HARRY A. STAFFORD

HERSHEY, PENNSYLVANIA

June 10 – August 19

Camp Carroll is the first skating camp of its kind in the United States. In addition to skating, the camp offers such additional activities as swimming, archery, badminton, canoeing, tennis, and golf.

Appetizing and nourishing meals are prepared three times a day with the open kitchen door policy for those who like to snack between meals.

The camp program is so laid out as to give the skater a maximum amount of sunshine daily. Sports apparel; shorts, etc. may be worn at all times.

There is a spacious recreation room, one of the camp's many facilities.

Swimming is under the supervision of a Red Cross Water Safety Instructor.

An accredited summer school is conducted by Hershey High School. The Camp director has also contacted several professors who are available for tutoring in special subjects.

Reservations may be made by the week or for the entire season

Howard D. Herbert

1888-1961

President

United States Figure Skating Association

AS MENTIONED by Mr. Shumway on the opposite page, Howard D. Herbert's background in USFSA matters ranged over a wide number of positions during a period of many years. He served either as a chairman or member of just about every committee in the structure since his election to the Executive Committee in 1946. He was the Chairman of the Summer Skating Committee for two years, Chairman of Finance for three years, Chairman of Sanctions for three years, and was the Treasurer of the Association for two years. He became President of the USFSA in 1958 and was serving out his term at the time of his death. On the club level, Mr. Herbert was a charter member of the Akron Skating Club, was made its President, and was a delegate to USFSA meetings. On moving to Buffalo, he continued his club activity and later was elected President of the Buffalo Skating Club. While there, he originated the Niagara Invitational competition, and in 1955 the club made him a lifetime honorary member. Howard D. Herbert was born on October 27, 1888, in Cleveland, Ohio. After completing his formal education, he spent nine years in the silver and gold mines in northern Canada. Returning to Akron, Ohio, he entered the rubber business; in 1946, he and Mrs. Herbert (the former Mignon Ford of Cleveland) moved to Buffalo where he was Manager of Sales of the Restfoam Division of Hewitt-Robbins, Inc. At the time of his death, he was Vice-President and General Sales Manager of the Microfoam Industrial Division of the American Foam Rubber Corporation in Riverton, N. J. The Herberts made their home in Moorestown, N. J. Besides his wife, Mr. Herbert is survived by a son, Howard D., Jr., a resident of Wilmington, Del., and five grandchildren.—THERESA WELD BLANCHARD.

A Tribute to Howard D. Herbert

By F. RITTER SHUMWAY

USFSA First Vice-President

IN THE SUDDEN and untimely passing of Howard Herbert on Sunday, January 22, figure skating and figure skaters have lost a great friend. I know whereof I speak for I was privileged to know and to work with Howard for a dozen years or more.

I first met Howard Herbert on the ice as an enthusiastic fellow skater in the Buffalo Skating Club. That was in the days when I was just getting started and the nearest artificially frozen ice was in Buffalo, some 70 miles from my home in Rochester. The warmth of his friendliness and encouragement to me, a rank neophyte and out-of-towner at that, was typical of his deep interest in, and concern for, people . . . especially skating people.

I watched as Howard won the affection and respect of his fellow club members so that his choice as President of the Buffalo Skating Club was a most natural and very popular one. I saw him administer the affairs of his club with skill, tact and great ability.

When I attended my first USFSA Governing Council meeting, it was Howard Herbert who once more welcomed me and quietly, unobtrusively did so much to make me feel at ease. At that meeting I remember so clearly how he took up the cause of certain skaters and won the respect and admiration of all with the gentle but firm way in which he persisted in advocating a course of action which he felt—and which in the end was accepted by all—as the fairest for those skaters. He saw to it that reason triumphed over emotions.

During his term as Chairman of the Sanctions Committee I had several occasions to be in touch with Howard regarding some thorny Sanctions and Amateur Status matters. I was again deeply impressed with his passion for fairness and reasonableness in the interpretation and administration of our Rules.

With Howard's depth of background in USFSA affairs, as detailed in the paragraph opposite, with his demonstrated ability as an administrator, with his genius for tact and friendliness, with his keen interest in, and his known devotion to, our Association, which ranked in his loyalties only second to his family, and business, and with his acknowledged qualities as a leader, it was obvious to all when the traditional time came for the selection of a new President of the USFSA that Howard Herbert was the one pre-eminently qualified person for this high Association office.

During the past year and a half I have been privileged as one of his lieutenants to be more closely associated with him than ever before. Here I discovered what seems to me to be the key to Howard Herbert's character. It was his complete and utter dedication to the USFSA and his sense of trusteeship in administering the Office of President. Such devotion is indeed rarely found, coupled with intelligence, knowledge and skill. We will search far and wide and long before we again find in one person all these qualities so needed for the leadership of the United States Figure Skating Association.

Figure skating and figure skaters have indeed lost a great friend. But Howard Herbert's spirit lives on in the gratitude and affection of all of us to whom he gave so much—an inspiration for all who follow to go and do likewise.

So You Want to Figure Skate

By NORMAN V. S. GREGORY

CFSA World Judge and Referee

SO FAR NOTHING HAS BEEN SAID about form as it was felt that it was far better to concentrate on the basic technique of the various figures. The importance of good form will be appreciated if the skater remembers that when a judge is valuing a figure he bases his marks not only on the tracing on the ice but also on the skater's form—generally in the ratio of 2/3 for tracing and 1/3 for form. However it should be borne in mind that if the figure is very bad, perhaps a failure, the judge will not give much credit for form. The two aspects of the figure are separate, but at the same time they are related; you cannot judge one without the other.

Now just what is good form? Well, it might be summed up by saying that if an average onlooker remarks on the "style, grace, and ease" of a skater, then it is pretty safe to say that skater has good form.

The question now arises, "It all sounds very simple, but how do I go about trying to achieve this result—this impression?" The answer is that if certain basic principles are observed, the resulting visual picture or impression will reflect good form.

Some persons are gifted in this respect; others have to learn, but if they really try they also can obtain the same effect. When you watch a top ballerina and her beautiful positions, remember that this has not just happened. They are designed positions calculated to give a certain impression. The same technique applies to figure skating.

In order that the reader may fully appreciate the significance and also the application of what is to follow, the primary intent is that it applies particularly to compulsory figures. It also applies with certain modifications to free skating, but there is a very vital exception, particularly in respect to the body positions, etc. In a spiral, for instance, backward or forward, the skater may assume an extreme position so that the body and free leg are parallel to the ice. The positions in free skating are contrived and designed to provide a certain visual impression of ease and grace; provided they are not awkward, they are completely acceptable and within the general rules governing form. After all, free skating gives the skater an opportunity to display his own technical technique and also appreciation of the artistic form. It is a case of the individual displaying his own feeling, appreciation and interpretation of the accompanying music.

