroad: World Dance Champion Courtney Jones of Great Britain is skating this season with Doreen Denny; his former partner, June Markham, turned pro last spring to teach. Courtney has accepted a position as a dress designer with one of the leading wholesale manufacturers in Britain, but still skates quite a lot; it would "not be beyond the realms of possibility" for him to be competing again in international events. ... British Champion Michael Booker has also left the amateur ranks to teach at Schumacher, Ontario this winter. ... British Lady Champion Dianne Peach left England in July to join the ballet of Ice Capades and will understudy Chado and Helga.

... Correspondence from the Continent reveals that the two European Champions, Ingrid Wendl of Austria and Karol Divin of Czechoslovakia, will not be defending their titles—it is reported that Ingrid has turned pro to skate in the Vienna Ice Revue and Karol has retired from skating.

... Czechoslovakia's top pair—European Champions and World runners-up—have broken up due to Vera Suchankova's marriage, which leaves Zdenek Dolezal without a partner. ... Franz Ningel, West Germany, runner-up in the 1957 World Pairs, has a new partner, Margaret Goebel.

... The Nagy's—Hungary's 1950 and 1955 European Pair Champions—retired at a "farewell to skating" party in Budapest.

American Friendship Award

USFSA OFFICIAL HENRY M. BEATTY, who was made an honorary officer of the National Skating Union of Japan, toured Japanese cities last spring with four U. S. top skaters. Before returning home, Mr. Beatty contributed an award in return for all the hospitality. Called the American Friendship Award, the terms read as follows:

"To further Japanese-American friendship and to improve Japanese Free Skating, it gives me great pleasure to contribute the following prize:

"Each year, for the next five years, an appropriate medal or pin is to be awarded to the Singles skater in the All-Japan Championships who makes the best presentation of his or her Free Skating Program. This does not necessarily mean the best program but more specifically the skater who makes the best attempt to please the audience.

"The Winner and the specific award to be given shall be determined by the appropriate authorities of the National Skating Union of Japan.

"It is sincerely hoped that this award will help bring to Free Skating the love and appreciation of beauty, so much a part of life in Japan."

Changes in Dance Rules for the New Season

By F. RITTER SHUMWAY

Chairman, USFSA Dance Committee

A NUMBER OF CHANGES in dance test and competition rules for the coming season were approved by the USFSA Executive Committee upon the recommendation of the Dance Committee last May. While these changes can be quite easily spotted in the new Rulebook because they are printed in italics, it might be helpful, nonetheless, to point them out and to make a few comments on the most important of them.

The new rules become effective November 15, 1958. An earlier date could not have been used because the Rulebook was not published until early October and this issue of SKATING calling the attention of all skaters to the changes is only being published at the end of October. On the other hand a later date could not be used because within a comparatively few days after November 15 the first Subsectional Championships of the new skating season, which will be qualifying competitions for the Pacific Coast and Eastern Sectional Championships, will be held.

CHANGES WHICH AFFECT BOTH DANCE TESTS AND DANCE COMPETITIONS: Many skaters believe that it is more effective for the free leg of the partners to be parallel to each other at all times. This expression will now be "officially" possible in the Willow Waltz because Step 6 for the lady and Step 19 for the man may now be skated, optionally, as a slide chassé thus enabling the partners' free legs to match during the second half of the mohawk. (See Glossary of Dance Terms in 1959 Rulebook for definition of Slide Chassé, inserted there for the first time.)

After two seasons of permitting partial outside position in the four beat rolls (Steps 3, 6, 10 and 13) of the Tango and seeing mostly closed or waltz position which was not penalized by the judges, the USFSA Dance Committee believed that it would be better to return to the original rule which required only outside position for these steps. Another factor influencing the decision of the Committee was to conform the USFSA Tango to the ISU regulation on this point. It is recognized that this rule will decrease flow in this dance so we may find a movement away from the use of a "once around" and back to one of several "twice around" patterns that can be used for this dance.

