GRANTS FOR GIRLS

Three figure skaters were among the 39 athletes and three teams named as recipients of grants from the Sudafed Travel and Training Fund administered by the Women's Sports Foundation. The grant recipients represent 22 sports. In addition to receiving cash grants, recipients also receive a Sudafed sports bag and lapel pin.

Bethany Quintin, a resident of Cohasset, Mass. and member of the Boston SC, was the 1991 U.S. Novice ladies' figures champion, the 1992 New England Junior ladies' figures champion, and the 1993 New England Junior ladies' champion. This 17-year-old's goal is to represent the U.S. in international competitions.

Michelle Lee Briggs, a resident of Las Vegas, Nev. and member of the Las Vegas FSC, was the bronze medalist in the 1993 U.S. Novice ladies' figures championship. She was also the 1993 Southwest Pacific Novice Ladies' figures silver medalist and the Pacific Coast Novice ladies' figures champion. Briggs is 17 years old.

Syreeta Baker, a resident of Sicklerville, N.J. and member of the Colonial SC of New Jersey, is a 10-year-old skater who placed first in the Preliminary Girls Group B event at the 1993 South Atlantic Regional Championships.

The Sudafed Travel and Training Fund was established in 1984 to provide direct financial assistance to aspiring athletes with successful competitive records who have the potential to achieve even higher performance levels and rankings. A maximum of $1,500 per individual and $3,000 per team can be awarded per year. Grants are awarded three times a year. Information about applying for a grant can be obtained by calling the Women's Sports Foundation at 1-800-227-3988.

Figure Skating Team was killed in an airplane crash en route to the World Championships at Prague, Czechoslovakia. The Memorial Fund was established by the USFSA as a living memorial to its fall-en 1961 World Team. This fund provides monetary awards to skaters and assists over 600 skaters with awards for skating expenses and academic scholarships reaching close to a half a million dollars annually.

Each year during the excitement of the U.S. Championships, a few quiet moments are dedicated to the remembrance of the team that was lost on that fateful day in February. At the U.S.

PRECISION SKATERS TO COLLECT FOR THE MEMORIAL FUND IN DETROIT

On February 15, 1961—33 years ago next month—the entire U.S. World Championships, the Memorial Fund, speaks through its former recipients, now world-famous skaters, asking members of the audience for donations to help younger skaters realize their dreams.

Additionally, this year in Detroit, hundreds of young skaters from local precision teams and skating clubs will help collect the $2.00 or greater donation for the 1994 Memorial Fund button by circulating through the audience. Their colorful competitive outfits will be hard to miss and their youthful enthusiasm hard to refuse. Throughout the year, donations can also be made directly to: The USFSA Memorial Fund, 20 First Street, Colorado Springs, CO 80906.

TEEN DESERT QUEEN

Kathiryn-Marie Schreyer, an associate member of the Arizona FSC and a member of the Sun Valley FSC, is the newly crowned Miss Teen Arizona. Schreyer won out of a field that began with 125 girls, was narrowed to 25, and then to 5. The competition placed emphasis on the contestants' community involvement, scholastic record, and extra curricular activities. The pageant consisted of an evening gown section as well as an onstage interview.

Schreyer has passed both the Sixth Figure and Junior Free Skating Tests and recently placed fourth in Junior ladies' free skating at the 1994 Northwest Pacific Regional Championships. In addition to her dedication to skating, Schreyer has demonstrated a dedication to her community by serving as a Junior Volunteer at St. Luke's Hospital and Medical Center during her summer vacations from school. She is in her senior year at the Xavier College Preparatory School and participates in its track and field program. She placed third in the women's heptathlon event in the state championships. Schreyer plans to put the scholarship she won as Miss Teen Arizona to good use by enrolling in the pre-med program at Gonzaga University in Spokane, Wash. next fall. In fulfilling the duties of Miss Teen Arizona, she has appeared on the Jerry Lewis Telethon on Labor Day and has spoken to school children at several schools about coping with peer pressure.

Schreyer will compete in the Miss Teen America pageant next summer in Rock Island, Ill. and plans to present figure skating as her talent.

THE SPIRIT OF CHRISTMAS JUST PAST

Symphony on Ice, a holiday benefit for Toys for Tots, is a 14-year tradition in Hartford, Conn. The music, sights, and sounds of the holiday season are brought to life in a two-hour concert featuring more than 200 performers—members of the SC of Hartford, the Haydenettes Precision Team, and the U.S. Coast Guard Band.

Admission to the Symphony on Ice is a free ticket and one, new unwrapped toy per person. All toys collected from the audience are given to less fortunate children by Toy for Tots. Since its first performance in 1979, more than 137,000 toys have been collected and distributed to needy children. The event was created and sponsored by United Technologies Corporation.

