MEDICINE

BRIEF

These monthly columns will be written by members of the USFSA Sports Medicine Committee, and will include a variety of topics we hope are of interest and help to you. Included will be columns on the practical treatment of common medical ailments of international travel; the skater's foot; the role of the parent in the child's development as a competitor and human being; what to do if you are the first to respond to a sudden skating injury where no physician is present; and so on. While we cannot answer specific questions or give direct personal advice, we do encourage you to write in your comments and suggestions (both on improvements we might make and medical issues you would like to see discussed).

The Sports Medicine Committee emphasizes strongly the need to consult your personal physician or medical professional for advice about any specific problems you may be experiencing.

AND WHAT ABOUT YOUR WEIGHT? An Overview of Eating Disorders

by Claudia K. Berenson, M.D.

Attention to adequate nutrition is certainly becoming a standard part of the training program for all competitive athletes. Figure skating is no exception. Focus on weight is a necessary aspect of attending to nutrition. In figure skating as in all sports and art forms in which grace and appearance are important, body form becomes paramount. The "eating disorders" are increasing throughout the English-speaking world. They seem to be increasing most among dancers, gymnasts, and skaters.

Causative factors are not completely understood, but certainly the attitude towards "thinness" in society plays a part. Television, magazines, and self-improvement books all point out the beauty of being thin or thinner. The necessity of looking beautiful by twentieth-century standards is an important aspect of succeeding in competitive skating. Here are a few interesting statistics which have been gathered by research questionnaires in adolescents: fifty-two percent of highschool girls diet; the figures on males are not known; binge eating without vomiting or purging occurs in adolescent girls four to five times a month; and normal teenage boys binge two to three times a month.

So what constitutes an eating disorder anyway? Aside from obesity, which is one of the eating disorders, there are two types: anorexia and bulimia. Anorexia (properly known as anorexia nervosa) is quite simply starvation. Girls and women (occasionally boys, but only one tenth as frequently as girls) usually desiring to "take off a few pounds" begin to diet and continue beyond sensible weight loss. With the increasing weight loss comes an obsession that losing still more weight is desirable and that even a very thin body by objective standards is still a "fat one." Although the teenager feels hunger, the pride in controlling appetites and eating less and less supercedes hunger. The person with anorexia feels ashamed or guilty if certain foods are eaten—particularly things like candy, cookies, cheese, meat—and feels triumphant with each pound lost. After a certain amount of weight is lost, menstruation stops in the girl. With the state of starva-

"On days when I'm struggling to clear the ice of wet, heavy snow; on days when I'm lacing my skates with fingers so cold I can't feel them; on days when I'm struggling to make good figures against a gale-force wind, I wonder—is there anyone out there doing the same?"

So Melissa Adams, of Kellerton, Iowa, writes. She says she manages to skate six to eight weeks each winter on farm ponds, "... possibly ten weeks in a severe winter. [Yet] there are days when ... the snow glistens ... the ice shines ... and the swish of my blades mingles with the singing of birds and the lowing of cattle ... days when the snow falls softly ... there are no sounds, and I feel as though I'm moving effortlessly on a sea of clouds."

Dr. Thomas Mahan, of Atlanta, Georgia, remembers well what it was like. Growing up in Iowa "... where the prairie winters are long and bone-chilling," he writes, "... you should have seen our rink. I've never seen a movie set to match it. A natural lake but made into a commercial rink . . . It was in a bowl of snow-covered hills, with lovely pines and oaks drenched with snow. The hills and trees were sprinkled with colored Christmas lights, and coming on it at the top of the hill it looked like a wonderland below. The warming house had a pot-bellied stove glowing red, and was filled with noisy skaters also glowing red from the exercise and cold . . . "

But Andra McLoughlin Kelly, now living in Toronto, Canada, is "out there doing the same." "... After such a long stretch of skating, beginning in 1941 as an amateur competitor, and then a show skater until 1959, I retired from skating rinks . . . " And such an amateur! I first saw her in that jewel of an ice rink on top of the old Madison Square Garden in New York City, a longlegged teenager, flamboyant even then, and noticed each year as she developed into a vivid and glamorous performer. My last sight of her was in a startling routine in Washington, D.C.'s Nationals in 1951 to Rossini's "La Gazza Ladra." She managed the impossible: getting an appreciative smile from the late Otto Dallmayr, a judge from my home club—an unprecedented feat since it was only the third time I'd ever seen him grin.

"... in January 1985, a strange thing happened," writes Andra. "I began to learn to skate all over again in the most exhilarating, positively personal and natural way, on a lake, in a park, under the moonlight. It was so wonderful I will be down there, all dressed in my woolies like Ulrich, Axel, Jackson, Nate, Oscar and Eddie, Sonja and the rest must have done. Their ghosts will accompany me as I pray that the lake ice gets hard before the snow falls, that I may go and press my edges against that special velvet of grey . . . As the geese fly overhead, the sun will go down, the stars and moon will come up, the ice will glisten and crackle, and my own singing and whistling will accompany the sound of the whish of my blades. I will spin and jump (in the old-fashioned way), do my grape-vines and 'spectacles', and no one will laugh and say, 'Is that really the way they used to skate?" "

"You know, there is absolutely no comparison in what one experiences in an indoor rink to what an adventure the outdoor offers. When one endures the freezing wind against the face to then turn and let that same wind blow you back down the lake full speed ahead—that's flying! To push through an inch of snow with a shovel to get a bit of ice to do a figure—that's patch! Your quads do plenty of twanging from that effort, and the resulting strength comes as a shock from this exercise."

"And then spring arrives, the sadness that all that once was fairyland—white and sparkling grey—is now patches of water and mud, and all over until next year, gives one a very

Lately I have been asking myself a lot of questions. I haven't come up with any answers yet, but perhaps you can. Let me know if you have any solutions to the problems I see in competitive skating.

First of all, is figure skating a sport or an art? Dance is an art, yet the elements involved in dance take an enormous amount of physical training of the body to accomplish, and in my opinion, as much as any physical sport.

If you classify figure skating as an art, where is the technical training of the body needed to produce these artists? If you sat in a room with twenty skaters and asked the questions: "How many of you take ballet, or some other form of technical dance training consistently each week?" What do you suppose the answer would be? I ask this question of skaters at least twenty times a year all over the United States, and the largest response is one or two.

If you classify figure skating as a sport, why is it that skaters do not train as other athletes do for their sport? Skaters are taught specific jumps such as waltz jumps, Axels, toe loops, almost before they learn to stroke properly. But they are not taught how to jump! There is a difference. How do you get from Point A on the ice to Point B in the air? What muscles are to be used? How do you train those muscles to prepare a young body for the vigorous jumps needed for competition? They are not even taught to warm up before trying to use their bodies—a real nono in athletics! Ask any sports medicine doctor.

What is the sense of doing a jump over and over again at the same low level, and never train to jump higher? All you accomplish is more revolutions. What you get are spins in the air with no height.