The ISU Foxtrot has been adopted in place of the former USFSA Foxtrot. The most obvious changes in this dance are that the first three steps which were formerly a progressive run now are a cross in back chassé sequence and that all the threes for both the lady and the man are cross rolled. Another change, but one which is not quite as obvious, is that at the end of Step 8 the partners must be in outside (hip to hip as in Tango) position. In this connection, it should be particularly noted that although many of the European skaters go into full outside position at the beginning of Step 6 immediately after the lady's three turn, our rules make explicit what is implicit in the ISU rules, namely, that the correct partner position for Steps 6 and 7 is waltz or closed position.

The attention of the ladies is drawn to Step 9 which is started with a cross in back roll to match with the man's cross rolled three.

It should also be noted that the Foxtrot now becomes a preferred rather than a set pattern dance. In tests, therefore, any pattern may be used which the candidate prefers, provided only that correct edges are skated. In competitions, however, the pattern shown in the Rulebook must be used when the Foxtrot is skated in a Final Round.

CHANGES AFFECTING ONLY DANCE TESTS: Because of the great difficulty encountered by many dancers in finding a partner who had the necessary time and ability to work up a free dance for completion of the Gold Dance Test, it has been decided to award the Gold Medal to dancers who have passed all the compulsory dances. To encourage Free Dancing, however, the former free dance portion of the Gold Dance Test has been made a separate test which can be taken after (but only after) all the compulsory dances have been passed. Completion of the Gold Free Dance Test will be recognized by the award of a bar to the Gold Dance Medal. On the bar will be inscribed the words "Free Dance."

In the solo portion of the Pre Gold Dance Test the candidate is now required to show some evidence of dance expression in addition to being able to keep in time with the music and in general to follow the pattern of the dance.

CHANGES AFFECTING ONLY DANCE COMPETITIONS: A new "twice around" pattern for the Blues will be found in the 1959 edition of the Rulebook. The USFSA Dance Committee believes that the new diagram is a substantial improvement on the old pattern, especially in Steps 9, 10 and 11, which formerly had to be skated on quite shallow edges; in the new pattern they will be skated on a good curve. The new pattern also seems to lend itself to more flow, particularly for Steps 1, 2 and 3, as well as Step 7. While the Blues remains a preferred pattern dance and, therefore, any pattern which follows the correct edges may be used when taking a test or when skating in the Initial Round of a competition, the new diagram must be followed when the Blues is skated in a Final Round of dance competition.

In general, the number of patterns of a compulsory dance which must be skated in dance competition has been reduced. In the Final Round the number of patterns has been reduced, in general, to four with the exception of the Argentine, which must be skated only three times through the complete sequence. For the Initial Round, the Referee has been given authority to determine whether the number of patterns for that particular competition shall be three or four. His decision in this matter must be announced to the judges and to the contestants not later than immediately prior to the official warm-up for the competition.

According to our present rules every entrant in National Gold Dance competition must have skated at least once in National Silver Dance competition. This requirement has been slightly altered so that in the future every entrant in National Gold must only have been eligible to have skated at one time in National Silver Dance competition.

There have been several rather technical changes made in the methods for breaking ties in dance competitions. For example, in a dance competition in which Free Dancing is used in the Final Round, one additional step has been added in the breaking of a tie by letting the mark received for "method of execution" in the Free Dancing decide the place after all other steps have failed. The previous rules provided for a skating off of an extreme tie for fourth place. This provision has been eliminated and instead other simpler and more positive provisions have been made (for details see CR 26.20-26.30 in the 1959 Rulebook).

It's a Thought

So you think our dance tests are tough? British and French dancers must pass all the dances of a test at one and the same session. In addition, a candidate for the French Silver Dance Test must begin his test by skating passably one of the Bronze Test dances, selected by the judges and announced at the start of the test, before being permitted to continue with the Silvers.—furnished by MARGARETTA DRAKE, Skokie Valley FSC.

Olympus Is for the Gods

THE IDENTITY of the author of the comments which follow is known to the Editor of SKATING and is available to anyone interested. The reason for this qualified anonymity will probably become apparent; at least, it will be suspected—which is not much different. The writer is a low test judge who has developed a feeling that high test judges should graciously refuse, when practicable, to enter the field of operations of low test judges.

This feeling is based on some observation of the fate of candidates for First and Second Test honors who have encountered a panel of high test judges. This can happen when a club has a schedule which requires, for one or two tests, judges of high rank. So the visiting "brass," possibly to their dismay, wind up working on the low tests, too. Far from appreciating such honor, the low test candidates are, in many instances, stunned, demoralized and failed.