THERE'S STILL TIME

If you had hoped to find a beautiful Seiko limited edition Olympic watch in your Christmas stocking and it just didn't happen, the good news is there is still time to order one.

Seiko designed two very special watches in honor of the 1994 U.S. Olympic Team. The ladies' watch features a figure skater on the face and the men's watch features an alpine skier. They are now being offered at a price of $199.00 each while supplies last. Taxes, shipping and handling are additional. To order call: 1-800-354-2368 (in the U.S.). Please allow 4-6 weeks for delivery.

NIGHT WATCH

Moore, Sharon Martens, Mary Schnese, and Marlene Phillips spent a crisp December night outdoors waiting for the Mark "Pa" Sertich Ice Center of Colorado Springs to open so that they would be the first to sign up for January ice time. Their vigil began at 9:00 p.m. and ended at 5:30 a.m. the next morning. They were joined by other skating die-hards throughout the night.

Fortunately, the unpredictable Colorado weather smiled favorably upon them—the thermometer never dipped below 46 degrees. ■

PRO NEWS

French ice dancing coach Frederic Palluel recently joined the coaching staff at the Sun Blades Ice Arena in Clearwater, Fla. Palluel skated competitively for fourteen years with dance partner Dominique Yvon and competed in the 1992 Olympic Winter Games in Albertville, France. At Sun Blades, he teaches both private and group lessons on a full-time basis.

MARRIAGES

Karen Cousineau, USFSA Gold Figure Judge, Silver Dance Judge, and Central Pacific Vice Chairman for Dance was married to Michael Falasco on Oct. 10 in Sacramento, Calif.

FAMILY ADDITIONS

Hayes Alan Jenkins and Carol Heiss Jenkins welcomed a new granddaughter, Megan Elizabeth, to their family last May. Megan is the daughter of their son Dr. Mark A. Jenkins and his wife Shelly.

Rory Flack Burghart and Ralph Burghart are proud new parents of a son, Rendel Christian, born September 28 in Indianapolis, Ind.

Former U.S. Men's Champion John Misha Petkevich and wife Lis were pleased to announce the birth of their daughter, Kathryn Anne, on October 21.

DECEASED

Barry Hagan, former U.S. national and international competitor, died in a hospice in Long Beach, Calif. on September 26 at the age of 36. Hagan and dance partner Kim Krohn Basle were bronze medalists in Championship dance at the 1981 U.S. Championships under the instruction of Darlene Gilbert. Hagan had also passed the gold figure and free skating tests. After turning professional in 1982, Hagan skated in the Pro Skate Tour and later with the Torvill and Dean Ice Show. He graduated Phi Beta Kappa from the University of Long Beach with a major in Anthropology.

Margaret S. Johnson, succumbed to a rare form of cancer on October 27 in Sun City, Ariz. Johnson was test chairman for the Chicago FSC, Glenwood FSC, and Oak Park FSC for many years as well as a member of the Skokie Valley SC. She is survived by two daughters, two grandchildren, and her mother.

Roger F. Turner, former U.S. men's champion, died on October 28 at the age of 92. As a boy, Turner began skating on the ponds near his home in Milton, Mass., a humble prelude to his many accomplishments in the sport. In addition to his U.S. Junior men's title in 1926 and Junior pair title in 1934, Turner was 7-times U.S. men's champion (from 1928-34), 2-times World silver medalist

HALL OF FAME

JEANNETTE ALTWEGG
GREAT BRITAIN

One of the finest female figure skaters of the immediate post-World War II era, surprisingly came from Great Britain, a country heavily devastated by the war. But Jeannette Eleanor Altwegg was also to become as much a humanitarian as she was an athlete.

Born in India on September 8, 1930, she was the daughter of a Swiss financier, who became a naturalized British citizen, and an English mother. Before the outbreak of World War II, the family returned to Great Britain and took up residence in Liverpool. It was there that Jeannette began skating at the age of 6, and passed her gold test when she was 11. She studied first with Armand Perren and then with the renowned Jacques Gerschwiler, while also excelling in tennis.

Throughout the war and the Battle of Britain, the dark-haired child found solace and escape in sports, especially in the disciplined precision of skating. It was the deep impressions of the horrors of the war, and fluency in both French and German she developed, that would later influence her career.

After the end of the European war on June 8, 1945, and despite continued food and fuel rationing and a shattered economy, the first post-war British Junior Championships were organized by the National Skating Association of Great Britain (NSA) the following May at Wembley Stadium. Jeannette won the Junior ladies' division, and seven months later also placed third in the (1947) Senior event. The next summer she was runner-up for the Junior Amateur Tennis Championships at Wimbledon.