Now to compulsory figures. First let us consider the body as a whole. It should be erect. What does that mean? Well, if you will "stand tall"—imagine an object suspended about an inch or two above your head. Just straighten up and try to touch it with the crown of your head; this will straighten your whole body. It's easy, isn't it? Some of you may remember that at the beginning of this series I advised you to lean slightly forward. There is no contradiction. At that stage in your skating career, regard for your safety and well being was uppermost in my mind. You have travelled a long way since; now you are over your skates and have the "feel" of the ice. So stand up straight, you will be quite safe and look so much better.

We have discussed the general body position, so suppose we start at the top, the head. Then we shall work down through the arms, hands, hips, legs and finally the feet, especially the unemployed foot. The head should be erect, never bent forward. You can always see the ice by casting your eyes down. Nothing looks worse than a skater with head bent forward as if looking for that lost penny. The arms should be kept at about waist level with elbows tucked in. Please don't skate with your elbows out and up, and your arms looped. It's fine to embrace a lover or a "barrel" but looks awful on the ice. The hips should be unobtrusive; don't thrust one out in the fond hope that you are thereby going to get on an outside edge. The natural inclination of the whole body will bring this result about. After all, you don't want to give the impression that you have studied "hula" dancing.

We now come to the free leg, or unemployed, as you wish. It should be moderately extended, the knee slightly bent; don't treat it as if it were a mere appendage attached to your body, for it's much more than that. As you move it from a backward to a forward position, or vice versa, it should be moved with complete control, smoothly and easily, not as if it were something loose and unconnected like a length of twine. Well, we have finally arrived at the free foot, which should be carried in a downward and outward position. When you bring your free foot forward, as for instance at the finish of a forward outside circle, please don't cock your toe up to the sky. This may be all right on the football field when you are about to punt, but in skating, well, it's pretty awful.

I seem to have forgotten two other elements. First the hands; they should be carried naturally, the fingers neither clenched nor extended. Girls may slightly cock their wrists, but men never, otherwise instead of being male and virile they become effeminate which is most objectionable. The last part of your anatomy I wish to discuss is your posterior, derrière, or whatever you may call it. Please, let it be unobtrusive—keep it under you. Don't give the impression you are about to sit down, otherwise it becomes so very obvious. Well, I seem to have reached the "bottom" of this series, but just one more hint. When you pass your feet, keep them close as it looks much better.

As a last word, I've tried to give you the theory and basic principles. The rest is up to you. Get out on the ice—practice—just take part by part—don't hurry—always take it easy. A real foundation is everything. Do you remember reading about the house that was built on the sand? I see you do—you know what I mean.

Good luck to all you new figure skaters. Your author hopes he has at least been of some slight help, and that you finally realize your ambition to be a figure skater.

A Skating Grandmother

VERNA PAULINE WEBER-HARVEY was born in Falls City, Nebraska, and obtained her schooling in Oklahoma and California. When she was a small child her family travelled from Nebraska to Oklahoma in a covered wagon. The youngest of six children, Verna was 12 years old when her parents settled in Santa Ana, Calif., and it was there later that she received her training as a nurse in the Santa Ana Valley Hospital.

In 1921 Verna married Earl Harvey and they became the parents of one daughter, Marjorie Jean. Seven years later they settled in the Los Angeles Harbor Area, and in 1933 Mrs. Harvey became a widow. She has two grandchildren, Don J. Vaughan, a college student, and Claudia J. Vaughan, a high school senior.

Mrs. Harvey's hobbies are skating and sewing. In her own words, nothing—outside of skating—gives her more pleasure than sewing. For seven years during World War II Mrs. Harvey was an aircraft employee with Douglas Aircraft Co., and it was then that she first started skating. She holds two bronze medals for club competition and dance tests, and has appeared in the Arctic Blades FSC shows for the last three years. In the last show, she had two parts and was asked to "pinch hit" in a "Beatnik" number! The eldest member of her skating group, Mrs. Harvey believes that skating promotes good health as well as untold enjoyment, and her advice to others is not to "pass up" anything so beneficial in all ways, whatever their age.

Her philosophy: "I'm 17 when I'm sunny; I'm 70 when I'm sad; I'm 40 when I'm sensible; I'm NOTHING when I'm mad."

(Our correspondent in the Arctic Blades club observes that Verna Harvey—a grandmother before she ever started to skate—has taken tests, skated in competitions, and never lacks for partners among the younger men in the club. In addition to her skating prowess, she can stand on her head for fifteen minutes at a time!—Ed.)

HEARD BACKSTAGE AT THE CARNIVAL

"I'm not either late; I always put my skates on in 30 seconds." . . .
"But, mother, I'm not scared." . . . "Oh no, they misspelled my name."
. . . "O.K., who used all my hair spray?" . . . "I can't figure it out—but the orchestra seems to go a little faster every year." . . . "What happened to my skates? I just laid them there a minute ago." . . . Little boy:
"But, Ma, you didn't tell me I would have to wear lipstick." . . . "But my little girl is used to going to bed at 7:30." . . . "Who spilled the white shoe polish on my costume?" . . . "You what? Forgot your skates?" . . . "How in the world can I study with everyone giggling."
. . . "Well, my shoestring broke before." . . . "And who are you going to the party with?"—Excerpts from the Seattle SC SKATING BLADE.

YOU and the USFSA

By DUDLEY S. RICHARDS

The Skating Club of Boston

LAST OCTOBER I had the privilege as a newly-elected member of the USFSA Executive Committee to attend the Fall Meeting in Chicago. That meeting was not merely a social affair, but one where business and professional men came together to discuss the problems that the Association and its members face and to exchange ideas on ways to better the sport.

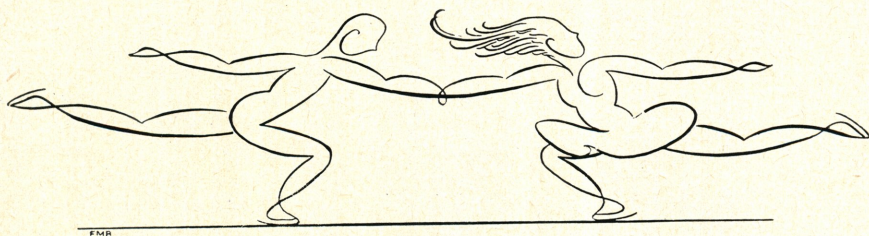

It is the custom of the Association to hold two major meetings each year—a Fall Executive Committee Meeting and a combined Executive and Governing Council Meeting in the spring. The Spring Meeting this year will take place May 5-7 in New York City at the Roosevelt Hotel. Each club is permitted to send at least one delegate to the Governing Council with full voting privileges. During the course of this Meeting, there are open sessions where any member of the Association may bring to the floor a subject he wishes discussed. This type of discussion is welcomed and the benefits derived therefrom can be enlightening. For example, at the Spring Meeting in Boston several years ago, I witnessed two youthful competitors who held the floor for nearly half an hour in striving to win their case. At the conclusion of the meeting, these competitors were commended for their frankness. But this was not the end of the case. Officials voted the next day to accept their proposal with the result that Nationals have since been scheduled after Sectionals and before the International competitions.