Consider the elements of the situation. The candidate is a youngster trying the First Test, or a lovely lady who was a little late in discovering the pleasure of skating and is determined to make up for the wasted years. Let us assume that they have practiced diligently. They are, however, definitely in the low test area of skating ability. They are on trial and, if they were to be tried by a jury of their "peers"—by definition, those of their rank—the panel would consist of low test judges.

There is a reasonable presumption that the low test judge is somewhat more understanding of the low test candidate's tension and inevitable errors than ladies and gentlemen whose normal diet includes the nation's, or even the world's, best executed brackets, loops, counters, etc.

But it happens that these extremely competent ladies and gentlemen are not, at the moment, observing and judging the performance of an Albright or a But-ton, a Heiss or a Jenkins. Can it be expected that always they will have that firmly in mind?

The instant fact is that they are passing judgment on young Johnny Hopeful or Mrs. Ima Gonnadoot, a couple of eager-edgers who have been told by their instructors that they are ready to try a low test. So they do, and they wind up stone cold dead—failed by one or another of the high test judges who have become accustomed to near-perfection and who, quite understandably, are unable to gear down easily from a caviar to a hot-dog standard of performance.

Judging, in figure skating, could be described as the expression of an informed opinion of the performance of the skater observed. There is, however, this other consideration: the quality of performance reasonably to be expected at the skater's level. The low test skater who does not reach the appropriate level of accomplishment should not, of course, be passed out of an excess of charity. Nor should the skater be failed because the level of performance is below that which a high test judge has come to expect.

The only thing suggested is this: When practicable, let low test candidates be judged by low test judges. When the norm of judgment, by general understanding, is as high as an elephant's knee, it is unfair to the skater to have it become suddenly, through some happenstance, as high as an elephant's eye.

• • • • •

ALTHOUGH THE AUTHOR'S SUGGESTION is contrary to both the letter and spirit of our judging rules, it appears to be well written and interesting. As long as the writer's attitude is clearly concerned with the best interests of the sport rather than some local personal situation, it seems perfectly all right for him to speak his opinion about this subject.

National (and higher) judges are supposed to be qualified to judge from Preliminary through Eighth Tests and it has been my observation that most (but not all) of them properly differentiate between "what you would expect" of a low test skater and a Gold Medal candidate. Because of our ever increasing work load of judging tests and competitions, and because of the fact that the higher figures can be judged only by the higher judges, most of the lower tests must be handled by low and intermediate test judges anyway. Still there are some very good reasons for using National judges in lower tests. Among these are:

(1) A National judge in a panel is often of great help to the other judges in the discussion after the tests, by comparing standards, opinions, etc.

(2) National judges must keep their hand in at judging lower figures as they are often required to judge them in competitions.

(3) Where judges must be "imported," as at summer centers, National judges must be used on all levels for obvious reasons of economy.

(4) It has been my experience that where one of the judges is a World judge, most of the skaters want him to judge, and even request it if he tries to take his turn off duty. This may be because they think he is a "rest period" compared to the stern low test judges, or because they imagine some special distinction attaches to a "Pass" if granted by such a judge.

Anyway, thanks to the author for the article. His implied comparison of National and World judges to the Gods on Olympus is indeed flattering. Wait until he gets to be a National judge! He will join us in wishing that more people would say such nice things.—H. KENDALL KELLEY, Chairman, USFSA Figure Judging Committee.

Eastern Clubs

Brooklyn FSC, on June 18, gave a "congratulations" party for newlyweds Carole & Gene Block, engaged couple Fran Chia-brandy & John Neville, and St. Michael's Academy graduate Cecilia Luschak. Each girl was presented with a lei and a corsage of carnations, and the highlight of the affair occurred when each girl cut her own personalized cake.

Garden State SC has been making preparations to hold the first North Atlantic States Championships, a qualifying sub-sectional for the Eastern Championships. The event will take place at the Casino Ice Palace in Asbury Park, N. J. on Dec. 5-7. Richard P. Morgan has been appointed Chairman of the competition, to be assisted by Katrine Neil.