Why is there never any time or money for off-ice training to develop the musculature, strength, flexibility, coordination, and balance needed for skating? Of course this may happen over a period of many years to a few naturally gifted people, while the mation—and it is starvation—many physical changes occur. Some of these include slowing the heart, poor tolerance for cold, low blood pressure, skin rashes from inadequate vitamins, a variety of stomach complaints, and hair loss. Also, many young people express increasing motor restlessness and feel like they need to be active all the time. Losing weight and thinking about food becomes the single most important focus in life. The person with anorexia will describe how their minds are totally occupied by eating, weight control, and weight loss, all day long. Certain emotional troubles are associated with anorexia. Just as drug abuse becomes a way of coping with the stresses of life, so too anorexia or starving—becomes a fixed pattern to deal with stress. Sometimes a feeling that one's whole life is controlled by the wishes and expectations of others—coaches, parents, teachers—contributes to the problem. A feeling of continual dissatisfaction or even depression can accompany anorexia.

Sports Medicine Brief

When anorexia is severe it is easy to recognize, but the other major eating disorder can't be seen. This disorder is called bulimia. It is a problem involving "binging" (purging) or "pigging out" coupled with vomiting or the use of laxatives or other medications to control weight. Occasional "pigging out" is normal. Frequent and severe binging is not. Purging is always a sign of disordered eating behavior. Young people with bulimia may be overweight or underweight, but most often their weight looks normal. Sometimes the two disorders go together with periods of starvation followed by "binging and purging." Typically, the young person struggles with overwhelming feelings of inadequacy and guilt in spite of fine talents. Medical problems associated with this disorder are varied and complex and can effect almost every system in the body. Sometimes the damage done to the body is permanent. The most common problems involve the heart, the digestive system, and the teeth. Studies seem to point to bulimia as being a more common problem in the young population than anorexia. Groups of kids tend to get into the habit of binging together and discuss ways of more effective purging (ridding the body of unwanted food and food products).

As in anorexia, people with bulimia become slaves to their eating disorder, worry constantly about pigging out and feel compelled to purge. In both disorders eating certain foods and purging are described as and believed to be "good" or "bad." Many other distortions in thinking are common in the eating disorders. Some examples are "if I eat a doughnut, I'll gain a pound" or "if I eat a piece of pie, it will go right to my thighs."

These are very serious disorders! They need medical and psychiatric treatment. They are curable with proper help, but the longer they go on the longer it takes to get rid of them. If you have concerns about your eating patterns or suspect you have an eating disorder consult your doctor. For education, more information, or a list of specialists who work in your city, write to: AABA (American Anorexia/Bulimia Assoc., Inc.), 133 Cedar Lane, Teaneck, NJ 07666; or ANAD (National Association of Anorexia Nervosa and Associated Disorders), Box 271, Highland Park, IL 60035.

Here are some early signs of eating disorders:

- If you are dieting and experience fatigue, light-headedness, or feeling cold when others feel warm.
- 2. If you are dieting and you develop irregular or scant menstrual periods.
- 3. If you begin to lose weight successfully, but find that it leads to increasing criticism about your body.
- 4. If your dieting and eating behavior seems to lead to social isolation.
- 5. If food and eating behaviors are on your mind all day long.
- 6. If eating certain foods make you feel guilty or anxious.
- 7. If you have compelling urges to binge ("pig out").
- 8. If you start hiding food or storing it up secretively.

Of course, inducing vomiting or using purgatives is a clear sign of an eating disorder. A way of early prevention is to communicate your stresses with your friends and family. They can be a natural support group. Share feelings of inadequacy and concerns about control. Dealing with stress whatever it is—placing in a competition, mastering the double Axel, getting asked to the school dance, earning an A in Algebra, or keeping harmony at home—is part of dealing with life. Don't turn to "looking good" or "controlling weight as the solution to stress. It's a loser in the end.

special yearning for winter to return, and skating fun to begin. Compare that feeling (if you can) to the artificial type of skating indoors all year round. The competitive skaters are so blase about the whole thing. Most complain about ice conditions if they are not perfect, kick the ice if they miss a jump (what a sacrilege!), must have ice eleven or twelve months a year (they must never experience that special desire to come back to skate), know very little history about basics in the sport, and I think—because I was once one of them—are missing the true essence of ice skating."

"... I guess you might say I've come 'full circle' after over forty years of skating, beginning in Rockefeller Center in New York City, through the Skating Club of New York, Lake Placid, Broadmoor, etc., and I'm back to where I was, alone with my beloved sport, accompanied by my many idols, Henie, Loughran, Vinson. I cherish what they began."

jority struggle along, off-balance, kicking the ice with frustration, and subjecting themselves to potential re-occurring injuries.

Why is there always time and money for that extra costume and fitting; extra patch and freestyle; to "cram" before a competition? Why do coaches always agree with me when I talk about these things, and yet, have no system of off-ice training available in their teaching programs?

I was watching and listening in on a lesson recently that a world-class coach was giving to a national competitor. She was vigorously trying to get him to lift his spine and stretch his limbs before a double Axel as a preparation. I watched the skater go through this preparation at least four times, and each time his arms and hands lifted, but there was no sign whatsoever of any lift in the torso or head, which was what his coach was trying to accomplish. Why couldn't his body respond? Was it because there was no muscle memory there?

Questions! Questions! Questions! Do you have the answers?

The New England Championships were held November 12-16, 1985, at the Town Line Twin Rinks in Danvers, Massachusetts, and were hosted by the North Shore Skating Club. Typical New England fall weather greeted the 115 competitors who participated in these events.

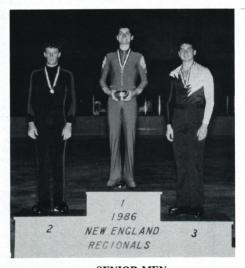

In the Senior Ladies' competition, Tracey Damigella from the SC of Boston edged out Tracey Seliga, Colonial FSC, for the Gold medal with a strong freestyle performance which included a triple Salchow-double toe loop combination. Tracey Seliga was leading based on her strong performances in figures and short program but with a second place finish in the long, she had to settle for a Silver medal. Kristina Swanson, SC of Boston, took the Bronze with her powerful free skating.

Paul Wylie, representing the SC of Boston, captured the Gold medal in Senior Men by winning all but the figure phase of the competition with his triple jumps and impressive line on the ice. His Ina Bauer was striking.

Figure leader, William Lawe of the SC of Boston, retained the Silver after placing third in the short program. Jeff DiGregorio, SC of Boston, took the Bronze; although he placed second in the short which some spectators felt did not receive the marks it deserved.

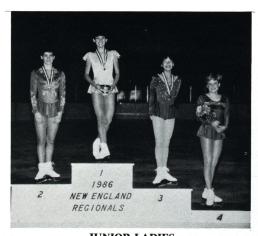

Opening her free skating program with two double Axels, Tracie Brown, from the SC of Boston, won the Junior Ladies' title. Pulling up from fifth in figures, Nancy Kerrigan, SC of Boston, won both the short and long programs with her dynamic triple jumps capturing the Silver. Jennifer Leng, SC of Boston, took the Bronze. Also of note were the strong free skating performances of Lara Dunlap, SC of Boston, who pulled up from eighth in figures to finish fourth.