At this point, it may be appropriate to mention a subject which is of concern to me—the serious lack of communication between the skater and the Association. Competitive skaters tend to be vigorous in their complaints and demands. This is understandable because they are the ones who have sacrificed the most to attain their goals. However, their troubles, I'm sure, would be fewer and the results far more positive if they would discuss their problems with the appropriate USFSA official. Rather than sitting on a problem, they should bring it into the open and present it to the person in the USFSA who can do something about it. If it pertains to an Association matter, the Rulebook should be consulted for names and addresses of committee members. These people want to hear from the skaters and their ideas for improving the sport are eagerly sought.

Skaters hesitate to approach an official or judge for fear of offending or annoying him. There should never be any difficulty in this area if the skater's thoughts and complaints are presented in an orderly, unemotional manner. If we do not have this means of free communication, the skater must wrestle with his problem alone and the Association might lose an opportunity to correct a situation which could help other skaters.

Your Association is active. Communicate with its officers and committee members on any problems or suggestions you might have. If possible, plan to attend this spring's Governing Council Meeting and, if you cannot attend, make your ideas known to your club delegate. It is the discussion that takes place at such meetings and the new ideas that are presented that are going to move our sport ahead.

1961 USFSA Annual Meeting

By HOWARD D. HERBERT

President, United States Figure Skating Association

MIDTOWN NEW YORK will be the scene on May 5-7 of the meeting of the Governing Council and Executive Committee. The backdrop of the beautiful Rockies as we had them at the Broadmoor in Colorado Springs in 1960 will be changed to the skyscrapers of New York.

Meetings will be held at the Roosevelt on Madison Ave. at 45th St. This is one of the better New York hotels with a fine reputation for excellent service and good food. For a great many years, and even as this is written, Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians with "the sweetest music this side of heaven" have held forth in the famous Terrace Room. The Roosevelt is only a step away from the Broadway shows and all the sights and scenes that make New York famous. Plan to stay on for a few extra glamorous days and nights.

The sessions begin with an Executive Committee meeting Thursday evening May 4 from 8:00 to 10:30 P.M. This will resume Friday at 9:00 A.M. and close at 5:00 P.M. Delegates and their friends are invited but only members of the Executive Committee are privileged to speak unless specifically called upon by the Chairman. All figure skating enthusiasts, as well as delegates, are welcome to all the weekend sessions.

There will be a cocktail party followed by a banquet on Friday evening. Details as to exact time, price of tickets, etc., will be stated in the formal announcement to the clubs. The banquet is a recent departure from the former practice of having a cocktail party and lunch on Sunday after the sessions were over. The new plan was tried out last year at Colorado Springs. The change was a great success in that it avoided all rush and hurry for those who had planes or trains to catch. The banquet found practically everyone on hand with time to enjoy an evening of good fun.

A feature of the banquet, which will be continued this year, was a written question and answer period following dinner. It was most popular. Questions were submitted anonymously to the chair and immediately answered by the committee chairman concerned.

The prime purpose of the Annual Meeting is to review the accomplishments of the committees and officers responsible for conducting the Association's affairs. In addition there will be proposals for new matters of policy or administration. No organization functions well without what the politicians call the spotlight of publicity upon it.

This will be the time and place for examination and constructive criticism. Equally it will be the time for presentation and discussion of new ideas and suggestions. It behooves the delegates to stand forth and be heard.

This message to announce plans for the 1961 Annual Meeting of the USFSA was prepared by our late President, Howard Herbert. It was among his last acts for the USFSA and is symbolic of his devotion to our Association. He worked on it when he was already running a high temperature and it was actually mailed to the Publications Office from the hospital. Mr. Herbert was eager to welcome all delegates and other interested club members to the Spring Meeting. A large attendance at this Meeting would be considered by the other Officers of the Association as a specially fitting tribute to Mr. Herbert's memory.—
F. RITTER SHUMWAY, USFSA First Vice-President.

News from Europe

By JOHN NOEL

THE NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP SEASON was in full swing in January in various countries in Europe, in preparation for the European events in Berlin at the end of the month. Russian skaters, however, were unfortunate. The U.S.S.R. has been having its mildest winter for many years, and consequently there is very little ice for practice. I understand that Soviet skaters will not, therefore, be entered for the European or World Championships.

The Swiss Championships were held at Arosa early in January. Hubert Kopfler (Zurich) retained the men's title. He first won in 1953, and this was his fifth victory. In the pairs, Gerda and Rudi Johner (Bern), winners since 1957, scored another success, while Franzi Schmidt (Zurich) became the new lady champion, in succession to Liliane Crosa of Lausanne.

Oberstdorf, in the Bavarian Alps, was the venue for this year's Championships of the Federal Republic of (West) Germany, from January 20 to 22. The men's and dance events provided no surprises. Manfred Schnelldorfer easily won his sixth title. Fritz Keszler pulled a muscle during his free skating, which considerably handicapped the last 90 seconds of his program. However, he kept the third place which he attained on the figures. Sepp Schonmetzler placed second. Rita Paucka and Klaus Peter Kwiet retained their dance title.

After the ladies' figures, the Defending Champion Barbara Martin was second. She tried very hard in the free to make up lost ground; she did a good double axel, and her program was well thought out, with some good contents. She had a bad fall, however, when she skated backwards into the barrier, and this undoubtedly put her off.

First in both figures and free, and the ultimate winner, was Karin Gude, who trains at Streatham, England, under Jacques Gerschwiler. Stockily built, she skates with great speed and assurance. She jumps high, and does axels off each foot.

Ursel Barkey, fourth in the figures, was the most artistic of all in the free skating. Her style reminded me a little of Ina Bauer. She skated better connecting steps than the others (her footwork was very good), but her program did not include all the double jumps. She finished in third place.

The pairs provided the highlight of the weekend, with another tremendous duel between Margret Gobl and Franz Ningel, the German Champions, and Marika Kilius and Hans Jurgen-Baumler, Champions of Europe. Miss Gobl and her partner, skating first, did a difficult program at great speed, and included some spectacular butterfly jumps at the end. They also did one lift with about four revolutions, of which the ISU might not approve!