Hershey FSC will have two rinks available for this season, as the Hershey Sports Arena is building a new outdoor artificial rink. This added rink means skaters will have ice during the month the ice shows take over the Arena. There will be a lodge adjoining the new rink for skaters to warm up and relax in. Plans for the fall include an "old" or former members' night, four guest nights for prospective members, and a Halloween party on Oct. 30. During the summer, the club turned out in full force for the two-hour dance sessions on Thursday evenings. All summer season students were invited to the two "after skating" parties held by the club. Just before the summer began, the new club pro, Felix Kaspar, was introduced to members and the juniors' parents at two parties given by the Arena Management.

Manhattan FSC held sessions at Iceland, New York twice a week from Apr. 24 to July 27. Many guests availed themselves of the opportunity to join Manhattan members on the ice, as the number of guests during the winter is limited. The annual dinner took place on June 10 at the New York University Club. Dinner was followed by a lively evening of dancing for members and friends. The first fall affair planned was a Halloween party on the ice on Oct. 24, with refreshments to be served at rinkside.

Metropolitan FSC skaters during the summer were entertained twice at members' homes. On June 14, Jack Hirsch gave a buffet supper, followed by dancing under the stars. Mr. & Mrs. Herman Brickman welcomed members to their Great Neck estate; swimming in the pool, tennis, a buffet supper, and dancing made up the schedule for the afternoon and evening affair. The fall skating agenda includes Monday evening sessions at Iceland, New York.

Pittsburgh FSC members have no prospects of skating in their home territory for the coming season. However, a possibility exists of having one or two outdoor rinks completed in time for some skating next year. According to a newspaper item: "Ice skating at North Park appears to be a certainty for next year. There also is a good chance that skating will be going on a short time later at South Park."

R. P. I. FSC members, after returning from summer skating centers, made preparations for the winter by organizing a membership drive. The drive's opening was highlighted by a club booth situated at the arena where Ice Capades was appearing. The season is to start early in November with an opening party and meeting.

The SC of Boston Board of Governors has authorized the construction of a five-room addition to the rink. The added space will provide locker room, shower facilities, etc., for hockey players, and free the remainder of the rink for future expansion of club facilities, including a larger dressing room, a new first aid room and admitting office, and an enlarged kitchen. On Nov. 14, members plan to take part in the dedication of the new Boston College rink. The skating program, directed by Club Pro Montgomery Wilson, is to star World Champion Carol Heiss and Olympic Champion Hayes Jenkins. Boston skaters featured are Maribel Owen & Dudley Richards, Gregory Kelley, Lorraine Hanlon, Frank Muckian, Bradley Lord, Mary Cooper, Jane Potter, and many others.

The SC of Worcester competition was held on June 7-8. Winners: singles, Ginny Ryan and Frank Carroll; junior ladies, Nancy Mitchell; novice ladies, Sandra Cousineau; juvenile girls, Sue Brownell.

Syracuse FSC's closing party at the Jamieson Studio rink last spring was attended by about 40 members. Though the ice was crowded, everyone enjoyed a last skate and the refreshments served in celebration of the many tests passed that afternoon. On June 10, a meeting to set up committees to run the club's summer session (each Wednesday evening) was held at the Bellevue Country Club, with former President John Donohue as host. Attendance at the Wednesday evening sessions was open to other clubs and proved successful.

Washington FSC spring season closed with a picnic for members and friends on June 8. Exhibition Spanish dancing and a song festival with words composed by Mrs. Marie Gladding and her helpers gave a festive air to the event. The buffet supper was provided by each family who brought a specified dish. Newly-elected Club President G. Norris Shaw, Sr., led the song festival. Fall events commenced with a pre-season business meeting in September.

Midwestern Clubs

Broadmoor SC members volunteered to teach Girl Scouts in a trial program started last spring at the Broadmoor Ice Palace. Twice a week from 5 to 6 o'clock, two different groups of girls, divided according to their size and skating ability, participated in the program. Though primarily designed to assist these girls in obtaining their merit badges, it was hoped this procedure would develop an enthusiasm for skating.

