THE 1963 NORTH AMERICAN

CANADIANS WILL LONG REMEMBER the 1963 North American Championships as the competition in which their country made a clean sweep of all events for the first time since 1933.

The final count of the Championships, hosted by the Capilano Winter Club in Vancouver, B. C., read: Canada, four firsts, three seconds, one third; United States, one second, three thirds.

While outstanding, Canada's sweep was not altogether unexpected since the United States is still rebuilding its Team following the tragic air crash near Brussels in 1961 in which the U. S. Team perished.

The first competitors arrived on Sunday, February 10th. They had just completed the U. S. Nationals and the Canadian Championships the prior week. By Thursday all skaters had arrived, and that evening the drawing for the order of Ladies' figures and dancing took place at the club, followed by a supper for competitors, officials, judges, members and guests.

On Friday morning at 9 A.M. the Ladies' compulsory figures commenced at the Vancouver Forum. Wendy Griner of Toronto took the lead, with Shirra Kenworthy of Vancouver holding second, and Lorraine Hanlon of Boston following in third place.

At noon, while the Ladies' figures were coming to a close, a luncheon was held for officials and judges at the Hotel Georgia. Later that afternoon the competitors, professionals and parents had tea at the Winter Club.

The Ladies' free skating on Friday evening was exciting but, with the exception of Petra Burka of Toronto, the skating lacked the sparkle generally expected at top competitions. Miss Burka gave a splendid performance and won the hearts of the spectators with her glowing personality and clean, high double jumps. Wearing a brilliant red dress, she leaped from fourth place to second.

Shirra Kenworthy dropped to third place, despite her smooth skating of a difficult program. Wendy Griner, the leader in compulsory figures, skated to victory with her usual effortless grace despite the fact that she appeared a bit tired.

The compulsory dances followed. Paulette Doan and Kenneth Ormsby from Toronto compiled a sizeable lead to gain first place in the compulsories.

Vancouver's Donna Lee Mitchell and John D. Mitchell followed the Toronto couple in second place, while Sally Schantz and Stan Urban of the U. S. gained third place.

Saturday morning the Men skated their figures. Donald McPherson of Stratford took a commanding lead, with Scott Allen of New York and Don Knight of Dundas running second and third.

The Saturday evening performance drew some 4,000 spectators. It was a night of outstanding skating—Free Dancing, Pairs and Men's Singles—all a sight long to be remembered.

Starting off the Free Dance, Doan and Ormsby, dressed in grey outfits, skated a routine of beauty and grace in an enchanting manner to carry off top honors. The Mitchells, Donna Lee looking regal in her white lace dress and "J.D." in black, had a touch of polka music in their well executed routine during which the crowd joined them by clapping hands to the beat. They maintained their second place while Schantz and Urban pleased the spectators with their grace, and finished third.

The closest race came in the Pair competition. Only 2.5 points separated the three place winners. Debbi Wilkes and Guy Revell of Unionville earned the approval of the crowd and judges with a daring exhibition of overhead lifts and double jumps. Toronto's Gertrude Desjardins and Maurice Lafrance showed both power and steadiness in a well combined program of jumps, spins and lifts. Vivian and Ronald Joseph of Chicago were only one-tenth of a point away from second place. This brother-sister pair displayed an excellent program—artistic, well balanced and varied to a high degree.

One unfortunate note in the competition came when Patti Gustafson of The Skating Club of Lake Placid sustained an injury during practice. She and her partner Pieter Kollen also of Lake Placid were unable to skate in the Pairs.

Scott Allen, the youngest competitor, skated first in the Men's division. Even though Allen skated an exciting program, he fell from second to third place, as Tommy Litz of Hershey, Pa., jumped from fifth to second. Litz had a dazzling display of double and triple jumps.

Donald McPherson held on to first place with his easy style. He attempted his triple loop but did not complete it. However, his routine of double axels, delayed double lutz and brilliant spins made up a splendid performance.

Presentation of awards on the ice was impressive, with the trophies and medals being given alternately by CFSA President Nigel Stephens and USFSA President F. Ritter Shumway. Sashes in green and gold, British Columbia's colors, were given by George Sherwood, Chairman of the North American Championships.

A buffet Supper Dance started at 11:30 P.M. Saturday night and lasted until 4 A.M. The affair was completely filled and most of the guests stayed until the end.

Sunday morning a brunch with ice dancing was held at the club. Two hundred turned out and it was here that most good-byes were said.

Hopefully everyone had as much pleasure during the four-day weekend as did the hosts.

Trends in Skating . . .

As Seen by the Judges

by KAY LOPDELL Minto SC

THERE IS A DECIDED TREND now-a-days in dancing for couples to appear enraptured with one another. Now, this in itself is no crime, but the methods being employed by many dancers and this includes high test and championship skaters as well are ludicrous at times. They all follow a set pattern—eyes glued together and a set, fixed smile on their faces. You have probably noticed many of these couples: (a) the girl who is considerably shorter than her partner and, therefore, obliged to force her head back in a strained, unnatural manner in order to gaze upwards; (b) the tall girl who tilts her head to one side and peers upwards somewhat like a bird; (c) the man with his mind somewhere off in the Wild Blue Yonder going through the motions of the dance quite automatically, unaware of the impression his partner is trying to create and, in fact, ignoring her completely.

Dancing on ice should create a picture of two happy, relaxed people moving as one, interpreting the music in a smooth and effortless manner. There are many occasions throughout a dance where it seems natural to smile spontaneously, but to maintain a fixed expression soon becomes tiresome. It is possible that many dancers believe that "expression" means the smile on your face, which was the definition given to me, quite seriously, by

Notify Test Candidates' Home Clubs

THERE APPEARS to be frequent violation of DTR 7.07: "Clubs giving tests to other than their own members must notify the candidate's home club as to date test is taken, including Judges' names and marks given."