Mark Mitchell, SC of Hartford, captured all three elements of the Junior Men's competition with four triples in the long. Placing second, was John Denton, SC of Boston, who had great rapport with the audience. In third was Robert Powell, SC of Boston. Richard Sears, Colonial FSC of Massachusetts, could not compete due to an injury sustained in a competition practice session.

It was mentioned at the PSGA meeting held during the competition that SSR 1.42 regarding spin-like and jump-like movements in short program footwork is being ignored by many Junior and Senior competitors. In both Ladies' and Men's events half loop jumps as well as continuous three turns with no change of foot were executed by some of the competitors who will be going to Easterns. Judges questioned about this rule said they are marking the competitors down for these errors as well as for the mistake of not completing a full circle of footwork.

JUNIOR DANCE Tina Marshall & David Low, Gold Christie Clark & Sean Swartz, Silver

In the Junior Dance category, Tina Marshall and David Low from the Charter Oak FSC, won all phases of the competition with smooth and polished style. Christie Clark, Yale FSC and Sean Swartz, Charter Oak FSC, skated a peppy polka taking the Silver.

The most consistent skater during the week was Dawn Duhamel, SC of Boston, in the Novice Ladies' category. Her outstanding figures and elegant style kept her in first place in both elimination and final rounds. Defending champion, Liane Moscato, SC of Boston, took the Silver with her tremendous speed in free skating after placing third in figures. Tarah Donelan, Colonial FSC, neatly skated her way to the Bronze medal. Worthy of note was the dynamic free skating performance in the elimination round of Jennifer DeRoche from the host club.

Winning all phases of Novice Dance were Kristin Andrews and Peter Breen from the SC of Boston. Despite a fall in the variation dance they were sharp and exciting. Second in the compulsories were Tina Speagle, Triangle FSC and Dale Boucher, Smithfield FSC, who finished in third due to several errors in the final dance. Mirae MacDonald, SC of Springfield and Mark Skiles, Colonial FSC, skated with excellent expression in taking the Silver.

The figure leader, Jennifer Blount, SC of Boston, held onto the Silver despite a disappointing free skating performance. Zoe Gooding, SC of Amherst, with her powerful freestyle took the Bronze.

Garrett Swasey from the Stoneham FSC, dominated both phases of the Intermediate Men's competition capturing the Gold. James Staley from the Colonial FSC took the Silver.

Sarah and Brad Walsh, the young sister and brother team from the Warwick FS, won the Intermediate Dance title with a poised performance. The Silver medal was won by Melanie Sheehan, Warwick FS and Gerald Miele, Providence FSC, and the Bronze by Laura and William Danielson of the SC of Amherst.

Marion Hogan & Leonard Colarusso, Gold Juliana M. Dupre & Carl R. Dupre, Silver Elaine Savoy & Frank T. Tieuli, Bronze

A smooth performance in both the compulsories and the variation dance assured Marion Hogan and Leonard Colarusso, from the SC of Boston, the Gold medal in Adult Dance. After a second place in the compulsories Juliana and Carl Dupre, SC of Boston, held onto the Silver edging out Elaine Savoy, SC of Boston and Frank Tieuli, Mass Bay SC, who finished third.

With lovely warm fall days, cool crisp nights and no snow, the Buffalo Skating Club welcomed over 150 competitors from New York and New Jersey to the 1986 North Atlantic Championships.

There were only four Senior Ladies contending for the title. Kathaleen Kelly of the SC of Lake Placid, after placing second in figures, skated a technically-correct short program and a very well-done long program including double Axels, double flips, flying camels an illusion and death drop. Leslie Friedman of the SC of New York, who had placed first in figures, unfortunately, missed three required elements in her short program. This, possibly, cost Leslie the title since she skated a lovely long program including a nice combination of a double Axel into a triple Salchow and a nice triple flip. Sheila Duggan of the SC of Western New York placed third with a program consisting of double jumps and some very graceful layback spins.

In the Senior Men's competition, Rocky Marval of the SC of New York led all the way. Rocky executed several triple jumps such as a triple toe loop, triple Salchow, and a triple loop and some excellent fast foot work. Kelby Riley of the SC of Lake Placid placed second and also completed triple Salchows, triple toe loops and ended with a nice combination of double jumps.

The Junior Ladies began the week with seventeen ladies divided into two flights. By week's end, the field had been narrowed down to the eight finalists. Julie Wasserman of the SC of Westchester gave one of the finest free skating performances of the competition. Julie skated a very well choreographed and enjoyable-to-watch program including some very clean jumps and beautiful spins. Danielle-Alyse Babaian of the SC of New York skated into second place and

The Junior Men's division proved to be an interesting contest with six men competing for the chance to advance to Easterns. Brian Grant of the SC of Lake Placid and John Liotta of the SC of New York gave each other a really close competition. Brian completed several triple jumps and double jump combinations to take first. John Liotta with his smooth style and varied jump combinations took second place. Norman Smilowitz of South Mountain FSC placed third.

In all, there were thirty-six entrants in the Novice Ladies' event with Erika Murawski of the SC of Rockland New York finishing first with a well-skated program. Victoria Mohr of the SC of Lake Placid placed second and Denise Williams of the SC of New York finished third.

Christian Conte of the Genesee FSC won the Novice Men's title with a free skating program including a double Axel and double Lutz, double toe loop combination. Phillip DiGuglielmo of the Essex SC of New Jersey placed second and Edmund Nesti of the SC of Lake Placid placed third.

There were also thirty-six Intermediate Ladies contending for medals. Niki Tavano of the SC of Westchester placed first with her good strong jumps. Alyssa Stith of North Jersey FSC placed second and exhibited a great deal of grace especially in performing a lovely Bauer. Marianne Diliberti of the SC of New York placed third.

Michael Chack of the SC of Rockland New York was a clear first in the Intermediate Men's division with Sloane Yeh of the South Mountain FSC placing second.

Since there were so many entries in Juvenile Ladies, there were two Juvenile Ladies' Group A champion is Bobbie Anne Flower of the SC of Westchester while Juvenile Ladies' Group B champion is Suzanne Colburn of the Amherst SC. Bryan Hurley of the SC of ebruary 15, 1961, was a day of mourning and immeasurable loss to the international figure skating community. On that day, a tragic accident took the lives of the entire U.S. World Team and accompanying officials, professionals, and family members. In the ensuing years, the memory of these beloved champions and comrades has been perpetuated through the USFSA Memorial Fund, which has supported the training and development of those who followed to continue and enhance the sport.

On this twenty-fifth anniversary of the tragedy, the events surrounding the ill-fated flight are recounted and tribute paid to those who were lost and shall never be forgotten.

Flight 548

February 14, 1961, Valentine's Day, New York City: The Sabena Airlines lounge was beginning to fill with passengers for the evening flight to Europe from Idlewild Airport (now Kennedy International). Dressed in their new uniforms, members of the United States World Figure Skating Team arrived, bringing with them an air of excitement and enthusiasm. High spirits prevailed with great anticipation of the trip to Europe, for many their first visit to a communist country, World competition in Boeing 707 crossed the Belgian coast which the Americans were favored to win several medals.