Chicago FSC has made arrangements to skate at the Rainbo Arena from the end of September to the end of March. Seniors will skate Monday, Wednesday and Saturday evenings and juniors will skate on Friday evenings. Plans for a gala opening night party included inviting prospective members. On Sept. 6 a group of 65 skaters, most of whom are club members, held a private two-hour dance session at the new Palace Ice Rink adjoining the Wagon Wheel Lodge in Rockton, Ill. Another such session was planned for the weekend of Sept. 27. Several socials took place during the spring and summer months. Club members and Skokie Valley SC skaters were guests of Mr. & Mrs. Thomas Dean at a season's end party on Apr. 29 at the Rainbo Arena and enjoyed three hours of dancing and free skating. Eighty members attended the annual business meeting which followed a delicious chicken dinner at the Belmont Yacht Club on May 27. On June 8, Mr. & Mrs. Arnold Darsch gave an open house. June 14 marked the date of the club's fourth annual spring Golf Tournament, held at the Glendale Country Club; 20 golfers took part and a dozen other club members joined them later for dinner. At the annual beach party at Lake Bluff on Aug. 10, the gathering around the punch bowl on the H. H. Ashinger's lawn proceeded to the beach.

Cleveland SC is conducting the fifth Judges School and Workshop on Nov. 15-16, with everyone interested in judging invited to attend. The faculty chosen to lead the discussions and ice work includes Henry Beatty, Louis Cody, Mrs. Charles DeMore, Mrs. L. A. Graham, H. Kendall Kelley, Mrs. Fred Rittinger and, possibly, E. Newbold Black, IV. The subjects to be covered are figure and dance tests, accounting, pair skating and free skating.

Dallas FSC entertained skaters' families and friends on June 6 with a barbecue picnic and general meeting at the Fair Park picnic grounds. Plans for rides on the midway for all the youngsters were disrupted due to an electrical storm. However, members were able to engage a large hall for games to amuse the children. At this time the parents and adult members held a meeting and elected officers. On Sept. 14 an open house for members, friends and prospective members took place at Fair Park Arena. Exhibitions were staged by various individuals and the dance class. The club closed on Sept. 28 for a month while Ice Capades occupied the Arena, and planned to resume sessions on Oct. 26.

FSC of Cincinnati members looked forward to skating in a new rink to be situated in a building being built by the Garden and scheduled for completion in mid-November. All club and public skating will take place in the new building which is situated alongside and south of the present building.

FSC of Minneapolis, in addition to its sessions at the Minneapolis Arena, has obtained ice time at the new Ice Center, situated in Golden Valley. The year-around indoor rink was scheduled to open in October. During the summer many members skated in the St. Paul Pop Concerts, while others travelled to Canada as well as other Midwestern skating centers.

FSC of Omaha scheduled two-hour dance sessions on seven Sunday evenings during the summer season sponsored by the club at the Pershing Municipal Auditorium in Lincoln, Nebr. The winter season's opening date was set for Nov. 3.

Illini FSC's rink received a general face-lifting during the summer with an outlay of $75,000 budgeted for rink improvements. Included in this amount are two new freon compressors, installation of new border areas, revamping of locker, supplies, dressing and food serving areas.

Silver Blades FSC of Kansas City for the first time in over 10 years will be functioning again with dance classes added to the regular compulsory figure lessons. In addition, classes are being organized with students from the various parochial and public schools whereby they will receive skating credits to be applied to their gym work.

Skokie Valley SC's annual business meeting took place in May at the home of Mr. & Mrs. Lyman M. Drake, Jr. After a social hour over dessert and coffee, the election of officers was held. The evening wound up with a showing of the film of the 1957 World Dance Championships. Ten Sunday evening sessions have been arranged, including group instruction, at the Hubbard Woods Studio, beginning Oct. 12, with the enrollment limited to 40 persons. Plans are being made for several family sessions as well. The customary series of dinner-skating parties has been announced, with the first one slated for the Saddle and Cycle Club in mid-December. After the first of the year, the club will visit Skokie, Indian Hill and Exmoor Country Clubs which all provide outdoor natural ice.

Troy SC's preliminary schedule called for the first junior session on Sept. 15 after school when all beginners as well as last year's Monday skaters were tested for class assignment. Tuesday and Wednesday class members reported on Sept. 16. A meeting of parents and relatives of juniors was scheduled for Sept. 17, during which time all registered juniors could free skate. Seniors met for the first time on Sept. 22 and will skate both Monday and Tuesday nights this year. Assigned patches and a committee to assist beginners will be a further innovation. Two family sessions took place on Sept. 7 and 14.