Your cooperation by observing this rule is earnestly requested.

H. KENDALL KELLEY

a so-called advanced skater. It often appears as if more stress is being placed on "The Act" rather than on the quality of the dancing.

And now for a few remarks on the "slow part" of free skating. It seems to me that many skaters are losing sight of the fact that this part of the program was intended to represent a change of pace, but in far too many cases this has developed into a crawl, with resulting loss of continuous movement, flow and, most important of all, content. There are many ballet moves done in this part of the program, especially by the girls, which are badly executed and done on two feet, which is hardly competitive skating. One, in particular, that I find very ugly is where the skater leans forward, arms extended sideways, with the posterior skywards. Very few skaters are able to perform this feat gracefully.

I have always been amazed to find the number of skaters, and this includes all classes, who do not own a Rulebook. They go along depending on a pro or someone else to tell them what is expected of them, showing little or no initiative or inclination to become self-reliant. This is unwise for they become too dependent; when they have to go out on the ice alone, too often they become so nervous and lost that they cannot do their best.

Right from the beginning, it is a good habit to study the Rulebook and note the diagrams for figures and dances and become familiar with the terminology. Parents can also be a great help here by reviewing the Rulebook with the skater, and the knowledge they gain themselves will give them a much better understanding of the problems facing the skater. Also, they might be less prone to criticize and blame others for a test failure.

The 1963 United States Championships

by BETTY SONNHALTER AND JANET McLEOD

Arctic Blades FSC

THE OUTSTANDING BEAUTY of the 15,000 seat Long Beach Arena was a fitting atmosphere for the 1963 United States Figure Skating Championships, sponsored for the first time by the Arctic Blades Figure Skating Club, on February 7-10.

The competitors began to arrive early in the week and were delighted with the sunny, ninety-degree weather which prompted many to take a swim in the blue Pacific.

Practice sessions were scheduled at Iceland, Paramount, home rink of the host club, as well as at the Long Beach Arena where the Arctic Blades Club's Memorial Plaque was on display with the National and Club Trophies.

The competition got underway on Thursday morning. The soft, blue tint put on the ice during the night so that the judges could see each skater's tracings brought a certain glamour to the occasion. Said one observer, "That's very pretty, but will they make the ice pink for the girls?" (They didn't!)

The usual hush fell inside the Arena when the Junior Ladies took to the ice for their figures, followed in the afternoon by the Novice Men and the Silver Dancers.

After a day of figures for the Novice Ladies and Senior Men on Friday, the evening performance opened with the finals of the Silver Dance. In a field of eleven couples, Carole MacSween and Ray Chenson had no difficulty achieving the goal they narrowly missed last year, as they won the event with their poise and effortless style. The team of Darlene Streich and Charles D. Fetter, Jr., who were third in the initial round, were a pleasing couple in the finals and succeeded in placing second over Sally Crook and Edward H. Smith, Jr.

of the judges for his accuracy in figures and maintained his strong lead by a dashing free style to become the new Novice Men's Champion. John Dystel's fine free skating performance moved him into second from a third place in figures.

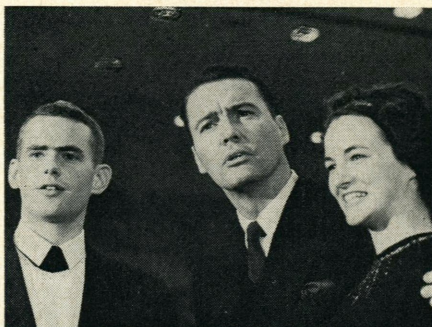

Tina Noyes, with her red hair and Kelly green costume, retained her narrow lead in Junior Ladies' figures with a sparkling free skating routine. She delighted the spectators with her double jumps and her unusual spread eagle to gain the Championship. Runner-up Joya Utermohlen in deep red velvet, showed remarkable ability in her free skating which brought her from a fourth place in figures to second. Her excellent interpretation of an exciting musical selection, and the amazing height of her jumps rated well-deserved praise.

Friday evening's events concluded with an exceptionally good Junior Pair class which showed great promise. Although lacking the polish which comes with experience, the potential was evident in the many interesting and original ideas which were used. The musical interpretation of Yvonne Littlefield and Peter Betts, combined with intricate footwork, gained second place for them. The Junior Pair Champions, Cynthia and Ronald Kauffman, drew a gasp from the audience with their death spiral maneuver when he quickly changed hands and spun around while she was in the spiral position.

There had been some apprehension over the gathering clouds on the horizon on Friday afternoon which turned into rain on Friday night. Disappointment led to dismay when a torrential downpour descended and continued during the remainder of the competition, reaching flood proportions in some areas. Unfortunately, many would-be spectators chose to remain home by the fire and the attendance was lighter than expected. It did not in any way dampen the spirits of the competitors, however, and the loyal fans who braved the weather were rewarded with a brilliant performance by the skaters on Saturday night.

Little nine-year-old Janet Lynn, who was the first Novice lady to skate in the evening, won the hearts of the spectators. The pert little miss shows promise of becoming a future champion. True competitive spirit was evidenced by spunky Jennie Jerry & Judianne Fotheringill with TV Sportscaster Bud Palmer (center).

Walsh, who startled the onlookers by her appearance with a cast on one arm, the result of a recent ice injury which did not prevent her from skating with an air of complete abandon. Lynn Yonekura's graceful performance brought her a second, and Taffy Pergament's strong free style matched her first place in figures to win the Novice Ladies' class.