Marika Kilius and Hans Jurgen-Baumler did a slightly easier program, but with unrivaled smoothness and elegance. They, too, did a butterfly jump. I thought they should have won by a hair's-breadth. The seven judges were evenly divided. Three favored one pair, three the other, and the seventh gave them the same total marks. A one-tenth advantage in sporting merit just gave the title for the second year to Miss Gobl and Ningel.

LAST YEAR'S CHAMPIONS successfully defended their titles in the 1961 European Championships, held in Berlin, West Germany, January 26-29.

Ladies: 1. Sjoukje Dijkstra, Netherlands; 2. Regine Heitzer, Austria; 3. Jana Mrazkova, Czechoslovakia. Men: 1. Alain Giletti, France; 2. Alain Calmat, France; 3. Manfred Schnelldorfer, West Germany. Pairs: 1. Marika Kilius & Hans Jurgen-Baumler, West Germany; 2. Margret Gobl & Franz Ningel, West Germany; 3. Margit Senf & Peter Gobl, East Germany. Dance: 1. Doreen D. Denny & J. L. Courtney Jones, Great Britain; 2. Christiane Guhel & Jean Paul Guhel, France; 3. Linda L. Shearman & Michael Phillips, Great Britain.

A Tribute to the U. S. World Team

By F. RITTER SHUMWAY

USFSA Acting President

AS I WRITE on this Thursday afternoon, February 16th, I am still so shocked by the tragedy that befell our World Figure Skating Team yesterday that I have difficulty finding words to express my feelings adequately.

The blow was particularly severe, I think, to those of us who had just come from the North American Championships at Philadelphia where we witnessed the dazzling performances of our inspired skaters, who represented the cream of American young manhood and young womanhood. I had had a wonderful meeting with the entire team at Philadelphia on Friday night, and had bidden them Bon Voyage Sunday afternoon. Their spirit was high—their enthusiasm was great—their resolve to be good ambassadors, “people to people,” was inspiring. I can find no better words than those used yesterday in a telegram which I received from Dean Rusk, Secretary of State “. . . That they lost their lives while on their way to represent the United States in the World Championships at Prague only increases the tragedy, for I am certain that these fine Americans would have served their nation well by their presence.”

I have already, through telegrams or phone calls, expressed my deep sympathy, speaking both personally and on behalf of all the members of the USFSA, to all close relatives of our World Team. I can only repeat here our sincere condolences and assure the bereaved once more that their loss and sorrow is shared by all of us.

Many with whom I spoke say that they had derived some comfort from the knowledge that their loved ones had been on a mission which was the fulfillment of their hearts' desires. Perhaps this thought can serve to lighten in a small way the grief that we all feel.

None of us will ever forget this tragic accident. Because we feel so deeply we are planning to hold a memorial service at the time of our Annual Meeting in New York early in May, when so many officials, skaters and friends will be together. Further information as to the time and place of this service will be announced in SKATING.

I have been deeply moved by the many inquiries received from skaters and friends all over the country who wish to make a contribution to a permanent memorial to our 1961 World Team. Plans for this are under consideration but it will take some time to reach a decision as to the best form that such a memorial should take. An official announcement will be made in SKATING as soon as possible.

For us who are left to carry on, the future presents a great challenge—perhaps the greatest that has ever confronted figure skaters in the United States. It is to close ranks, to dig in, and to work harder than ever to develop our younger skaters to fill the great void that now exists. This will not be done quickly nor easily, especially since we have also lost some of our finest teachers. However, with the vigor and the devotion that is typical of our country, and especially of figure skaters, I know that all will work hard and harmoniously to carry on the high traditions exemplified by those who have now passed the Supreme Test.

"I was distressed and saddened to learn of the airline crash in Brussels this morning. This disaster has brought tragedy to many American families and is a painful loss to the international community of sports as well. Our country has sustained a great loss of talent and grace which has brought pleasure to people all over the world. Mrs. Kennedy and I extend our deepest sympathy to the families and friends of all the passengers and crew who died in the crash."

John F. Kennedy
PRESIDENT, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

"Deeply moved by the terrible catastrophe that has carried off our young American figure skaters, their relatives, and coaches. I send to the USFSA and all concerned my deepest sympathy and condolences. Words cannot express my feelings."

Dr. James Koch
PRESIDENT, INTERNATIONAL SKATING UNION

"I wish to express my personal condolences and those of the Department of State to you and ask that you convey them to the families of the United States Figure Skating Team. That they lost their lives while on their way to represent the United States in the World's Championships in Prague only increases the tragedy, for I am certain that these fine Americans would have served their Nation well by their presence."

Dean Rusk
SECRETARY OF STATE, UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

"Although words cannot fully express our feelings for the tragic loss of the members of the U. S. Figure Skating Team, parents, United States Figure Skating Association officials, the coaches and the relatives and friends of the skaters, the greatest tragedy in the history of skating, we extend our deepest sympathy to their relatives and friends and to the United States Figure Skating Association."

Granville Mayall
PRESIDENT, CANADIAN FIGURE SKATING ASSOCIATION

"Kindly accept the most sincere sympathy of the Executive of the CFSA and the skaters throughout Canada at the terrible accident which has happened to your Team."

Charles H. Cumming
SEC-TREAS., CANADIAN FIGURE SKATING ASSOCIATION

"With the happy memories of the 1960 Worlds still fresh in our minds, today's tragic accident leaves a pall of the deepest sadness. Please accept for your membership our deepest sympathy in this the unhappiest day of skating."

Eastern Clubs

Charter Oak FSC opened its season on Dec. 3 at the Loomis School in Windsor, Conn. This first session was for the juniors who total 95 strong and have a long waiting list even though this group is only in its second year. The seniors started skating on Dec. 5, and meet on Monday and Wednesday evenings. Publicity Chairman Roman Panek arranged a TV broadcast for the club the afternoon of Dec. 13. Club officers—Douglas L. Swan, Mrs. John N. Bohannon and Mrs. George A. Lucas—took part in the program called, "Be Our Guest." Members of the Springfield Ice Birds are skating with the club again this winter.

Commonwealth FSC's Christmas party took place on Dec. 18, and everyone enjoyed the refreshments donated by the mothers. During the evening's program, Pro Maribel Vinson was presented with a tape recorder by her pupils.