WC of Indianapolis planned to open its skating season the evening of Oct. 10, and to skate every Wednesday and Friday night and Sunday afternoon through April, except when shows and other events are scheduled at the Indiana State Fairgrounds Coliseum. The club also hopes to continue the Saturday morning "early birds" session for its junior members.

Pacific Coast Clubs

Arctic Blades FSC presented two recitals, entitled Parade International, on Sept. 22 and 29. Starring were U. S. Junior Singles Champions Barbara Roles and James Short and Novice Champion Rhode Michelson. The production spotlighted numbers which had several different countries as their themes. The annual picnic took place at Lynwood Park; many members enjoyed games, a pot luck dinner and an evening swim.

Arrowhead FSC sessions were held last season at the Ontario Ice Bowl in Ontario, Calif. The senior session met every Sunday evening for almost two hours; the time was divided to include patch work, dance time, beginning, intermediate and advanced instruction by the professionals—Irene & Dick Meister.

Los Angeles FSC entertained member clubs of the Southern California Inter-Club Association and their friends at a four-hour skating party on Sept. 7. The evening of dancing and free skating celebrated both the beginning of the season and the grand opening of the newly re-decorated Polar Palace rink, which had been closed during July and August while a new ice surface, new floors, and new stonework outside were installed. Exhibitions were given by club competitors, including Lorin Caccamise, Carol Galloway, Sandy Carson, Walter Hypes, Gale Thomas, Margie Ackles & Charles Phillips, Jr., Yvonne Littlefield & Roy Wagelein, and many others. Dr. Robert Wilkins, recently elected President, welcomed the more than 600 skaters and guests. Music Chairman Sid Kanin and Master of Ceremonies Erle Richardson kept the party running smoothly, though there were from 50 to 75 couples on the ice at once during the dance session.

The SC of Phoenix scholarship award went to Heather Porteous, entitling her to ten weeks of skating and instruction at the Broadmoor Ice Palace. The scholarship was sponsored by Harold Yost; the award was given not only because Heather maintained a rigid daily skating program, but also because, at the same time, she was capable of achieving a straight one average in the eighth grade.

The SC of San Francisco opened with the first adult session on Sept. 25 and the opening adult party the next day. The Entertainment Committee, headed by Barbara Shieck, planned a full evening with an informal skating program followed by cocktails and appetizers served on the mezzanine. This season the dance session and the elementary session will receive one-half hour of instruction every other week, beginning on Sept. 29 and 30. The Junior Council for the winter includes Ellen Kullmann, President; Bill Hickox, Vice-President; and Laurie Hickox, Secretary. The first junior party was set for Oct. 4.

Sun Valley FSC's social committee supervised club sessions on Monday evenings during the summer. The majority featured games on ice and refreshments for the younger members. Several times a dance program was incorporated into the session, and on two occasions the period was devoted to free skating and to conducting tests.

Canadian Clubs

Fort William Thunder Bay FSC competitions were held last April. The singles winners: senior, Nancy Fennell and Sidney Turner; junior, Sheryl Bohonos; novice, Laura McArthur; gold star group, Jean Lozowy; blue star group, Rosemary Heuft; red star group, Andrea Grassi. Lynda Gibbon & Margo Remus won the senior ladies pair. Dance winners: senior, Nancy Fennell & Sidney Turner; senior ladies, Patricia Toppi & Nancy Fennell; junior ladies, Marsha Hardy & Brenda Gold; novice ladies, Donna Bohonos & Brenda Gold.

Niagara Falls SC's last season was most successful with large gains in membership, revenue, and patch and lesson participation. Two factors which are a barometer of the club's progress are the number of tests passed and the success of the annual carnival.

North Bay FSC had one of the most successful seasons on record. Highlighting the winter's activities were the annual award of trophies, participation in the Northern Ontario Championships, the annual carnival, called Space Capades, and the greatly enlarged group instruction sessions. The trophy winners were: Mc Carthy Trophy, Joyce Doddmeade; E. L. Banner Trophy, Diane Cantin; Kiwanis Trophy, John Dorsey.