Final details were was operating normally and rechecked: passports, quested landing instructions. visas, tickets, equip- would be the last communication ment. There were several last minute phone calls received from well wishers and many more to be made to families, friends, and loved ones before boarding Flight 548, scheduled to depart at 7:20 P.M. The overnight flight would arrive in Brussels, Belgium, the next morning. The team would then continue on to Prague, Czechoslovakia, where the World Championships were to be held on February 22 to 26.

The Canadian team was also leaving that night on another airline. The two teams had faced each other the weekend before in Philadelphia at the biennial North American Championships. At a reception following the championships, Dudley Richards, United States Pair Champion with Maribel Owen, had suggested that the Canadian and North American Pair Champions, Maria and Otto Jelinek change their reservations and fly with the American team. Being friends with so many of the U.S. skaters, Otto had agreed to the suggestion.

However, on the day of the flight, a prolonged conversation with their mother delayed the change. The Jelineks would be returning to their home country from which, as children, they had fled the oppressive communist regime for freedom in Canada. Maria and Otto's safe passage had been assured, but their parents could not attend the championships for fear of detention and reprisal.

The Sabena flight departed on schedule. The passenger list included eighteen American skaters along with sixteen officials, coaches, and family members; twenty-seven other passengers, and a crew of eleven. The details of the flight are unknown. There was no sign of trouble as the Boeing 707 crossed the Belgian coast the next morning. The pilot radioed the Brussels airport that everything was operating normally and requested landing instructions. It would be the last comand the forthcoming There was no sign of trouble as the munication from the aircraft. The sky was clear as the jet came into sight of the control tower a little before 10:00 A.M. on February 15. Because another plane was preparing to depart, Flight 548 was put into a holding pattern and circled the airport twice. It descended to about 600 feet and began the final approach. The landing gear was lowered, then abruptly retracted. The jet pulled up and began to climb sharply away from the runway.

The control tower lost radio contact and noticed an erratic flight pattern and odd engine sounds. The airplane made several strange zigzag turns, began shaking, then nosed over and fell in a series of spins. There was a tremendous explosion on impact and it literally disintegrated in a field near the village of Berg, four miles from the airport.

"It looked as if the plane's controls had been completely lost," an airport official reported. "We saw the crash coming. The fire trucks were actually on their way before the crash?"

A local resident said she believed the plane's engines had died as the crew fought desperately to keep the craft aloft. It appeared that the pilot had tried to avoid the row of houses in the center of Berg and was looking for clear spot when the plane came down at a sharp angle.

A series of thunderous explosions from the fuel tanks followed, one by one. A farmer working in his field nearby was killed by flying debris and a laborer's leg was severed.

There were no survivors aboard Flight 548.

In Prague, the plane carrying the Canadian team had arrived a short while before, after a stop in Amsterdam. As the skaters gathered their luggage and awaited clearance through customs, the news from Brussels arrived. They were stunned and wept openly at the loss of their friends and competitors with whom they had celebrated just a few days before.

For Maria and Otto Jelinek, it had been a fluke of fate. The lengthy farewell with their mother had prevented them from changing reservations to join the American team. They were safe in Prague, but would soon learn there would be no championship. They would have to wait another year to claim the World title. (Incidentally, Otto Jelinek is now Minister of Youth Sports for Canada.)

World Championships Cancelled

The day following the tragedy in Brussels was a day filled with grief and sorrow. A melancholy haze hung over Prague and the Winter Stadium where skaters gathered to practice. There were conflicting reports whether the competition would be or should be held.

Messages of condolence poured in to the USFSA from around the world. President John F. Kennedy stated, "I was distressed and saddened to learn of the airline crash in Brussels this morning. The disaster has brought tragedy to many American families and is a painful loss to the international community of sports as well. Our country has sustained a great loss of talent and grace, which have brought pleasure to people all over the world. Mrs. Kennedy and I extend our deepest sympathy to the families and friends of all the passengers and crew who died in the crash?"

Secretary of State, Dean Rusk wrote, "I wish to express my personal condolences and those of the Department of State to you and ask that you convey them to the families of the United States Figure Skating Team. That they lost their lives while on their way to represent the United States in the World Championships in Prague only increases the tragedy, for I am certain that these fine Americans would have served their Nation well by their presence."

"Deeply moved by the terrible catastrophe that has carried off our young American figure skaters, their relatives, and coaches," cabled Dr. James Koch, President of the International Skating Union. "I send to the USFSA and all concerned my deepest sympathy and condolences. Words cannot express my feelings."

When questions of cancellation of the competition arose, F. Ritter Shumway, First Vice President and acting President of the USFSA, wired Dr. Koch, the President of the ISU, requesting that the championships "carry on." Shumway had been acting President only three weeks, following the sudden death of Howard D. Herbert. He explained, "We appreciated the tribute to our skaters, but we thought the competition should continue as the skaters, I know, would want it that way."

The Czechs requested that the competition be held. They stated that all preparations had been made at great cost and that most of the other teams had already arrived. They also recalled that the World Ice Hockey Championships had been held in London in 1947 following another crash that had killed fifteen members of the Czech team.

In Davos, Switzerland, the Council of the ISU voted by cable on a Swiss proposal to call off the championships. George Häsler, Honorary Secretary of the ISU, announced on February 16, that the Council had voted to cancel the World Championships "as a sign of mourning over the deaths of our United States comrades."

"I know I speak for all members of the USFSA when I say we are deeply moved by this expression of sympathy," Shumway replied. "The sincere feeling of fellowship evidenced by such a sacrifice eases the burden that all of us in the United States feel and indicates the high personal regard in which our skaters were held throughout the world."

There was an implied guarantee that the championship would be held in Prague the following year (which it was and in which Maria and Otto Jelinek of Canada were crowned World Pair Champions). One by one the skaters left Prague. The 1961 season was over. There would be no champions.

It had been an important year for figure skating in the United States, a year of building and growth following the 1960

Other Professionals and Officials

The foremost American and international skating personality lost in the crash was Maribel Vinson Owen, mother and coach of Laurence and Maribel Y., who also died. Her amazing record as a competitor had brought her the United States Ladies Championship nine times and the United States Pair Championship six times, in addition to both the North American singles and pairs titles. She was a member of three Olympic Teams, winning the Bronze medal in 1932 and was the World Silver Medalist in 1928 behind Sonja Henie. She had also been the United States Junior Ladies and Pair Champion.

Her father had been a prominent skater and her husband, Guy Owen, had been a Canadian Champion. In 1937, she turned professional and toured in an ice show entitled "Gay Blades" with two-time Olympic and seven-time World Champion Karl Shäfer. She coached numerous United States, Olympic, and World champions and medalists, including Gretchen Merrill, Tenley Albright, Nancy Rouillard and Rod Ludington, as well as her own daughters, who were on the threshold of equaling and/or exceeding their mother's achievements. Mrs. Owen had served on numerous USFSA committees, authored three books on figure skating, and as a journalist was the first woman in The New York Times sports department. She devoted her life to the highest ideals of the sport and was posthumously elected to the World Figure Skating Hall of Fame.

Other professionals and officials included Walter S. Powell, World Championship Referee, St. Louis FSC, member of the ISU Council and former President of the USFSA.