Highlight of the evening was the Senior Men's division. Defending Champion Monty Hoyt had surprised no one by his lead in figures, followed closely by Scott Ethan Allen, and last year's Junior Champion, Tommy Litz. Unfortunately, Monty's fall in his free style program appeared to disturb his usual poise and control and mar his otherwise fine performance.

Easily the most exciting performance of the competition was given by Tommy Litz, whose phenomenal routine was filled with effortlessly triple jumps, coordinated with amazingly intricate footwork. His musical interpretation and brilliance of execution left the crowd breathless and gained for him the only standing ovation of the Championships and the title of 1963 United States Men's Champion.

Scotty Allen, following the Champion's performance, certainly did not suffer by comparison, as he presented his program with ease and confidence, displaying interesting footwork and excellent control in his jumps and spins to maintain his second place.

It made a striking picture on the ice when all three couples in the Senior Pairs appeared in various shades of brown. However, there was quite a contrast in their style: Patti Gustafson and Pieter Kollen with their flair for rhythmic interpretation to the lilting strains of "Porgy and Bess"; Vivian and Ronald Joseph, lively and vivacious, showing ingenuity and skill in the execution of many unusual moves; Judianne and Jerry Fotheringill claiming the victory for their sterling exhibition of flawless unison, smooth, flowing style and superb technique.

The air was tense on Sunday afternoon as the final climax was reached. Richard Callaghan, with his easy, flowing style and erect carriage, was outstanding in the free skating portion of the Junior Men's division, and well deserved his second place. The crowd anxiously awaited the well-known, exciting performance of Billy Chapel, whose program was high in content. He thrilled the spectators with his exceptional flying camel and dauntless, devil-may-care execution of his most difficult moves, to become the Junior Men's Champion.

Always popular with the spectators, the Gold Dance couples had already skated their way through the Foxtrot, Viennese Waltz, and Argentine Tango, into a vivid interpretation which seemed to be inspired by the stirring music of the Paso Doble. Although the charming team of Yvonne Littlefield and Peter Betts presented a Free Dance rich in content and showmanship, it was not sufficient to overcome the lead acquired in the compulsory dances by the handsome duo of Sally Schantz and Stan Urban, who successfully captured the title of Dance Champions of the United States.

In Senior Ladies, Karen Howland skated a well-balanced program. With her regal manner, her poise and assurance, she was the epitome of elegance. Pretty Christine Haigler, 1962 National Junior Lady Champion, made the transition easily into the Senior class. Her sparkling and vivacious performance pleased the crowd and judges alike, since she moved from fourth in figures to second, earning that coveted place on the World Team. With the grace of a ballerina, Lorraine Hanlon skated a program filled with artistic moves. Especially outstanding were her toe-balance spin, split jumps and lay-back spins which helped her capture the Senior Ladies' crown.

When the final results were tallied Sunday evening Club President Robert T. McLeod joined with F. Ritter Shumway, President of the USFSA, and George B. Jenkinson, Referee, in the presentation of awards to the winners. After relinquishing possession of the Harned Trophy to the

Scott E. Allen

Judges and officials were guests at a dinner at the Lafayette Hotel on Wednesday evening.

At the conclusion of the events on Saturday evening, a Luau Dinner-Dance was held in the California Room of the Breakers International Hotel. No doubt the judges were glad they did not have to evaluate the variations of the Twist which the competitors demonstrated to an astounded audience. The unusual menu and the lively music, combined with the gaiety of the guests, resulted in a joyful evening.

Old acquaintances were renewed during the weekend by many former champions, such as Dick Button, Yvonne Sherman McGowan, M. Bernard Fox, Robin Greiner, Aileen Kahre, Barbara Jones, Lyman Wakefield, and Barbara Roles Pursley.

For the smooth continuity in the conduct of the four-day event, much praise is due Mr. Jenkinson and his Assistants, Harry N. Keighley and Edmund C. Bold. For the prompt results received from the accounting room which permitted the competition to proceed without delay, credit goes to Spencer E. Cram, and his Assistant, Roy Winder. To all officials, competitors, chaperones and professionals, we extend our warmest thanks for your part in making the 1963 Nationals a success. We hope that you enjoyed your visit to Long Beach as much as all of us in the Arctic Blades Figure Skating Club enjoyed having you.

The 1963 Canadian Championships

by MRS. J. M. GREGG Royal Glenora Club

THE CANADIAN Figure Skating Championships of 1963 were hosted by the Royal Glenora Club, Edmonton, Alberta, on February 7th, 8th and 9th. There were 70 entries, representing 30 CFSA clubs across Canada.

At the finish of compulsory figures in the Junior Ladies, the standings were as follows: Jeannie Marie Sanders first, Marjorie Hare second, and Gloria Anne Tatton third. However, in the final standings following the free skating, second and third were reversed, bringing Gloria Tatton to second place, and Marjorie Hare to third place.

The Junior Men's standings at the completion of compulsory figures were: Jay Humphry first, Bryon Topping second, and Robbie Alan Fiddes third. Final rankings after the free skating were: Jay Humphry first, Phillip McCordic second (he advanced from fifth place in figures), and Toller Cranston third (he came up from sixth in figures). The winner of Junior Men's singles, Jay Humphry, is 13 years old and he took the Senior Men's title in the British Columbia Sectional Championship, prior to competing in the Canadians. In the Senior Ladies' class Wendy Griner, Defending Champion, won again, with Petra Burka as runner-up, and Shirra Kenworthy in third place. Compulsory figure standings were as follows: Wendy Griner first, Shirra Kenworthy second, and Petra Burka third.