Stamford SC, for the first time in its history, held Seventh and Eighth Tests last season. Out of five candidates, two were successful in passing their Seventh Tests. On Apr. 18, a senior party was held at St. Martins Church, during which James Hill presented the Niagara Peninsula Cup to the club for winning the highest number of points in the Western Ontario and Niagara Peninsula Championships.

Arthur M. Goodridge

ARTHUR M. GOODRIDGE, President of the Cambridge Skating Club from 1919 to 1949 died on July 21, at the age of 81. Mr. Goodridge was active in the formation of the USFSA, and the Cambridge Skating Club was one of the founding clubs of the Association. Lake Placid Dance Record List

By WEBSTER S. ESHELMAN

Philadelphia Skating Club & Humane Society

THE LAKE PLACID LIST of dance records, which is published annually, indicates the tunes found satisfactory during the summer dance sessions in August of each year. A free copy may be obtained by writing to the Olympic Arena, Lake Placid, N. Y.

Through the cooperation of the Rinx Record Co., more Waltz records are now available, which have been recorded at Metronome 138 (Ice Metronome 46). This permits us to discontinue a number of the Metronome 108 Waltz records, which were speeded up for our use in the Dutch Waltz as well as the European and Willow Waltzes. An improvement in the quality of music for these dances has been achieved, since the distortion due to a change in speed has been practically eliminated.

Satisfactory single tune records for the American Waltz have disappeared from the market and it is now necessary to use 45 r.p.m. Extended Play discs with two tunes on a side. These selections are shown in the record list.

The larger number of outdoor ice rinks as well as additional indoor arenas has produced many new groups of skaters. Some of these skaters have become interested in ice dancing but lack proper guidance or experience to produce satisfactory dance sessions. Some of the more important essentials of ice dance music are outlined in this article for their benefit.

The use of the Lake Placid list should help all dance groups to obtain satisfactory records for ice dancing. Considerable money is wasted each year by inexperienced music committees in buying records which are unsatisfactory under rink conditions.

The purpose of dance music is to help two partners do their respective steps in the proper sequence and at the same time keep in unison throughout the dance. Both the strong beat and the melody have a function to perform in achieving this objective.

If the beat is too strong, the effect of the melody is largely lost and the dancers tend to skate in a mechanical manner. If all records used a strong beat, like Elmer's Tune (Tempo), our dancers would become mentally fatigued by the end of a dance session. In contrast the Tango record Bandoneon Arrabalero (Decca) does not have a loud beat but it is so distinct that the tune has been used for many years.

Some test candidates ask for a record with a prominent melody, not realizing that a distinct beat is also required. Dancing is made more enjoyable by properly selected melodies, which permit the beat to be heard. The skater can dance in a more relaxed manner and the lilt of the music often helps the dancer to change the lean or body positions when required.

New dance groups often fail to appreciate the need for uniform and accurate tempos for ice dance music. Speed Dials are placed on records to provide uniform timing under varying rink conditions and, when properly selected, furnish accurate dance tempos. For example, 53 different 45 r.p.m. dials are available for the 28 r.p.m. range in speed between 30 and 57.60. This system is simple, involves little expense, and is in general use for tests and competitions.

A variable speed turntable should be used so that a wide selection of records can be used for ice dancing. The most widely used turntable has a continuously variable speed from 25 to 100 r.p.m. and plays 33, 45 and 78 r.p.m. records. Unfortunately, some dancers are located in rinks which have a fixed speed turntable and not a variable speed turntable. The 1958 Lake Placid list offers a few records providing correct tempo for eight dances and approximately correct tempo for seven other dances.

Around Other Circuits

. . . ICE CAPADES STARS Ronnie Robertson and Cathy Machado won the singles divisions of the World Professional Championships held in England last spring. Ronnie defeated two other competitors, capturing 58.5 points out of a possible 60; Chado received 57.5 to defeat her six rivals. The competition was in free skating only, and demonstrated a unique marking system. Six judges each marked on a different phase of the performances. In the Pair and Dance events, Ray and Rosina Lockwood returned from Canada to win both titles.

. . . Richard Dwyer is back with Ice Follies after a six-months tour of duty in the Army; Richard was accepted in the Army Reserve program which calls for six months of basic training followed by one month of active duty annually for the next five and one-half years.