Turning her full energies to skating, in 1948, she won the first of four British ladies' championships and also placed fourth at her first European Championship and fifth at the ensuing Worlds.

While also retaining the British title, she moved up each year at World and Europeans and was third at both in 1949, second at both in 1950, and was European and World Ladies' Champion in 1951.

In 1952, she defended her European title, wearing a black arm band mourning the death of King George VI. Then in Oslo, Jeannette finished her career by winning the Olympic gold medal on February 20 in a close contest over Tenley Albright of the U.S. It was Altwegg's superiority and commanding lead in the precision of compulsory figures (then worth 60% of the total score) that assured her win despite a relatively weak free skating performance. The competition was skated outdoors and Altwegg was reported to have done both Axels and Salchows from each foot. In winning, she became only the second British Ladies' Olympic champion in addition to Madge Syers in 1908.

She did not defend her World title, which was won by her longtime rival Jacqueline du Bief of France.

Professional offers flooded in, including 2,000 pounds a week from a U.S. ice show, a giant sum of money at that time. But never letting sport out of its true perspective, Altwegg refused all offers. Instead, she elected to work with war refugee children at the Pestalozzi Village of Trogen in Switzerland.

In 1953, she was recommended by Sir Winston Churchill and designated by Queen Elizabeth II as a Commander of the Order of the British Empire, for her services to amateur figure skating, the highest public honor ever given to a figure skater, before or since. She was also made an honorary life member of the NSA.

She continues to live in Switzerland, where she has raised a family and dedicated her life to charitable work. She was elected to the World Figure Skating Hall of Fame in 1993. ■

HALL OF FAME

RIA and PAUL FALK
GERMANY

Like many other European athletes, the amateur career of Ria Baran and Paul Falk was greatly diminished and almost eliminated by in the conflagration of World War II. During and immediately following the conflict, little attention or support was given to the development of German athletes, although it had been of major importance in the 1930's, especially leading up to the 1936 Summer and Winter Olympic Games held in Germany.

Following the war, German citizens were banned from I.S.U. Championships through 1950 and from the Olympic Games until 1952. Were it not for these actions, the competitive record of the Falks' might possibly have included greater accomplishments and received more deserved recognition.

Born in Dortmund in 1922 and 1921 respectively, Ria Baran and Paul Falk began skating at ages 13 and 14 simply for pleasure and recreation. Each took up singles skating, and Ria was later quoted as saying she was "lucky to find Paul as we both shared a mutual dislike for school figures."

The two began to learn pair skating, being ideally matched in size and coloring, both with blond hair and brown eyes. They started skating together seriously in 1938 and in that same year won the German Youth Pair Championship, an event for athletes under age 18.

In 1940 they placed an impressive fourth in their first German Nationals won by the indomitable four-time World and European champions and 1936 Olympic Champions, Maxi Herber and Ernst Baier.

With the onset of the full conflict of the war, Baran and Falk moved to Berlin in 1940 in order to continue their training. She worked in the office of the Sports Palace and he as a highway engineer. They continued to compete in local and national events and to perfect their style, since all I.S.U. events were cancelled between 1940 and 1946. They claimed to have never paid a penny for lessons and were completely self taught.

Since the ice season in Germany at that time was only five or six months long, to keep in condition, they began roller skating. At the end of the war in 1945, they returned to Dortmund to find it badly damaged by bombing and from there set up residence in Dusseldorf. For the next three years they moved about from city to city, where skating was available.

They became West German pair champions in 1947 and held the title through 1952. They entered and won their first European Championship in 1951 in Zurich, and continued on to Milan, Italy, to the World Championships to face the defending 1950 Champions, Karol and Peter Kennedy, the first Americans to ever win a world pair title.

A severe accident in which Ria fell from a lift and injured her back almost kept them from competing, but they did skate against doctor's orders. In an extremely close contest resulting in a 4-3 split of the panel of judges.

Baran and Falk won the world title, with the Kennedys placing second, and Jennifer and John Nicks of Great Britain in third. Following this success, Ria and Paul were married soon after on April 3.

The year 1952 became the stellar and final year of the Falks' amateur career. They defended their German title for the sixth and last time, repeated as European champions and once again faced off against the Kennedys at the VIth Olympic Winter Games in Oslo, Norway. The pair event was held on the last day of skating, and the Falks were awarded the gold medal by a 7-2 division of the panel over the Kennedys who took silver (the second American team to ever do so). In an upset Marianne and Lazlo Nagy of Hungary placed third.

The Falks went on to repeat as 1952 World Pair Champions in Paris, again besting the Kennedys and the Nicks, and also became the European and World roller skating champions the same year. They then retired from amateur competition to skate professionally in both North America and Europe.