Garden State SC, after a long postponement, opened its seventh season on Dec. 26. The delay, however, did not curtail its members' enthusiasm; the enrollment for the season is over 200 seniors and juniors, the largest to date. The junior sessions are on Monday and Wednesday afternoons and the teen session on Thursday evenings. Tuesday mornings are known as "ladies' day," and group lessons are featured in this session—for the beginners, beginner dancers and advanced skaters. The popular family session takes place on Sunday noon again this season, while the seniors take to the ice on Sunday evenings. The club planned to add a new session for competitors. Katrine Neil and Pamela Schneider appeared as guests on the Ura Dunn "Guest Book" radio show. Among the scheduled events were the general membership meeting on Feb. 5, figure and dance tests the weekend of Feb. 4, and a Valentine party for junior groups on Feb. 13 and 15.

Genesee FSC gave a Skaters' Tea on Jan. 15 during which its members who qualified for the U. S. Championships exhibited their programs—Irma Staro & Richard Callaghan, Elizabeth Hickman & William Rider, and Linda Robinson & John Bickel. Figure tests were held on Jan. 5 and dance tests on the 19th. Outdoor exhibitions were presented for the Rotary Club at Sodus, N. Y. on Jan. 20 and at the Country Club of Rochester Winter Carnival on the following day.

Hershey FSC gave its annual Christmas parties—one for the Teeners on Dec. 26, and another for the children on the 27th. At each of the affairs, games were played, special events skated and refreshments served. The highpoint of the first half season's activities were the annual Junior Club competitions on Jan. 8. The winners among the advanced skaters were: Rosalie Haldeman and Tommy Litz, senior and Club Champions; Brenda Sprague and Wynn Miller, junior; Cathy Lowe, novice; Sharon Sheaffer, juvenile. In the intermediate classes, gold medal winners included Patricia Lynch, Molly Jo Costik, Shirley McDevitt, Mary Lou Sansone, Nancy Neiswinter, Nancy Grof, Charles Hickok, Peter Raub and Ronald Thorpe. In the beginning classes, gold medals were won by Gayle Light, Peggy Bastien, Debbie Stevens, Sue Tillett, Sherry Gardner, Pamela McCabe, Kirvy Sheaffer, Frank Lawrence, John Niespris and Jeff Keiser. About 125 children competed in the various classes, and were judged by seniors. The event was directed by Floyd Litz and Warren Shank. Both junior and senior divisions are making preparations for the April carnival, with Mr. Litz as Chairman.

IC of Baltimore postponed the Christmas dinner party—because of the big December snow storm—until Jan. 9. Members occupied the downstairs portion of the L'Hirondelle Club which encompasses several rooms. About 100 persons were on hand to enjoy the cocktail hour and dinner. President S. Vannort Chapman gave a short talk and turned the gathering over to the former and original President—Judge William C. Coleman. After dinner, everyone viewed movies of the 1960 U. S. Championships and enjoyed music in the reception room. On the non-social side, the club sets aside one Friday each month for figure and dance tests and reported a good percentage passing; usually two panels of judges are used in order to save time.

Johnstown FSC's first Christmas party on the ice found 230 members and guests on hand for the festivities on Dec. 19. Juniors entertained the spectators with a program featuring free skating by Susan Byer and Jack Thomas. Mr. & Mrs. Joseph Byer gave a dance demonstration and Pro Christiane Gold performed. A comedy "horse" sketch was enacted by Sarah Pantano and Trudy Shaffer, with Leona Wissinger as the ring master. Everyone joined in the Hoky Poky and danced the Conga. Santa Claus arrived pulled onto the ice in a sleigh by eight tiny "reindeer"—youngsters wearing antlers which sparkled; Rudolph, the leading reindeer, had a bright red bulb taped to his nose. Santa distributed gifts to the children and skated with everyone in a Kentucky Steal. The second annual New Year's Eve party was also held on the ice this year. Members were guests of the State College FSC on Dec. 11, and were entertained in the home of Mr. & Mrs. Fred Coombs.

Manhattan FSC members and their friends were entertained at the annual Christmas party on Dec. 11. Festivities took place on the ice at the regular session at Iceland. Exhibitions were skated by two junior girls, Jane E. Hellman and Gale Kirschner, and by senior Joan Rudloff. After a lively dance session, a catered buffet dinner was served in the club room of The SC of New York.

Metropolitan FSC held a New Year's Eve party on Dec. 31 at the South Mountain Arena. About 30 skaters in bright party hats celebrated with ice dancing and fun in an uncrowded rink. While the ice was being resurfaced, members enjoyed a variety of refreshments, including a giant whipped-cream cake presented by Mr. & Mrs. Heinz Morgenstern.

North Jersey FSC's second annual Christmas party found skaters gathered at the Fritz Dietl Studio in Westwood, N. J., on Dec. 27. All the friends and families of members were invited and there was a large turnout. Suzanne Banford, Dana Redmont, Diane Homewood and Jean Bok gave exhibitions.

Quaker City FSC, which is sponsoring the Valley Forge Ice Revue in April, has made some changes in the organizational staff. Mrs. Walter Bechtel and Pro Jack Jost are assisting Mrs. Gilbert Rose, the Chairman, while Mrs. Evelyn S. Taylor has been appointed as Music Coordinator.

Rye FSC, which opened its skating season on Oct. 22, planned to run sessions through Mar. 19—four evenings and two mornings a week at Playland Ice Casino. Fall activities officially began with a dinner-dance at the Scarsdale Inn on Oct. 18 at which President & Mrs. George Beaudry welcomed members and their guests. Every Sunday evening and Wednesday morning coffee is served in the club room after skating, presided over by Entertainment Chairman Louise Ransom. A series of junior and senior guest nights is planned during the winter; the latest reported was the Jan. 28 gathering for the seniors.

The SC of Boston youngsters presented the annual Christmas Pageant on Dec. 18, and over 40 children took part in the show directed by Laurence Owen. At the New Year's Eve party, a gay gathering enjoyed a buffet supper, dancing to the music of Saul Skersey, a grand march, and skating. Ann Sargent and Neal Holland, assisted by Mrs. Henry Vietor, were in charge of the evening's program. In order to stimulate more interest in the Wednesday night dance sessions, two competitions were arranged for program chairmen, with the winner in each group to be selected on the basis of the originality of the program. The winners were Ezra Stevens and Mary Vietor. Preparations for the 49th annual carnival are in full swing; Ticket Chairman John Farnum put the idea of Christmas gift certificates for tickets into effect.

The SC of Lake Placid's junior membership enjoyed a Christmas party on Dec. 20.

Santa Claus was on hand and made a great hit as he remained on the ice with the children for over an hour and played games with them. The annual scholarships, as is customary, were awarded to the three juniors who showed a conscientious effort and desire to learn the proper technique of figure skating; the scholarships consist of four private lessons with the club professional, Barbara Burgoyne, for each youngster. The winners were Anne Nugent, Diane Valenze and Roni Raymond.