. . . Grand lady of skating, Elsbeth Muller, celebrated her 80th birthday on August 22 and was presented with a big cake by her pupils at the Arcadia Skating Rink in Detroit. Miss Muller's skating career started at age 7 in Germany, with her brother George. They turned professional in 1910, and two years later became instructors for The SC of Boston where they stayed for many years. Miss Muller gave up ice skating instruction four years ago but still continues with her teaching on rollers.

ICE FOLLIES OF 1959

23rd edition, featuring Richard Dwyer, Lesley Goodwin, Janet Champion, Florence Rae, Gordon Crossland, Marlene Kistner, Mr. Frick, The Beattys, Wall & Dova, Barbara Myers, Gary Johnson, Jo Ann Dawdy, the Kermond Brothers, Glenn & Colleen, and others. The new Australian

adagio team (Glen & Colleen) are very artistic and expressive, with good tricks and a feeling for music. The synchronized pair of Kistner & Crossland show real skating in a smooth and polished performance. The ski number, Snow Valley, gives an unusual effect of moonlight skiing with flashlights. Land of Sew & Sew concludes in very colorful strobolite. Les Parisiennes presents a strong and well-costumed precision number. Choreography by Frances Claudet.

ICE CAPADES OF 1959

19th edition, featuring Ronnie Robertson, Cathy Machado, Jimmy Grogan, Bobby Specht, Freddie Trenkler, Eric Waite, Romaine & Steele, Markhus & Thomas, and others. Outstanding new numbers are the Les Sylphides Ballet and the Black Watch Finale; the latter is a fine precision group. In Operama Ronnie skates to Pagliacci; Chado interprets La Boheme; Bobby Specht does Faust; and Romaine & Steele impress in Samson & Delilah. A cute number is a condensed version of Snow White, featuring Sandy Culbertson. Anchors Away presents precision. Seven principals perform in A Salute to Irving Berlin with 16 hit tunes. Choreography by Dench & Stewart, and Gene Loring.

HOLIDAY ON ICE OF 1959

14th edition, featuring Jinx Clark, Jimmy Lawrence, Margaret Field, Frankie Sawers, Erika Kraft, Paul Andre, The Maxwells, The Le Macs, Lockwood & Balmer, and others. Production features are We're Off to See the Wizard (with Margaret Field in this "over the rainbow" adventure); Sweet Tulip Time (a strobe number featuring Erika Kraft and Frankie Sawers); Exotic Enchantment (Jinx Clark, with beautiful scenes, delicate lighting and fascinating music); Chinese New Year Festival; Ice Prom (a salute to King Winter); Vive Les Girls; Holiday in the Skies. Choreographer: Chester Hale.

Book Review

"THIS SKATING AGE," by Howard Bass, published by Stanley Paul, London, England. 212 pages. Illustrated. Price 15s. net.

Skating enthusiasts, especially younger ones and beginners, will find much of interest and value in this charming volume about their favorite sport. Characterized throughout by the "light touch" and embellished with many personal anecdotes, this book really covers skating in its broadest aspects, including not only ice figure skating, but roller skating, speed skating on both blades and wheels, dancing on skates, and show skating, as well.

In addition to advice for beginners about proper equipment, the fundamental elements of skating, school figures, free skating programs, it also reviews briefly the historical highlights of the sport, the establishment of championship competitions, early championships and champions, and skating in the Olympic Games. Although the author's experience with the sport of skating is limited to post-World War II, he has developed an enthusiasm for the sport which bubbles forth from every page, and indicates every "symptom" of the now well-defined syndrome known as "skating fever." After free-lance writing about the sport directly after the War, he organized, in December 1948, his own publication, The Skater, Skier, and Ice Hockey Player, and from his writing, editing, and publishing experience, he has enlarged his knowledge and has come in contact with almost every important skater of the post-war era.

While this book is not intended to be an exhaustive expert treatise on skating and skating techniques, and indeed it is not, it has a disarming lack of sophistication that makes it most pleasant reading. On this basis, it could be a desirable addition to the skating library of the younger enthusiast, who will share with the author a wholesome growing devotion to a great sport.—RICHARD L. HAPGOOD.