Harold Hartshorne, World Dance Judge, SC of New York, a former United States Dance Champion five times, member of the USFSA Executive Committee and ISU Ice Dancing Technical Committee. He had been a driving force in the development of ice dancing at all levels in the United States. His

The USFSA Memorial Fund Grants and Allocations

by Frederick C. LeFevre

The U.S. Figure Skating Association established the Memorial Fund in memory of the 1961 World Team, as well as officials, coaches, and friends, who perished in an airplane crash while en route to the 1961 World Figure Skating Championships in Prague, Czechoslovakia.

The Memorial Fund was created as a living memorial that could be used to provide financial support to aspiring competitive skaters to enable them to train and improve in figure skating. Although the U.S. Olympic Committee provides some of the expenses for uniforms and travel to and from the Winter Games as well as team training facilities for some sports and development funds for others, including figure skating, the Committee, as a matter of policy, does not provide for personal training expenses of athletes. In figure skating the expenses include: skating equipment, ice time rental, professional fees, competition expenses, and training away from home.

Needless to say, they are often staggering and exact a heavy toll on the bank accounts of skaters. Few can cope with this burden alone. They need help.

The purpose of the Memorial Fund, therefore, is to provide this help for deserving skaters through the unrestricted (grants/loans) and restricted gift programs. Donations to each of these programs are deductible according to the Section 501 (c) (3) tax status assigned to the USFSA by the Internal Revenue Service. These two programs are the principle reasons for the existence of the Memorial Fund.

Unrestricted gifts to the Fund (without designation as to how they are to be used) provide money for the Competitive Skaters Education Program (CSEP) and the Academic Scholarship Program (ASP).

Restricted contributions are those gifts to the Memorial Fund given in the name of donor-designated skating clubs and are disbursed to club members as instructed by the Officers or Board of Directors of the Club.

When making a gift to the Memorial Fund, the donor must always indicate whether the gift is a restricted or unrestricted contribution.

The Memorial Fund Committee follows certain procedures in receiving and awarding funds under the unrestricted and restricted programs. The reasons for these procedures are two-fold: one, to ensure the amateur status of our competitors, and, two, to ensure that gifts to the Fund will continue to be tax deductible to the donor. The procedures must be adhered to and monitored by the skaters' Home Clubs as the agents for the Memorial Fund.

The restricted gift program is a very important part of the allocation scheme. It is important to emphasize again the beneficiary must be selected by a third party, namely the Officers or Board of Directors of the skating club designated by the donor.

At the time of the USFSA Annual Meeting in May, the Memorial Fund Committee sets the budget for the grants/loans and academic scholarship awards for the following year. They also set guidelines for the maximum award that can be made to any one skater selected by the Grants and Allocations Subcommittee in accordance with the level of competition that the skater has attained,

The USFSA Memorial Fund was established in March 1961, to provide assistance to future generations of skaters instead of building a monument to memorialize our 1961 World Figure Skating Team, officials, coaches, families, and friends who died in February of that year in the airplane accident near Brussels, Belgium, while en route to the 1961 World Figure Skating Championships.

To carry out the purpose of assistance to the successors of the skaters whom we lost, the Memorial Fund offers two programs for promising and needy skaters: (1) the Competitive Skaters Education Program which provides grants and low interest loans and (2) the Academic Scholarship Program which is designed to assist skaters who demonstrate an interest in pursuing their education while maintaining a strong interest in skating.

Since 1986 marks the 25th Anniversary of the tragic plane crash and the establishment of the Memorial Fund in memory of the skaters whom we lost, you are asked and urged to join in the commemoration of these events by giving a gift to the Memorial Fund's Programs. Your contribution will enable us to continue assistance to the many promising and needy skaters who look to the Memorial Fund for help in meeting their expenses of continuing their skating.

Please respond affirmatively by using the attached envelope to make a contribution (tax deductible) to the USFSA Memorial Fund.

Skaters must apply for the Competitive Skaters Education Program (CSEP) grants/loans and for the Academic Scholarship Program (ASP) awards using forms that are sent by the Memorial Fund Headquarters around February 1 to all USFSA Clubs and to all skaters who applied the preceding year. Applicants must return the filled out ASP forms by May 1 and the CSEP forms by June 1 to the Memorial Fund Headquarters where they are given a preliminary review for completeness and sorted into one of the three USFSA Sections in which the Home Club of the applicant is located. They are then forwarded to the appropriate Sectional representative on the Grants and Allocations Subcommittee.

Each of the three representatives of the Grants and Allocations Subcommittee, who are listed in the USFSA Rulebook under USFSA Memorial Fund, carefully evaluates each application from his/her Section using an objective formula. A numerical value on a scale of 1-5 is assigned for each of four categories: financial need, competitive potential, sound character, and demonstrated motivation. The total points are then added and each Sectional representative makes appropriate recommendations based on the totals. Those skaters with the highest score will likely receive the higher grant/loan or academic award in their category while applicants with low scores may not qualify.

By August 1 the three Sectional representatives send their applications to the Chairman of the Grants and Allocations Subcommittee who reviews them and makes the final determination of the amount of grants/loans and academic awards to be awarded based on the representative recommendations, the number of applicants, and the resources available in the budget. We try to award the entire budget each year.

The previous World Team members, their Home Clubs, and Memorial Fund Headquarters are notified in July of the grants/ loans to be made available to them. Similarly, academic awards are also made in July. Awards to all other applicants are made in mid-September.

In order to take advantage of the grant/loan, the skater must submit to his or her Home Club bills for skating-oriented expenses. The Club forwards those that are in order to Memorial Fund Headquarters for final approval. The Memorial Fund then sends a check to the Club for the total amount of the bills and the Club pays the bills directly to the creditors involved.

A skater who has been awarded a scholarship must inform the Memorial Fund Headquarters of the College or University in which he or she is enrolled. Memorial Fund Headquarters will then issue a check on behalf of the Memorial Fund directly to the College or University provided, of course, that the amount of the scholarship awarded does not exceed the amount of the tuition.

When a CSEP or ASP award is made, a credit account is established in the name of the skater at Memorial Fund Headquarters. The Memorial Fund deducts the check amount from the account of the skater as it is issued.

All loans are low interest loans and are an optional privilege. They are signed for by the skater under the loan portion of the CSEP. The loans do not begin to accumulate interest until the provisions of the loan agreement have been met (see copy of loan agreement which follows). Grant balances are always allocated before loan balances.

On July 1 of each year, any balances left over in a grant account, a loan account, or an academic account of a skater are returned to the General Fund of the Memorial Fund.

The Memorial Fund, as custodians of money given to the Fund, gratefully accepts monetary gifts for the benefit of amateur figure skaters.

MEMORIAL FUND LOAN AGREEMENT

This Agreement, dated this 17th day of September, is by and between John W. Doe and the UNITED STATES FIGURE SKATING ASSOCIATION, (USFSA), a Colorado nonprofit corporation.