Donald McPherson, runner-up for the past three years in the Senior Men's class, finished well in front of all competition, with Don Knight second, and Bill Neale, Junior Champion of 1962, in third place. Donald, the 17-year-old Champion from Stratford, Ontario, did not waste a single stride in his flawless free skating performance. Nimble hands and feet smoothly tied in each stride with every movement in his five-minute program. He capped off his performance with a perfect triple loop, the first time he has mastered it in competition.

In the Senior Dance event Paulette Doan and Ken Ormsby emerged Champions, and Donna Lee Mitchell and John D. Mitchell were runners-up, with Carole Forrest and Kevin Lethbridge in third place. The flaxen-haired Paulette, 17 years of age, fascinated spectators with her vivacious personality as well as with her near-perfect performance.

The Senior Pair Championship was won by Debbi Wilkes and Guy Revell; runners-up were Gertrude Desjardins and Maurice Lafrance, who also placed second in the 1962 Championships. Third place went to Linda Ann Ward and Neil Carpenter—this pair also entered Junior Pairs and won that Championship. Runners-up to this ambitious couple in the Junior Pairs were Wendy Warne and Jim Waters, with the brother-and-sister team of Susan and Paul Huehnergard in third spot.

Bunne Lilley and John Booker were declared Junior Dance Champions with Lynn Matthews and Bryon Topping runners-up, and Judith Ann Richardson and Brian Bailie placing third.

The social aspect of the Championships included a reception on Wednesday evening, a Friday luncheon, and a wind-up dinner party attended by 350 guests.

THE EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIPS, 1963

by JOHN NOEL

THE EUROPEAN CHAMPIONSHIPS, held in the open-air Kiss Stadium at Budapest, Hungary, from February 5 to 9, proved once again the undesirability of holding ISU figure skating events outdoors. Snow, sleet, and wind necessitated the postponement of the men's fourth figure on the opening day and, during the evening's pair skating, the ice had to be swept after each performance.

FEBRUARY 5. The Championships began with the 21 men skating Group I of the figures. Defending Champion Alain Calmat led Manfred Schnelldorfer by less than eight points, with Peter Jonas third.

As in 1962, the pairs were required to skate their programs twice, on successive days. The marks for the first performance were published with Marika Kilius and Hans-Jurgen Baumler, Champions since 1959, placing first by all but two of the judges; the Russians—perhaps put off by bad weather—were not at their best.

FEBRUARY 6. In the remaining figures, Alain Calmat had no easy task. After the FO paragraph double threes, in fact, Schnelldorfer was in the lead; but the Frenchman overtook him on the back change loops and paragraph brackets, to finish with six first placings and a 13.6 lead over the German Champion. Jonas dropped to fourth, behind his compatriot Emmerich Danzer.

The World Champions, Eva and Pavel Roman, had a surprise in the four compulsory dances—Foxtrot, Westminster, Kilian, and Argentine. They were beaten by the young British Champions Linda Shearman and Michael Phillips, and the other British couples were not far behind in third and fourth places.

There were some splendid performances in the second pair skating programs. The Protopopovs, however, were disappointing compared with last season.

Both Czech pairs were good, and I thought Agata Wlachowska and Peter Bartosiewicz particularly artistic. Marika Kilius and Hans-Jurgen Baumler skated beautifully; they were so clearly in a class by themselves that even the Russian judge placed them first. Without doubt, they are the finest amateur pair in the world today.

The last two pairs to skate were very good indeed. Margit Senf and Peter Gobel had a well-varied program, with some excellent steps, and including a cartwheel lift. The second Russian pair were delightful. Tatiana Zhuk is the younger sister of the famous Stanislas, and great skating clearly runs in the family. Artistically, she and her partner Alexandr Gavrillov ran the Protopopovs very close.

FEBRUARY 7. Sjoukje Dijkstra, as expected, was unchallenged in the Ladies' event. After four figures she led Regine Heitzer by 41 points, with Nicole Hassler third.

In the evening, Alain Calmat retained his title with a brilliant program, very well fitted to the music. He almost fell on his triple loop jump, but saved himself with a hand on the ice. He did a fine double axel, and included some dazzling footwork. None of the others quite came up to this standard, but the young Russian, Meshkov, and the likeable Sepp Schonmetzler were both very good. Schnelldorfer skated last of all; he was livelier than usual, and managed to beat Schonmetzler in the free.

FEBRUARY 8. On the last two figures of Group II (back paragraph double threes and paragraph loops), Sjoukje Dijkstra went even further ahead. Regine Heitzer stayed second, more than 70 points behind. Another 45 points back lay Nicole Hassler.

The free dancing brought the Dance Championship to a very exciting close. Linda Shearman and Michael Phillips gave a very polished display of traditional English-style dancing, very much in the Courtney Jones tradition. The Romans' performance was more original, but not, I thought, as artistic as last year. Eight judges placed them first in the free (only Detroit SC's 13th anniversary was celebrated on Feb. 16 with a dinner-dance. The "Lucky 13" party was under the chairmanship of Mr. & Mrs. George Johns and started with cocktails and conversation in the Gay Blades Lounge and then moved downstairs for dining and dancing. Over 200 members attended a "Welcome Home" party for pro Maxine Karamon of Ice Capades on Feb. 26. Mr. & Mrs. Hy Tims arranged the supper-dance social. The Women's Auxiliary, to replenish its treasury, sponsored a Resale Shop on Feb. 26, and Mar. 2-3, featuring used clothing and other items. Betty Funk and Vera Young were in charge.