Washington FSC members enjoyed the first dance night in 1961 on Jan. 16. Many guests were on hand for the skating and were served a buffet lunch by Jean Radcliffe and her Entertainment Committee. Rehearsals for Icy Interlude are underway. A busload of members planned to journey to Philadelphia for the North American Championships.

Washington Ice & Blades Club was recently formed and makes its home at the Washington Ice Rink in Washington, Pa. The club, in cooperation with the rink, set the dates for the Washington County Area's second annual ice show, Winter Carnival, for Feb. 26-27. The program was to include over 20 numbers and to employ a cast of 90 skaters.

Wissahickon SC's Fun Nite on Dec. 5 brought out 85 beatniks in full array. Monty Harris and Helen Miller were winners of the best costume event. The Beat Nikita relay race was the first game and involved two teams, a bamboo rug beater and a waving banner of the rear view of the Soviet Premier! The second game was the low jump, in which skaters had to slide under a pole without losing their partners. A potato-on-a-spoon race in and out of strategically placed pylons taught many a beginner the art of balance in a hurry. Two flying saucers, each with an attached rope, were used in another game in which couples participated; one member of each pair had to pull his partner seated in the saucer around a pylon and back. Margie & Bill Davison planned the party, and refreshments were dispensed under the direction of Lucille Morgan, assisted by Collie Ziegler and Jean Casanave. Santa appeared at the rink on Dec. 18 and was greeted by about 120 children to whom he distributed candy canes. The Chapmans, assisted by Helen Elliott, held open house in the Lounge around the Christmas tree. On Dec. 21, a group of 60 boys and girls were given a gay Christmas party, planned by Nanny Steel.

Midwestern Clubs

Albuquerque FSC has been without a home rink since Aug. 5, 1960 and up to January had no prospects for ice in that city. On weekends, some enthusiastic members have driven to Los Alamos, 100 miles north of Albuquerque, where there is an outdoor rink but no club. Patch time and special sessions were arranged for skaters during the Christmas holidays by the rink owners. The club plans to continue its off-ice activities.

Cleveland SC's pop show on Jan. 22 was to feature Sue Bright & Bob Munz, the new Midwestern Silver Dance Champions. In addition, the program included three new group numbers, pairs, and "the third return race between Susie's Floozies and Hubie's Cubies." The preceding day, an informal send-off party to the U. S. Championships for the dance couple was scheduled. In the Dec. 18 pop show which was preceded by the junior Christmas party, the groups were "Double Octet Drill," and "Satan Goes Dipsey Doodlin'." Numbers were performed by Diane Dalton & Sandy Haseltine, Pam Sarber & Marcia Wedow, Marilyn Keyes, Molly Adams, and Sue Bright & Bob Munz.

FSC of Omaha's seniors were featured in the Spring Mardi Gras Party set for Feb. 13, and were to perform several dance numbers. Mrs. Paul Kanka was Party Chairman, and the costumes were designed by Mrs. John Thomas.

Fort Wayne ISC juniors turned out for their Christmas party on Dec. 27 at the Memorial Coliseum. Each youngster could bring one guest, so the attendance totalled around 70 at the morning session. A group of seniors was on hand to help with the games and grand march. A lunch was served in the county room after the skating period. The junior program is in full swing, and the youngsters receive group lessons during the sessions—divided according to their skating ability. Seniors are present to help the children and to supervise. Thirty members motored to Troy, Ohio in January to attend the Midwestern Championships.

ISC of Amarillo conducted on Jan. 15 the first test session it has ever held. Everyone at this new club was pleased at the success of 100% of the skaters who took tests, including Preliminary Figure and Dance, First Figure, and one of the Bronze dances. Members made a trip to Lubbock to attend the opening of the new rink, and planned to pay a return visit to skate there.

Lansing SC Associates—300 of them!—congregated on Dec. 17 for their Christmas party. Two days later, 120 members gathered for a turkey dinner at the rink. Awards were presented to skaters who passed tests on Dec. 11, and after dinner Jan & Nic Burhans, Gary Clark and Sandra Latocha performed programs which they were to give at the Midwesterns. On this season's Entertainment Committee which made the party arrangements are Margaret Cheney, Genevieve Gervais and John Latocha, Chairman. A New Year's party was held on the ice with stunts for everyone, and prizes for the strong, quick and nimble; there was an event also off the ice for the adults. Mr. & Mrs. Robert Ambrook, Dr. & Mrs. Robert Burhans, Mr. & Mrs. Thomas Henderson, Mrs. June Mueleman and Pro Beryl Williamson put on the party. About 15 members were to give exhibitions at the Alpena Winter Sports Carnival on Feb. 12.

Queen City FSC members and guests enjoyed a Christmas party on Dec. 19, and took part in contests and games. Solos were presented by Jan Lawson, Carol Waddell and Don Siebert, and a pair number by Lynda Leary & Linda Hughes. A gift exchange added to the festivities, and refreshments were served by the December Social Committee.

Skokie Valley SC gave a skating party for the juniors at the new Bath & Tennis Club in Lake Bluff, Ill. The afternoon affair was attended by 40 children, ranging in age from five to 14. Games were planned by a committee headed by Mrs. Joseph Serafine, Mr. & Mrs. Edgar Corry and Mrs. Robert Bartholomay; Mrs. Richard Hough assisted with the beginners. The program was arranged so youngsters of all skating abilities could participate in the fun, which included a balloon-breaking contest and an apple pompom. Refreshments were served to the younger skaters while the stronger enthusiasts had the ice to themselves.

Tulsa FSC members worked hard to get ready for the club competitions on Jan. 10-12. Parents were invited to the event and a great deal of interest was evidenced by the younger skaters in particular. The winners in the various classes were: Rhonda Richards, junior; Mary Page, novice; Charlotte Haas, preliminary; Cathy Knott & Charlotte Haas, pair; Melinda Paul, ribbon. Those taking first place received small gold loving cups and USFSA emblems, and all the first three place winners were given ribbons. For the first time, the carnival is being presented for three nights, and also for the first time since the club was reorganized the carnival will be called by the old name, Ice-travaganza. The training of the different children's groups is being undertaken by members—Margaret Ann Graham Reed, Jean Paul, Mary Lou Dillon, Bernice Gibbon and Roberta Cole; Mrs. Hugh Graham is Chairman of the event.

Wagon Wheel FSC planned its Christmas party on the ice for all groups in the club on Dec. 22. Games, an exchange of grab gifts, and special guest Santa were part of the program. The adult members scheduled their holiday gathering on Dec. 17 to include cocktails and dinner in the Key Club of the Wagon Wheel Lodge. The carnival is set for early March with four performances; two are earmarked as benefits for the Beloit Symphony Orchestra Scholarship Fund and possibly two for a Rockford charity. The juniors planned a "kick-off" breakfast for competitors between Christmas and New Year's, arranged by Jane Bonzi and Pat Ryan. At the Dec. 4 test session—the first of the season—100% passed the figure tests.