As each snowflake that falls on Minnesota is different in design so are the many competitions that encompass a young skater's career. The Upper Great Lakes Regional Championships held November 12-16 at the St. Louis Park Ice Arena is no exception. The Burnsville-Minnesota Valley Figure Skating Club and the Lake Minnetonka Figure Skating Club cosponsored the numerous volunteer work hours required for the many facets of this competition. Co-chairmen, Jeanne Wind and Don Pilarski, guided this continuum to its successful completion. Special applause goes to Mrs. John A. Leiter who was chief referee and to all the other congenial judges and officials.

Media support was present. A Minneapolis T.V. station featured the competition and there was an interview with an aspiring young skater, Beth Sonderup, Lake Minnetonka FSC, in their evening broadcoast. The viewing audience was invited as spectator seating, 2,000 to be exact, was generous.

The energy level and excitement of 270 skaters carried a momentous hum throughout the arena. Talent surfaced showing athletic ability as many Pre-Juvenile and Juvenile boys and girls exemplified the future growth of fine skating.

First place in Intermediate Ladies was awarded to Caroline Sook Young Lee, DuPage FSC. Her lovely orange-sequined dress and good body extension made a noticeable impression on the audience. Seven Lueder-Powers, Janesville FSC, came in second; Tei Lea Kano, FSC of Minneapolis, came in third and Danielle Olthoff, FSC of Minneapolis, fourth place.

Novice Ladies winners were lead by Alice Sue Claeys, Janesville FSC, who was fourth in figures and first in freestyle. Tara Hillstrand, Chicago FSC, a strong skater

In the Novice Men's event, Gig Siruno, Lake Minnetonka FSC, won the Gold. His sophisticated style and high clear jumps as seen in his double Axel kept him on top. Damon Allen, FSC of Rockford, received the Silver. With his high jumps and grace he seemed one with the ice. Grant J. Rorvick, St. Paul FSC, a smooth skater with high jumps won the Bronze and entertaining Tommy Jasper, Skokie Valley SC, took fourth place.

The Junior Ladies provided enjoyment for all! Kathryn Curielli, Burnsville-Minnesota Valley FSC, won the Gold. She is a "natural" as she does a triple Salchow followed by a triple toe-loop combo all compounded with great speed. From the same club comes Lisa Cornelius, the Silver medalist, who started with a camel jump and proceeded to a double Axel as well as a double flip, double toe combination. Shenon E. Badre, Janesville FSC, earned the Bronze. Katie Wood, Skokie Valley SC, was awarded fourth place.

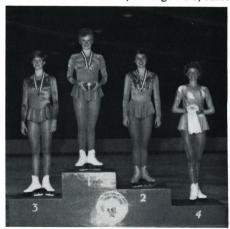

Jon De Paz, Chicago FSC, was awarded the Gold medal for Junior Men. His high jumps and his soaring Russian split jumps were crowd pleasers. The Silver medal went to Bryan Rabin, Skokie Valley SC, who opened early with a triple Salchow. The First place in Senior Ladies went to Jana Marie Sjodin, St. Paul FSC, who has a natural appearance on the ice. Jana's figures are impeccably clean. She is a very enjoyable sight for spectators while doing her program which includes double Axels and graceful spins. Following closely in second place is Kelly Ann Szmurlo, Greater Milwaukee FSC, who did a lovely triple toe loop and a triple Salchow. Debbie Tucker, Chicago FSC, came Winfrid Mayer, Skokie Valley SC, was first in Senior Men. He has a strong and athletic style and is in total command while skating to his dynamic music. The second-place winner was Larry Holliday, Chicago FSC.

Junior Pairs have an extra challenge of finding a rink, partner, and coach. Persistence paid off for Julianne S. Thompson, Broadmoor SC, and Brian Geddeis, FSC of Rockford, as they won the Gold, Jocelyn Cox

Again the Coxes deserve special credit as they came in first place in the Novice Dance standings. Patti Torkelson and Troy Knowlton, both of Border Blades FSC, received second place. Followed by Felecia Brandies and Christopher Currie, Skokie Valley FSC, in third place.

The final results for Intermediate Dance show Stephanie Giannetti, Wagon Wheel FSC, and Robert Peal, Skokie Valley SC, in position for the Gold. Sarah Falconer and Jonathan Stine, both FSC of Rockford, received the Silver. Robin Tanko, Glenwood FSC, and Richard Peal, Skokie Valley SC, received the Bronze. Yvonne Olson and Stephen Olson, both of FSC of Minneapolis, finished fourth.

A celebration was in order! The end of this week-long competition culminated with a competitor's party. Skaters, judges, referees, and parents celebrated by dancing to a "sound and light" show. Hats off to all the skaters and especially to those who have been chosen to carry on a fine tradition to the second level of advancement in the United States National Championships.

Clear fall weather welcomed competitors to Fresno for the 1986 Central Pacific Championships. Senior Ladies skated their figures on a bright Thursday morning. Holly Cook, Utah FSC, established an early lead, winning the figures. Susan Faith and Tracy Kobylanski, both from the Peninsula FSC, followed in second and third places. The short program was a stumbling block for all the girls. Holly, missing only the triple toe loop she attempted in her combination won convincingly with an otherwise well-executed and energetic performance. There was no change in the overall standings. Going into the long, Holly appeared to be a secure first. but second and third were up for grabs. Tracy's powerful style secured her third-place finish while Susan's balletic program brought her the Silver. Holly won the day with an athletic display of powerful jumps, including the triple toe in combination that had eluded her the night before, and well-executed spins.

The Junior Ladies' division was the most hotly contested event of the week. Sara Mulholland, St Moritz ISC, won the figures. Valerie Hearon, Peninsula FSC, was second and Kristi Yamaguchi, St. Moritz ISC, was third. The short program was a treat, all competitors skating well. Sara's program was flawless and maintained her first place. Valerie, a very exciting skater, also turned in a perfect program. Kristi Yamaguchi won the short with an especially fine performance. She used the more difficult triple toe-loop in her combination and executed a beautiful flying sit spin. Another perfect performance, it was not enough to move her out of third place. Sara, Valerie, and Kristi came into the long in the same order they had come into the short. First place Sara Mulholland missed her opening jump, a double Axel. She was apprehensive through the rest of the program and paid a very high price, falling to fifth place overall. Kristi Yamaguchi was unbelievable! The audience was spellbound as this tiny fourteen year old ripped off one triple jump after another. Her program included a triple Salchow, triple toe loop, triple flip and triple loop as well as a triple Salchowdouble toe loop and double flip-triple toe loop in combination. She moved into first place, with Paula Losinger, St. Moritz ISC, capturing third.

The Junior Men also held a high quality affair. Jason Little's short program moved him to third overall after a shaky figure placement. An innovative long program maintained his Bronze. Craig Heath placed second in figures and short. His long program was accented with beautiful spins and controlled jumps, including a triple Salchow and triple toe loop, and put him in second place overall. Rudy Galindo followed his first place in figures with terrific free skating. His spins are lovely, his jumps controlled and his program artistically well balanced. He took the Gold. All Junior Men represented St. Moritz ISC.

Kristi Yamaguchi and Rudy Galindo, St. Moritz ISC, won the Junior Pairs. This team has a lot of polish and handles even the most difficult moves with seeming ease.