FSC of Cincinnati reported that it received good publicity for its February carnival in the local newspapers. An article of particular appeal appeared in the Feb. 9 number of The Cincinnati Enquirer, written by Gerald White.

FSC of Minneapolis presented exhibitions on weekends, including three Sunday nights prior to the Sub-Sectional Championships. Given at the Golden Valley Ice Center, the purpose of the program was two-fold: entertainment for the public and actual practice of routines for the new competitors. Also at the Ice Center in February the club provided five numbers for the Pillsbury Flour Milling Company's ice skating party. In addition, a four-member demonstration was given for the Fuller Elementary School and Pershing Park in Minneapolis. Weather permitting, a bus trip to Ortonville, Minn., was proposed with an outdoor show scheduled.

Gateway FSC of Missouri observed Valentine's Day with a party on Feb. 13. Figure exhibitions were given from the Preliminary through the Seventh Test by Patti Hiles, Pam Wylie, Penny Lamore, Kathy Seithel, Andrea Wylie, Mary Schneidermeyer, Ginger Nelson and Brenda Sprague. Stephanie Tower and Brenda Sprague skated solos before an enthusiastic crowd.

Iceland FSC seniors were tendered an open house following dance tests on Feb. 24. Host was club pro George Williams who provided music and refreshments; a special guest and acting hostess was pro Fran Pappas of Atlanta.

Lansing SC honored its members who participated in the U. S. Championships—Jan & Nic Burhans and Joey Heckert & Gary Clark—with a Bohemian dinner at the Michigan State University Ice Arena on Feb. 25. Old Timers Night was set for Mar. 4 to which past members were invited to skate. The annual spring meeting program, to take place on Mar. 18, included dinner, the election of new Board Members and skating.

St. Louis SC members presented an exhibition in Jefferson City, Mo., in early February . . . travelling there in their own railroad car! A group from the Carriage FSC also participated. On Feb. 23-24, the club's second annual Judges School was scheduled, called the Walter S. Powell Memorial Judges School. The panel was made up of guests—Mrs. Lyman M. Drake, Jr., Mrs. Harry W. Meiss, George Jenkinson and Frank Holcombe. The curriculum included sessions for all levels of figure judging as well as dancing through

The Case of Two Copies of January, or Where Is Your February Issue?

Due to a mistake at the Mailing House, some duplicate January issues were sent to subscribers instead of the February issue. If those who received a second January will let us know, a February will be sent. We would appreciate having the duplicate copies returned.—Ed.

the Silver level, with both classroom discussion and on-the-ice demonstrations.

South Side IC of Chicago concluded skating activities on Mar. 17 with a party at the rink. During the past year a set of cheers and a club song were written by the skaters and enthusiastically used to boost the morale of those entering competition.

Wagon Wheel FSC skaters participated in exhibitions given at Krape Park in Freeport, Ill. The program met with great success and was viewed by over 3000 spectators in spite of the 5° below zero temperature; hundreds of cars were turned away because of the lack of parking space. All the skaters were entertained at a chicken dinner in the Freeport Country Club as guests of the Park Board. A junior rummage sale was planned and all proceeds earmarked for the Competition Fund.

WC of Fargo-Moorhead, although it is inactive as far as skating is concerned this season, is keeping members in touch by a mimeographed paper called "Edges." The publication is being edited by Betsey Jacobson with Beverly Wenger as publisher. The annual meeting has been tentatively set for Apr. 3.

Arctic Blades FSC greeted out-of-town visitors at its Monday session following the U. S. Championships. At this time, the club awarded one of its few Honorary Memberships—to USFSA President F. Ritter Shumway. At a dinner meeting of the Executive Committee of the club on Feb. 21, President Robert T. McLeod was presented with a gavel plaque by the Officers and Directors in recognition of his capable chairmanship of the Nationals.

Blade & Edge Club of Pasadena seniors and juniors turned out in force for the annual Valentine's Day parties. Thirty-five seniors responded to invitations. While no invitations were sent to juniors, 97 turned out! Dr. Earl Acker arranged the senior gathering, assisted by Mrs. Armenia Van Dyke. Mrs. Robert Koch planned the junior event, aided by Mrs. Ardith Rowan.

ISC of Fresno skaters have been doing a good deal of travelling. The annual

by F. RITTER SHUMWAY USFSA President

WITH THE 1963 ANNUAL MEETING of the USFSA being held on May 3, 4 & 5 at the Wagon Wheel Lodge in Rockton, Illinois, one of the newest, most complete and unique recreational motels in the country, Delegates are assured a pleasant, interesting and worthwhile weekend devoted to the business of administering and improving our great sport of figure skating.

While our primary interest must be devoted to discussing reports and recommendations, plans now are well developed to streamline many of our procedures. There will be more time available to consider matters of broad policy, and to enjoy some of the excellent recreational facilities which the Wagon Wheel Lodge offers.

There is much more in figure skating than skating itself. Chief among these are new friendships made and older friendships deepened whenever folks interested in figure skating gather. Important also is the opportunity to meet and to come to know the Association officials in an informal atmosphere. How can this be done better after a hard working business session than during an hour of relaxation at the rink or around the swimming pool.

Under one roof will be not only our dining, meeting and living rooms but also the full-sized rink which is the "home" of the Wagon Wheel Figure Skating Club, two indoor, heated swimming pools, a separate curling rink and 12 modern bowling lanes. Just across the street is the 18-hole Macktown golf course (there is a nine-hole putting green on the Wagon Wheel premises) and nearby is the Wagon Wheel Riding Stable.