WC of Indianapolis entertained representatives from Indianapolis newspapers, radio and television stations on Jan. 18 at the regular Wednesday night session. The Board of Directors gave a cocktail party preceding the skating period. A pitch-in supper and Mardi Gras Party took place at the Coliseum Grille following the session on Jan. 13. All proceeds from the party went to the Club Competition Fund; N. Taylor Todd was Chairman of the event. The second annual club competitions are tentatively scheduled for March.

Pacific Coast Clubs

Blade & Edge Club youngsters gathered for the annual Christmas party at the Winter Garden held during their regular Friday evening session. Seventy juniors played games and received prizes, candy canes and Santa Claus bags. Mrs. Ginny Chaisson was in charge of arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Mary Sable, Mrs. Dorothy Hoover and Mrs. Pauline Blunt.

Los Angeles FSC's Thursday night session celebrated Christmas with refreshments and a tree on Dec. 22, arranged by Dorothy Sisson. On the next evening, the juniors turned out dressed in red and green; Mary Panyan won a prize for her outfit.

St. Moritz ISC's different sessions joined in the holiday spirit—the juniors in particular. All the patch skaters were invited to bring their friends and take part in the junior festivities; Mrs. Boero arranged a special refreshment treat. The girls skated a group number prepared especially for the party; they were dressed in red and white outfits designed and produced by Lola Frick. On Jan. 16, members were to participate in the Parade of Champions at Berkeley Iceland. The program consisted of group, pair, dance and solo numbers; skaters included Tim Brown, guests from other Bay Area clubs, and the Junior Girls Group directed by Mary Frick. The event was a benefit for the Competitors' Fund. The preceding month, the 1961 Central Pacific Championships were launched by a party at Cornelia Fisher's home on Dec. 4. Movies of the VIII Olympic Winter Games and the U. S. Championships were shown, and refreshments served by the club mothers.

Seattle SC's senior holiday party on Dec. 28 at the Civic Ice Arena provided a grand time for all. In addition to dancing, a few special numbers were on the program: a "Moonlight Dutch Waltz, Ladies Tag" during which spotlights were used and the extra girls could tag anyone for a partner; an exhibition by Diane Anderson & Bill Wilkins: a Willow Waltz judged by Mrs. Dyer (winners: Bill Spezia, the best time-waster, and Marion Howard, the best listener); the Blues (Curly Bender chosen the winner for the best hip movement); and a game which entailed skating around the rink with a potato balanced on the head (winners: Suzanne Vieux and Ralph Beymer). Afterward, members enjoyed refreshments, and Santa (Doc Jones) passed out presents. Lona Yates and Winnie Mygatt arranged the affair. That same day the youngsters' festivities took place with the juniors free skating, dancing, eating, and receiving gifts from Santa (Wayne Rice). Diane Schatz, Suzanne Vieux and Sharon Ayres were in charge of the party. The 1960 carnival, Iceparade, made a contribution of about $6,440 to the Post-Intelligencer Christmas Fund; in playing to record crowds, the show raised over $1,300 more than last year.

The SC of San Francisco's opening skating and cocktail party on Oct. 7 was highlighted by exhibitions by competitors Michele Monnier, Mary Crowley and Eloise Morgan. About 83 members and special guests enjoyed a general skating program also. Two ski trips were on the agenda after the holidays: the first to Squaw Valley on Feb. 10-12 and the second to Mount Shasta on Mar. 24-26. The first weekend was to coincide with "Olympic Memoirs" being staged for persons connected with the Olympic Pageant last year. The intermediate session has an unusually large membership this season; on Oct. 22 a Halloween party took place in the mezzanine. Under the leadership of Howard Histed, the Thursday skaters have also been active; the session totals from 35 to 40 participants. The Tuesday dance session has a membership of 28.

Canadian Clubs

Flin Flon FSC has a membership this season of 175, the majority of whom are juniors. Only seven on the rolls are seniors and the remainder are 16 years of age and under, with about 100 of them in the three- to eight-year-old category. A new class for mothers who bring their children to the rink and thus become interested in the sport has been started this year. Among the coming events are tests and competitions in March and a club revue in April.

Glencoe Club skaters were invited to perform at the official opening of the Calgary Winter Club on Dec. 10. Solos were given by Anne Norton, Mary Ackland and Barbara Paulson; individual dances were demonstrated by Marilyn Berry & Ricky Dunlap and Barbara Paulson & Michael Talbot; and a group dance number was presented. Early in December, members appeared in separate shows carried by both local television stations. The Plays 'n Things telecast devoted a half-hour to skating, part of which was filmed on the ice. Professional Winnie Silverthorne and Paul Thomas were interviewed by Mort Van Ostrand on his show, and members also appeared. Skating exhibitions are given for a short period every Sunday afternoon; featured during January were Elsie Busch & Anne Norton, Barbara Paulson & Michael Talbot, Susan Todd, Becky Mackie, Mary Ackland & George Blundun, John Taylor, Michelle Cote & John Simpson, Patti & Maureen O'Connor, Carolyn Allan & Barbara Simpson, Oonagh Talbot, Bobby Bridgeman, and a trio by Michelle, Lucille & Elaine Cote.

Hamilton SC, after consideration, has found it necessary to forego its annual carnival this season due to insufficient ice time for rehearsal. Pro Jerry Woodstrom has arranged, however, for the intermediate girls to perform a line number in the Galt FSC March show. Figure tests were scheduled for Jan. 22 and dance tests for the 26th at the Grimsby Arena. A dance session for all seniors and their friends at Grimsby was set for three Sundays in January.

Oshawa SC professionals—Paul Tatton, Barbara Smith and Gordon Manzie—along with a group of seniors have been working with junior members on ribbon tests. The younger skaters have benefited from this type of instruction. Another rewarding project, initiated this winter by the club, is giving skating lessons to a group of retarded children from Oshawa; the youngsters have made remarkable progress. The plan was made possible through the donation of ice time by the city and the services of Pros Barbara Smith and Paul Tatton for one hour each week.

Sudbury SC ladies formed an Auxiliary in November, the aim of which is to promote interest in skating and to provide facilities for increasing skill on an amateur basis. The Ladies Auxiliary held a tea on Dec. 3 and the successful affair will be held annually. The General Convenor of the tea was Mrs. A. Tessier, assisted by Mrs. P. M. Kryzakos. A well loaded work table was convened by Mrs. S. J. Kutchow, and the bake table by Mrs. M. Makszczuk. Mrs. L. Marien directed a very successful penny draw and Mrs. E. Bellmore was in charge of the kitchen. The event was held in the Ladies Lounge which was decorated in the Christmas theme. During the tea, skaters, under the direction of Pro Patrick Kazda, gave a splendid exhibition. On Dec. 28, the first set of tests for this season was scheduled.