Junior Dance division. They projected a great deal of personality and were great fun to watch.

Novice Ladies found Kate Hollister, overheard referred to as "the human scribe" establishing a lead in the figures and confirming it with a nicely skated free program. Cherie Callander secured second place and Elizabeth Koepf was third. Miss Callander and Miss Koepf represent the Peninsula FSC and Miss Hollister is from the St. Moritz ISC.

Novice Cameron Birkey's, St. Moritz ISC, athletic style and fine, high jumps captured the Gold in Novice Men. Steven Smith's, Peninsula FSC, personality-packed program brought him second place and Nicholas Castaneda, St. Moritz ISC, was third.

In Intermediate Ladies, a good balance between figures and freestyle paid off for champion Susan Kirby, St. Moritz ISC. Robin White, Peninsula FSC, followed her third place in figures with picture perfect jumps for second place. Melissa Murphy, St. Moritz ISC, was third.

Intermediate Dance found Francine Clark and Richard Dupaix from the Utah FSC taking the Gold.

Shanel Myeshiro, Palomares FSC, won a very promising division of Juvenile Girls. Jennifer Verili, Palomares FSC, moved into second with a program any Novice Lady would have been proud of and Heather Barnes, St. Moritz ISC, was third.

JUNIOR DANCE Jeanne Miley & Christopher Macri, Gold; Wendy Mirsky & Peter Mirsky, Silver; Lucia Reed & Richard Carinci, Bronze

The most elegant event of this particular competition was the Junior Dance. Jeanne Miley of the SC of Wilmington and Christopher Macri of Westminster FSC led all the way from the first compulsory Viennese Waltz, through the lively Polka OSP and into the final Free Dance. Their Free Dance was set to a variety of folk dances and done in a graceful, athletic style with many, many quick and intricate steps. Wendy and Peter Mirsky of Essex SC of New Jersey placed second, while Lucia Reed of All Year FSC and Richard Carinci of the SC of New York finished third.

Congratulations to all those who worked on the 1986 North Atlantics. The competition was well run and very well planned. Good luck in Foxboro, Massachusetts at Easterns.

The results for the North Atlantic Championships were published in the December 1985 issue, page 37.

A Tragedy Remembered

Edi Scholdan, a professional at the Broadmoor Skating Club

Edward LeMaire, National Judge, The SC of New York, former United States Junior Men's and Junior Pair Champion. He was accompanied by his son, Richard.

Edi Scholdan was one of the country's best known professionals, having coached such champions as Hayes Alan Jenkins, David Jenkins, James Grogan, Ronald Robertson, Tim Brown, Ina Bauer, and others. Originally from Austria and an international competitor, he also taught in Europe, was an exhibition skater and is credited with establishing The Broadmoor as a major training center in the United States for figure skaters. He was accompanied by his son, James.

William Kipp, coach from Paramount, California, former United States dance, pairs, and single competitor, coach of Peggy Fleming, known for his own individualistic style of skating and the development of style in his students.

Daniel C. Ryan, professional WC of Indianapolis, former North American and United States Dance Champion and twice World Dance Bronze Medalist.

C. William Swallender, professional Detroit, Michigan, former Midwestern Senior and United States Junior Men's Champion.

Following the crash, Gustave Lussi, coach of Dick Button and other champions, stated that he believed sports teams should never travel as a group. "I only hope that in the future, any team be broken into small groups." This policy was adopted and is in practice today by the USFSA.

Survivors By Chance

In addition to Maria and Otto Jelinek, mere incidents of fate spared the lives of some American skaters from being aboard Flight 548.

Four of the National Junior titlists had purchased tickets to go with the World Team to Prague, but at their parents' insistance returned to school instead of making the trip. Monty Hoyt, 1961 Junior Champion, (later the 1962 Senior Men's Champion); Lorraine Hanlon, the Junior Ladies Champion; and Ronald and Vivian Joseph, Junior Pair Champions, decided not to go.

Barbara Ann Roles had placed second in the United States and third in the Worlds the previous year. She had been expected to be the new United States Ladies Champion, following the retirement of Carol Heiss, but withdrew from competition and married Ronnie Pursley. She returned to competition in 1962 to win the National title.

Jimmy Short, a potential Men's medalist, did not compete in 1961 because he had been notified he was to be inducted into military service. However, when the United States and North American Championships were over and the team headed for Prague, he was still waiting to be called.

Tim Brown, twice World Silver Medalist, was perhaps the most disappointed at missing the trip. He had been the National Men's Bronze medalist in 1961 and was named to the World Team. However, a heart condition was discovered which forced him to withdraw and to relinquish his spot to alternate Doug Ramsay, who died.

Marilyn Meeker had been the dance partner of Larry Pierce when she suffered a fractured ankle. Pierce, with a new partner, won the National title and was on the flight to Prague. Marilyn remained home.

When Rhode Lee Michelson suffered an injury in practice at the North Americans, Ladies' alternate Karen Howland was ready to join the team. However, Michelson recovered and Howland did not make the team.

Whatever forces of destiny were at work the lives of these skaters were saved by not traveling with the team, as well as other family members and officials who had planned to join the team the following week.

A Continuing Memorial

Following the Brussels tragedy, unsolicited memorial contributions began to arrive to aid the USFSA in its training program to recover from the incalculable setback. In Boston, home of the Owen family (Maribel V., Maribel Y., and Laurence) and other skaters, (Bradley Lord and Dudley Richards) The SC Club of Boston cancelled its annual "Ice Chips" show and planned a special benefit show instead, which was held at the Boston Garden on March 28 and 29. Past and future champions joined the club members in performances which featured Dick Button, David Jenkins, Donald Jackson, Barbara Wagner and Robert Paul (from Canada), Tina Noyes, Lorraine Hanlon, Peter Meyer, Wendy Griner; Guy Revell and Debi Wilkes (also from Canada), and others.

Proceeds from the exhibition plus previous contributions totaled approximately $50,000. With these funds, an independent Massachusetts Trust was established under the name of the "1961 U.S. Figure Skating Team Memorial Fund," which was granted tax exempt status. Such a free standing trust was necessary because in 1961 and for fifteen years thereafter, contributions to sports governing bodies were denied tax exempt status by the Internal Revenue Service.

The underlying thought in establishing the Memorial Fund was that it was much more in keeping with and befitting the character and spirit of the members of the ill-fated team to create a living and continuing memorial that would be of assistance to future aspiring skaters rather than to erect monuments in marble to perpetuate their memory. With limited income from the principal, initial programs were geared at skating clinics and producing training films.

In 1971, F. Ritter Shumway, upon his retirement from business was appointed Chairman of the Fund, a position he has held ever since. Under his direction, the Fund has raised money annually to go directly to the assistance of promising and financially needy skaters at the National and International levels. The name was changed simply to "USFSA Memorial Fund" and when tax exempt status was given to all sports governing bodies that prepared and sent athletes to the Olympic Games, the Fund merged with the USFSA.