We are planning to have the Governing Council meeting start at 2 P.M. on Friday afternoon May 3 and to continue in session until 5 or 5:30. The Governing Council will reconvene on Saturday at 9 A.M. and continue in session until noon, and will then meet again from 2 until 5 or 5:30 in the afternoon. The concluding session will be held from 9 A.M. until noon on Sunday.

We will all dine together on Friday and Saturday evenings, followed by a Question and Answer period one evening, perhaps an open Competitions Committee meeting another evening or sessions of the Governing Council if we find that we need the additional time.

To speed up procedures we will not have an open meeting of the Executive Committee at which in the past we have gone over much of the material that we repeated the next day at the Governing Council Meeting. The Executive Committee will, however, meet immediately prior to the Governing Council to consider only closed session matters.

Wagon Wheel Lodge has offered us very attractive rates—starting at $6 per night for single room with shower. As one evidence of our appreciation, please make your reservation early being sure to identify yourself as attending the USFSA Annual Meeting. More details have been sent to your club president.

The Wagon Wheel Lodge is quite accessible. It is located three miles from the Beloit, Wisconsin exit of the Northwest Tollway—about 80 miles from Chicago's O'Hare Airport. Ozark Airlines has four flights daily to Rockford Airport (about 15 miles from the Lodge) while North Central Airlines serves Beloit, Wisconsin (about 10 miles from the Lodge) with five flights. Wagon Wheel has its own 3,200-foot, paved, lighted and CAA approved landing strip for those who wish to come in their own or a chartered plane. The Chicago & Northwestern Railroad Station in Beloit is only three miles from the Lodge. Greyhound buses stop right at the Lodge.

It is my hope that even more delegates than came to Sun Valley will avail themselves of the excellent opportunities prothe West German preferred the British couple), but in the final results Linda and Michael just regained the Championship which Britain has only once lost.

FEBRUARY 9. The Ladies' free skating ended the Championships in splendid style. Miss Dijkstra was magnificent; indeed, in eight years I have never seen her skate better. She was so far ahead that she needed to take no risks in the free. Instead, she went all out, and gave a display of such athletic power that all her rivals were overshadowed. Regine Heitzer fell badly on her double lutz, landed her double axel on two feet, and deservedly placed about eighth or ninth in the free. Nicole Hassler, on the other hand, was in top form. Her program, skated without mistakes, was a beautiful interpretation of the storm movement from Beethoven's Pastoral Symphony.

ROCKERS AND COUNTERS

Lodgepole trip took place on Jan. 27 when members went to Sequoia Park for a day of skating and picnicing—enjoyed by all despite the lack of snow. Several seniors made a weekend trip to Yosemite Park and a one-day trip to China Peak; again there was no snow, but the outdoor ice was wonderful for skating. A large percentage of the seniors also attended the U. S. Championships in Long Beach, the first National competition for most of the members.

Los Angeles FSC juniors were presented with a large bulletin board by Mrs. Boles which has been installed in the club room. The youngsters enjoyed a Valentine party following a Friday night session; a highlight was the presentation of ribbon test awards.

Portland ISC members—30 strong—travelled to Vancouver to view the North American Championships. A new senior skating format was initiated in February. The program begins with a half-hour of patch, and the remaining hours are divided into all the USFSA dances interspersed with free style, trios, and all-skates.

St. Moritz ISC honored visiting former members with an alumni night Valentine party on Feb. 11. This homecoming celebration featured skating and refreshments. As a boost to the Competitors' Fund, a portion of the price for tickets to a stage performance of "Gigi" was set aside.

Seattle SC's final sessions at the Civic Arena took place in March. Tentative arrangements were being made to have free instruction at junior and senior periods. The club competition finals were set for Mar. 27 at Civic Arena.

Canadian Clubs

Brant FSC's annual competitions took place on Dec. 16 at the Arctic Arena. The champions: Sandra Rendle, intermediate; Joan Butler and Wayne Francis, junior; Janet Gerow and Scott Francis, novice; Lori Pottruff, midget; Pamela Finch & Wayne Francis, junior pair and dance;

Dianne Waterfield & Judy Wilson, similar pair and similar dance.

Dundas FSC conducted the annual championships on Feb. 3. All events were well contested and the trophies were awarded at the evening's close. The winners: Cheryl Stull, junior; Janice Maikawa, novice; Darlene Shimoda, juvenile; Jane Morgan, pre-juvenile; Lynda Williams & Barbara Stutley, bronze similar dance; Linda Palmer & Lenore Allison, preliminary similar dance.

Edmonton FSC's annual Christmas party took place on Dec. 23, convened by Barry Parker who was ably assisted by many other parents. The festivities commenced at the rink with novelty races and general skating and wound up at the Bellevue Community Hall where singing, a Twist session and refreshments enlivened the proceedings.

Galt FSC gave a send-off party on Feb. 3 for Linda Ann Ward & Neil Carpenter preceding the Canadian Championships. Friends of members and the interested public were invited to the affair. The professional put each junior and intermediate group through its paces which was of particular interest to those uninitiated to skating sessions. Linda and Neil performed their competition pair; also in the program were solos by Linda Farrell, Ronnie Shaver, John Bailey and Wayne Palmer, and dancing by Mr. & Mrs. Harold Avery and Terry Peer & Rick Hawkins. After a short dance session, the enthusiastic crowd took to the ice for a general session to organ music. Linda and Neil were presented with leather skate bags by the Ladies Auxiliary.