Toronto CS & CC's Christmas presentation on Dec. 17 featured tiny angels, dance exhibitions by juniors, and a modern court by some of the teenagers. Maria & Otto Jelinek starred in a pair exhibition and Sue Yarker skated a solo. Another senior and intermediate Double Runner party was set for Jan. 18, and a similar teenage affair on the 21st. Attendance at the teens' Double Runner event on Dec. 10 was overwhelming; Bruce Stimers and Mirek Staroba were in charge of the social and Elinor Flack & Philip McCordic gave an exhibition. All the senior members and their guests were invited to a dance on Jan. 27.

Winnipeg WC skaters and guests gathered for a dance session on Jan. 15, and viewed solos by winners of the Prairie Championships. All enjoyed a smorgasbord during the evening. The annual night for the March of Dimes took place at the Winnipeg Arena; member Jocelyn Davidson represented the club by skating a solo.

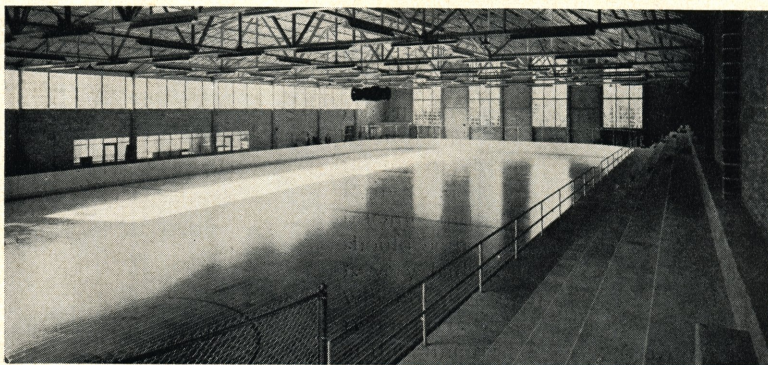

Woodstock FSC gave the annual Christmas party for the juniors at the arena during a Sunday afternoon session. More than 135 youngsters attended, as well as many parents, relatives and friends. Convenors for the event were Mrs. W. Sedgwick, President, and Mrs. Enos Evans, Junior Program Director. Master of Ceremonies was Charles Tatham. The tiny tots participated in the program in "follow the leader," etc., while the more advanced juniors competed in such divisions as the bunny hop, two-foot spin, etc. The first and second place winners received skate pins as prizes: Linda Carter, blues; Ann Armstrong, orange; Brad Loosley, boys' group A; Roger Garner, group B; Andrea Smith and Margaret Ward, pink; Sharon McKinnon and Cheryl Smith, red; Beth Moyer and Lynne Gardiner, green; Cindy Wilkey and Penny Utey, purple; Patty Sitts and Pam Fitzgerald, yellow. A grand march concluded this part of the festivities. A surprise of the afternoon was the appearance of Bruno, a St. Bernard dog owned by Mr. & Mrs. R. Symons, drawing a sled with a giant toy soldier filled with apples for the children. Lindis & Jeffery Johnston, club professionals, performed two dance numbers as a feature of the program.

Ice Scrapings

THE RECORD of its competitors in the B. C. Coast Championships made Kerrisdale FSC members proud; of the 11 trophies presented, seven went to its skaters. Kapuskasing FSC girls—Vivian Lepp, Linda Brown and Judy Brackenbury—were guest performers at the opening of the Hearst Arena on Dec. 7. Lakeshore SC gave a party on Dec. 1 in honor of Gille Vanasse who had joined Ice Capades; a gift was presented to him by President Ross Ireland in behalf of the club. Vernon FSC members participated wholeheartedly in arrangements for the Winter Carnival, sponsored by the town of Vernon, which was to be staged late in January.

New Gold Medalists

ADDITIONS to the roster of USFSA Gold Medalists are Paula Barsotti, Great Falls FSC, who passed the Eighth Test on Dec. 29 at Lakewood WC; Thomasine Pierce, FSC of Cincinnati, who completed the Gold Dance on Dec. 11 at her home club; Roger Campbell, Arctic Blades FSC, who was successful in both the Gold Dance and Gold Free Dance at Los Angeles FSC on Dec. 18; and Dona Lee Carrier, Los Angeles FSC, who passed the Gold Free Dance at her home club also on the 18th. In Canada, Valerie Ann Jones, Lakeshore SC, completed the Gold Dance Test at her home club on Dec. 11.

Unionville SC Sponsors Polio Boy

LIKE ANY OTHER 12-year-old boy John Waller enjoys skating, bowling, swimming and collecting things. In fact he does almost everything that other boys do.

John, son of Mrs. M. E. Waller of Markham, Ontario, joined the Unionville Skating Club in the fall of 1959. Watching him develop balance and co-ordination through skating instruction brings special pride to the club professionals and members, and no wonder, for John is a polio victim; he was a mere three weeks out of braces when he joined the club. He has been fighting the effects of polio since he was stricken more than six years ago. In his convalescence he has struggled to relearn the things most boys take for granted.

Young John has been adopted as a special rehabilitation project by the Unionville Skating Club and his hard work and progress are an inspiration to all other members. He skated in the 1960 carnival as a pirate in the Tom Sawyer production, and will be in the carnival again this year. He has also passed his second button test, a series of tests which the club sets up for beginners to give them a sense of accomplishment prior to entering Preliminary Figure and Dance Tests. (See Photo #8 on page 24.)

News from Japan

THE ALL JAPAN Free Skating Competitions took place at the Kyoto Arena on December 5.

Nobuo Sato, first in the Men's Singles event, was the winner of Henry M. Beatty's American Friendship Award for free skating. His program showed much sureness and he seemed to have improved a great deal in a short time. Pair Champions are Koji Hashiguchi & Junko Onoda. The Dance event was won by Mikio Takeuchi & Eiko Kaneko over two other couples.

Ladies: 1. Junko Ueno; 2. Kumiko Ohkawa; 3. Miwa Fukuhara; 4. Haruko Ishida; 5. Fuki Tagami; 6. Yohko Tajima (10 contestants). Men: 1. Nobuo Sato; 2. Yataka Doké; 3. Toshiji Sasaki; 4. Kazuaki Konno; 5. Kazuhiko Kakita; 6. Masato Tamura (11 contestants).—KIKU MINAMI.