General sources of revenue for the Fund come from individual and corporate donations, income from investments and endowments, fees from shows and exhibitions, clubs obtaining Honor Roll status, contributions in memory of relatives and friends or for special occasions, and the sale of Memorial Fund tokens (buttons), decals, and patches. Each year a new button is designed and issued as a fund raiser, and this year a special commemorative sterling silver, limited edition twenty-fifth anniversary pin will be issued for collectors.

The Memorial Fund has four basic programs: grants, loans, restricted contributions and academic scholarships. Allocations are made by the Grants and Allocations Sub-Committee, and amounts are determined by financial need, competitive history and advancement, and other factors. In the past, World Team members have received the annual maximum amount, with other Senior and Junior competitors receiving lesser amounts based on the above criteria.

The underlying thought in establishing the Memorial Fund was that it was much more in keeping with and befitting the character and spirit of the members of the ill-fated team to create a living and continuing memorial that would be of assistance to future aspiring skaters rather that to erect monuments in marble to their memory.

Incurred expenses which are eligible for Memorial Fund assistance include ice time, professional fees, skating equipment, program music, off-ice training, memberships, competition expenses and some lodging, transportation and meals while training away from home.

Restricted contributions, mentioned earlier, are those which are made to individual clubs and their skaters. However, the recipient cannot be named by the donor and must be selected by a third party, usually the Board of Directors of the club. A new category of restricted contributions has been added for Precision Teams, as long as the contribution is for the entire team and not to benefit any one individual member.

The Academic Scholarship Program assists skaters in continuing their education and is paid to and administered directly by the colleges or universities involved. Repayment of normal loans is at a low six-percent interest with payment beginning one year after gainful employment begins.

In the 1985-86 budget, an estimated $305,000 is needed for grants and loans to support U.S. skaters in those two areas alone. Unlike other countries where skaters are subsidized largely if not entirely by their governments, American competitors are supported by the generosity of those individuals and businesses dedicated to the advancement and perpetuation of World caliber athletes. The success of the USFSA Memorial Fund in its commitment to maintain a level of excellence in the world of figure skating is a demonstration of the free enterprise system at its best.

Whether it be a direct contribution, a memorial or special occasion gift, or bequests under wills—of any amount—each dollar acts as a continuing memorial to the 1961 World Team Members and enables today's skaters to fulfill the promise of those brilliant careers cut short by the fateful crash.

The Amazing Recovery

Throughout the country in 1961, the outlook for the future of American figure skating looked bleak. Denver professional, Wally Sahlin stated, "We have lost the top skaters and some of the top professionals in the country and it will take many years to replace them. We may never regain some of the knowledge."

Olympic Pair Champion and coach Pierre Brunet, described the loss in saying that "skating has received an incalculable setback." While World and Olympic Champion Carol Heiss stated, "It's a great tragedy... I guess this will just about do it for our figure skating for some time."

For a decade, the United States had dominated the sport at the International, World, and Olympic levels with such names as Dick Button, James Grogan, brothers David and Hayes Alan Jenkins, Ronald Robertson, Tim Brown, Tenley Albright, Yvonne Sherman, Sonya Klopfer, Virginia Baxter, and Barbara Roles.

It was, therefore, an amazing display of this country's dedication to the sport, and proof of the depth and strength of its training program, when in just three years Scott Allen made a spectacular showing to win the Bronze medal at the 1964 Innsbruck Olympic Winter Games and a Silver medal in the World Championships the following year. By 1966, Gary Visconti was a World Bronze Medalist, and Peggy Fleming won the first of three consecutive World Ladies titles leading to her triumph at the 1968 Grenoble Olympic Winter Games, in which Tim Wood also captured the Men's Silver medal. The United States had overcome the worst tragedy imaginable and had regained its pre-eminent position in the world of figure skating which it would not again relinquish.

NOW JUMP TENDER™ Has Rink Units For On-Ice Practice

JUMP TENDER, that self-tending safety suspension unit which takes the falls out of practice, is now available in rink units for on-ice practice. The unique training aid, first developed for floor practice at home and in rinks, travels along an overhead mounted tracking carriage generally located across the end of a rink so as not to interfere with other skaters on the ice. A simple-to-use support line attaches to a comfortable parachute type harness worn by the skater. The skater has the freedom to move the length of the tract to practice but is stopped in a fall at knee height above the ice by means of a spring-loaded pulley system. Without fear of falling, skaters more quickly acquire the FORM and FEEL of double and triple jumps. Unlike the customary harness, JUMP TENDER is self-tending. Pros find it an invaluable instructional tool. Skaters call it an amazing training aid.

> > Home practice units also available.

SEE SOME OF THE WORLD'S GREATEST SKATERS AND HELP MEETING STREET SCHOOL WITH ITS COMPULSORY FIGURES.

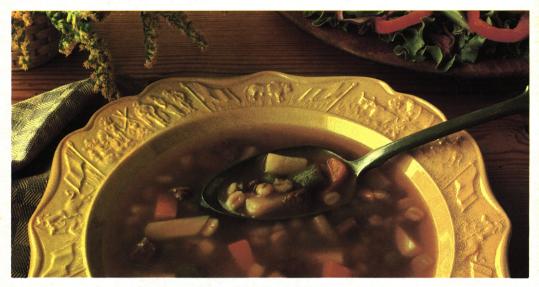

The rewards for aiding multi-handicapped kids are great. But it isn't cheap. This year it will cost Meeting Street School $4,000,000 to continue its vital work.

You can help raise $36,880 of what it takes to keep things going by attending the Meeting Street School 1986 Figure Skating Open Competition and Exhibition. You'll see top amateurs competing in the U.S. Figure Skating Association sanctioned events. And watch Eastern. National and World champions like Elaine Zayak and Toller Cranston put on a dazzling exhibition of their skating skills.

The cost is $8.50 and $6.00 per ticket for adults. And $3.50 for children. That's not much when you figure all that it's going to do to help the youngsters at Meeting Street School. Plus it's tax deductible. Plan to be there.

Schneider Arena, Providence College, Providence, R.I., Saturday, April 5, 1986, 8:00 pm and Sunday, April 6,4:00 pm.

NATURAL RESOURCES

When you sit down to enjoy a bowl of Campbell's® Vegetable Beef Soup, you get much more than delicious taste. You see, we've been very resourceful about nutrition, too.

Many of Campbell's Soups are a great way to get some of the important natural resources you've been hearing about today. Like vitamin A or fiber.

In fact, more and more is being learned every day about the important role vitamin A plays in helping to build up your body's resistance, as well as its role in maintaining healthy skin and good vision. Campbell's Vegetable Beef Soup has an abundance of vegetables that are a good source of vitamin A. Just one serving will give you 40% of your daily need for vitamin A.

Campbell's Split Pea with Ham and Bacon, Green Pea and Low Sodium Split Pea Soups are all a good source of dietary fiber, which so many people are giving high priority.

It's always been true that a balanced diet including such things as a bowl of warm, delicious Campbell's Soup and fresh salad does a body good.

Now you know why.

CAMPBELL'S SOUP IS GOOD FOOD

Fiber in a suggested serving: Split Pea with Ham and Bacon—6g; Green Pea—5g; Low Sodium Split Pea—7g. Campbell's has a full line of low sodium soups for those people who are on a salt-restricted diet or have a concern about sodium.