Montreal Silver Blades Skaters gathered on Feb. 2 for a supper and dance at the Royal St. Lawrence Yacht Club in Dorval. Some 70 members and their guests were on hand for the successful affair which was highlighted by cocktails and a buffet, and was arranged by Entertainment Committee Chairman Nina Townsend and Paul Firlotte. Dancing was enjoyed to music by the Russ Dufour Orchestra.

Sudbury SC's 13th annual carnival took place on Dec. 30. The two performances given were well attended despite the 24° below zero temperatures. Using the theme Holiday Ice Capers, the production was directed by pros Mrs. J. McKenzie and Mrs. E. Ryder, and starred Gertrude Desjardins & Maurice LaFrance, life members of the club. The first half depicted "Santa's Workshop" and featured Ina Lynn Purvis, Susan and Merry Carscallen, Roger Uemae and Michelle Tessier. Juniors participated as groups of wooden soldiers, reindeer, animals, Christmas belles, dolls, etc. Spotlighted in the second part of the show were Margaret Ann Bowen, Connie Samatowka, Wendy Piccolo, Sonja Uemae, Marilyn Jacques, Rachel Villeneuve, Nelson Bellmore, and guest Judy Williams.

Toronto CS & CC conducted its championships in January. The winners: Jeanne Sanders and Phillip McCordic, junior; Astra Burka and Gordon Church, novice "B"; Laura Anderson and David McGillivray, novice "A"; Simone Creed, juvenile

"A"; Paula Kelly, juvenile "B"; Carol Miles, junior junior; Alexis & Chris Shields, senior pair; Jane & Peggy McCutcheon, senior girls pair; Barbara Webb & Ann Bythell, juvenile girls pair; Bunne Lilley & John Booker, junior dance; Mary Bythell & Carol Miles, preliminary dance. A group, under the guidance of Mr. McCordic, traveled to New Brunswick to stage a show at the opening of the Sir James Dunn Memorial Centre at St. Andrews-by-the-Sea. Among the skaters were Harry Maclean, Valerie Jones, Phillip McCordic, Lynn Matthews and Bryon Topping. They skated before a capacity crowd. A highlight was their coaching of some of the local skaters. A senior Valentine skating party was set for Feb. 13; two dances were also scheduled for February for seniors—on the 9th and 23rd.

Upper Canada SC conducted tests on Feb. 24 and, just before they were held, the candidates and judges viewed the North American Championships via television in the lounge. The Spring Fling was set for Mar. 28-29. Junior courts heralded spring as bunnies, chickens, etc. Trends in fashion were depicted in the Easter Parade and exhibitions given by prominent skaters.

Woodstock FSC's annual club championship day on Jan. 27 was engineered by Jack Lawson, while Mrs. E. C. Evans and Mrs. W. S. Sedgwick arranged the junior events on Feb. 10. Several test dates resulted in a good percentage of passing grades in figures and dances.

Eastern Clubs

Baltimore FSC juniors turned out in good numbers for the Junior Club competitions on Feb. 7. The winners: Denise Cahill, Theresa Anderson, Anita Freiman, and Kathy Cahill, classes I, II, III and IV, respectively; Mark Molz, class IV; Ranice Davis & Mark Hackman, girl and boy dance; Betty Maple & Linda Schaub, girls dance; Linda & Carroll Schaub, junior and parent dance. After competitions, interest centered on carnival practice.

Beacon Hill Club planned short exhibitions for every Sunday, weather permitting, at its outdoor rink. The final test date was set for Mar. 9 and the skating dinner on the 15th. A display of old-fashioned skates has been on view in a showcase donated by the Helmraths.

Buffalo SC arranged a buffet on ice for the President's Ball; set for Feb. 21, the program included live band music. The club competitions were to be held on Mar. 9-10. The first Junior Board tea dance took place on Jan. 5. Dancers from neighboring clubs in Buffalo, Rochester and from Canada gathered for the affair—altogether 50 in number including skating fathers. Mrs. Richard Keller chaired the tea dance, assisted by Mr. Keller as master of ceremonies; Brian Joe Keller and Roger Schneider arranged the dance program. Couples winning plaques awarded for endurance in the Twist contest were Elizabeth O'Donnell, & pro Wally Distelmeyer and Frances Caccamise & Bill Neale. Also contributing their efforts to the successful affair were Mrs. William Schaab, Joan Keller, Mrs. Walter Keller, Mrs. F. Danahy Georger, Mrs. Jerome B. Magee and Mary Grace Hornung.

Cambridge SC, now in its 65th season, held its juniors' sports events on Feb. 2 at its rink. The winners of the various events: Sally Williams and Robert Dietz, figure skating; Betsy Williams and Rose Pappenheimer, figures; Joan Ackerman, figure eights. First placers in races: Susan Winn, Terry Harris, Thomas Kivney, Fred Eustis, Cyrena Henneman, Maureen Kivney, Keith Miller, Edward Waring, and Holly McDonald.

Charter Oak FSC's junior group has been a great success this season—an extra session has been held at the Colt Rink in Hartford on Thursdays—due to the efforts of Mrs. Frederick Maynard and her committee. In March, the club was to hold tests for the first time. They were to take place at an outdoor rink.

Civic FSC of Buffalo presented a figure skating demonstration at the first Winter Carnival, sponsored by the Buffalo Department of Recreation. Soloists included Michelle Cheney, Jack Colern, Gwyn Noble and Susan McLean. A group number was given by the Civicettes—Ann Czerwinski, Susan Steg, Karen Dreshler, Kathy McFee, Margie and Carol Nelson, Pat Hartnett and Donna Tolsma—who are coached by pro Frances Duroure. Buffalo C & SC provided two group numbers—"Scotch Curls" and "Winterbelles." Joan White & Don Leslie of the Buffalo SC gave dance demonstrations and fellow members Patsy Ryan and Joe McGee performed solos. About 75,000 persons attended the two-day affair which also featured snow sculpturing, hockey, dog sled races, skiing, tobogganing, ice fishing, ice diving and barrel jumping.

IC of Baltimore's Christmas festivities for the juniors were highlighted by exhibitions given by the top skaters. Santa contributed to the fun with his pack of presents for all and the youngsters vied with each other for prizes given to the winners of the various games. Juniors are working hard this season on star and ribbon tests, as well as free skating numbers. Seniors have started on different inter-club tests; there are six of these tests to date and others planned for the future.

New Haven SC members took part in two exhibitions for the New Haven Recreation Department on Feb. 3 at the Trowbridge Square Rink and on Feb. 16 at Blake Field. Skaters participating were Beth Powell, Susan Camp, Cynthia Saranec, Claire Marsh, Linda Casson and Ginger Powell. Keith Galgot and Sherri Panczak performed both solos and a pair. A spring session from Mar. 10 to May 26 is scheduled.

North Shore SC skaters performed a series of exhibitions, sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce at the Manchester (N. H.) Winter Carnival on Jan. 25. Although the temperature was zero at Dorr's outdoor rink, members presented an hour and one-half show of singles, pair, dance and group numbers.

Old York Road SC's Women's Committee gave a social on Feb. 26 in the clubhouse lounge. Called a "Dessert-Luncheon Fashion Show, Bridge and Skating Party," the event drew more than 125 persons. Comprising the Luncheon Committee were Mrs. William Berlinghof, Jr., Mrs. Peter Jacobson and Mrs. Mayer Brandschain. Member Theodore Voss arranged two afternoon sessions a week for Abington

Township Schools which has met with great success. Over one thousand youngsters appeared at the rink the first week. The program will be continued next year. The June Fete Committee held a skating party for the benefit of the Abington Memorial Hospital in February, attended by a crowd of 500.

Pittsburgh FSC drew up plans for the balance of the season which include the annual dinner and business meeting in April. Figure judges have been having a busy season with additional low tests on Feb. 24; dance and figure tests were set for late March.

R. P. I. FSC's senior division for the second year held a Mad Hatter's Party on the ice. Given on Feb. 13, the social presented a judging problem—that of selecting the persons wearing the prettiest and most unusual hats who received prizes. The Entertainment Committee served light refreshments to top off the evening.

The SC of Boston competitions took place on Dec. 9. The winners: Tina Noyes, senior; Roger Collard, junior; Fizzie Grogan, intermediate; Judy Perry, novice. The Dudley S. Richards Memorial Trophy has been presented to the club by Susan Richards Abbe for the novice boys' free skating competition. The Christmas Pageant depicted the story of a small girl (Fizzie Grogan) asleep on her couch. Santa (Ezra Stevens) awakened her and pointed to the decorated tree surrounded by toys and dolls which came to life and skated. Kathy MacLellan, Nancy Brunnckow, Laura Codman and Anne Ferguson were among the soloists. Several members skated at the Kennedy Memorial Rink in Hyannis on Dec. 15 before a capacity crowd. After the exhibition, the Town of Barnstable served dinner to the skaters—Helen Dane, the Georges, Roger Collard, Hilary Roberts, Tina Noyes, Ann Pellegrino, Fizzie Grogan, Dale Proctor, Barbara Fitzgerald, Kathie MacLellan, Claire McCarthy, Tom Harvey and Cynthia Sweetnam. National competitors were guests at the Friday evening supper on Feb. 1 and they performed exhibitions.

The SC of Lake Placid juniors participated in the Coronation of the King and Queen of Winter of Lake Placid on Dec. 29 at the Olympic Arena. Debbie Colby, Patti Gustafson and Pieter Kollen skated solos and Patti and Pieter also performed their pair number.

Washington FSC has been holding a number of competitions, particularly in the Junior-Family session. On Jan. 19 a spirals competition was conducted for the senior session; the winners were Mary Jane Burt and Carney Werner (singles) and Mary Jane Burt and Warren Croy (doubles). The beginner dance session on Jan. 15 included more than the usual number of the simpler dances and refreshments were served. On Jan. 27, the off-ice tea dance was highlighted by a male CanCan line and prizes were awarded in various categories in ballroom dancing. A new instructional class has started in free skating for adults taught by Barlow Nelson.

Wissahickon SC senior dancers invited members of the Philadelphia SC & HS to an afternoon tea dance on Jan. 6. Ginny Warwick and Louise Wanamaker served refreshments. A busload of skaters attended the Dec. 29 performance of Ice Follies and paid an enjoyable visit backstage afterwards. The first of a series of Bronze Dance Judging Schools took place on Dec. 13. About 30 trial judges—from other area clubs as well as Wissahickon—turned out for the evening of judging discussion led by William Barnes. Refreshments and a dance session concluded the program. During the balance of the skating season, two evenings a month are being devoted to the school. Sessions will be held at different clubs. An intermediate party was scheduled for Feb. 12 for boys and girls of the Tuesday and Friday sessions.

New Gold Medalists

THE USFSA GOLD PAIR Test was passed by Patricia Gustafson & Pieter Kollen, The SC of Lake Placid, at the WC of Indianapolis on Jan. 16. Carole Holliday, Toronto CS & CC, completed the USFSA Gold Dance Test at the Genesee FSC on Feb. 2. Jack Turney, Fort Erie FSC, passed the CFSA Gold Dance on Jan. 6 at the Galt FSC.