The two returned to Germany where Paul became a prominent coach, who is now retired. Ria passed away following a long illness in the 1980's. The duo, known for precision, speed, and originality in their performances, were elected to the World Figure Skating Hall of Fame in 1993.■

USA AT THE I.S.U. CONGRESS

by John F. LeFevre, I.S.U. Representative

From June 13 through 17 of this year, the forty-eight (48) members of the International Skating Union (I.S.U.) and their delegations will gather in Boston to consider what in all likelihood will be a large number of proposals from all over the world concerning figure skating—proposals that the various Members were to have submitted to the Secretary of the I.S.U. by December 1, 1993. As one of these Members, the USA submitted some forty three proposals for consideration by the Congress. While some are technical in nature, other more substantive proposals, if passed, could have a profound effect on the future of figure skating in the world to come.

Our most significant proposals involve the eligibility rules. The USA is proposing that currently ineligible skaters be given until December 31, 1994 to become eligible to compete in I.S.U. controlled championships and competitions, after which no more reinstatements of any kind would be considered. Persons who compete in competitions not sanctioned by the Member (USA, for example) and approved by the I.S.U. would thereafter be permanently barred from participating in any I.S.U. controlled event. The purpose of these proposals is to enable the I.S.U. to establish uniform and credible rules for the operation and judging of all figure skating competitions world wide.

Skaters will want to participate in these competitions because of another significant set of USA proposals—those expanding the types of international competitions we are permitted to host. We seek authority to organize international "Pro-Am" competitions between eligible skaters (with sponsors and prize money), that would operate under rules attractive to both the young athlete and the more experienced, interpretive skater (such as a singles competition with both a technical and an interpretive program).

In this connection, we also seek rule changes that would authorize one day competitions and permit segregation of dance competitions (free dance only competitions, for example) to encourage Members to host more dance competitions and to make it feasible for more couples to compete. Finally, we seek specific authority to reimburse (or request reimbursement for) participants in I.S.U. events who experience a salary or income loss due to absence from employment resulting from attendance at such events. The object of all these proposals is to enhance our ability to organize figure skating events as well as to expand our skating horizons to embrace all eligible figure skaters.

Several other proposals involving both judges and skaters were submitted. We have asked for a rule change officially authorizing us to send four judges to Olympics and mandating that judges be included on panels in certain extraordinary circumstances. We have proposed that if a judge has international status in one discipline by age 45 (singles, for example), she should not have to satisfy the same age requirement when seeking international status in another discipline (ice dancing, e.g.). Additionally, we have proposed that our ladies should be able to do either a triple or a double jump after footwork in the technical program.

Some of the more "technical" proposals are no less important. For example, we have submitted a rule that requires the I.S.U. Council (which meets in summer and winter) to publish its non-confidential decisions no later than thirty days after they are made. This is to ensure that skaters and coaches are made aware of them before programs are set for the coming competitive year. We have also proposed rules that would limit the voting rights of current I.S.U. officeholders and committee members at the Congress as well as provide a mechanism for replacing the vice president of either the speed or figure skating sections if the office becomes vacant. Finally, we have rewritten the rule establishing age limits for junior international competitors so that it is clear to all concerned: at least 12 years but not 18 years for ladies' singles and 19 years for men's singles and both ladies and men in pairs and ice dancing.

These and possibly a few hundred other proposals from other countries will be considered at the Congress. Although the USA gets two votes (1-speed; 1-figure skating), it will have five delegates attending plus several current or future I.S.U. officeholders and committee members. We will be well represented. Elections for positions on the I.S.U. Council and the various committees will also take place at the Congress; in this connection, it is expected that the USA will nominate a number of persons for these positions.

All in all, the week of the Congress promises to be exciting and prophetic. Watch for a report of the results in the summer or early fall issues of this magazine.

JUDGES BY THE NUMBERS

by Eleanor Curtis, USFSA Judges Committee Chair

As a World Dance and International Singles and Pairs Judge and with 39 years of experience as an active USFSA judge, I now find myself Chair of the USFSA Judges Committee, having previously chaired the Dance Committee.

Volunteer committee work gives one the opportunity to ask questions and explore areas on which there may be a variety of opinions. This has led me to delve into factual data about our USFSA judges. Data is still being accumulated, but with assistance from the Membership Services department at Headquarters, some interesting facts have been uncovered.

Did you know that 26% of all judges in the United States are over 60 years old and that 79% of singles judges and 83% of dance judges are over 40 years old? The average Low Test Figure judge has nine years experience and the average Bronze Test Dance judge has ten years experience.

This raises a critical question. Who will be the judges of the future, providing an equal and fair standard for the next generation of skaters? Further data collection will lead to discovering the relationship between the distribution of judges and the distribution of their work. This will be examined in future articles.

(1930 and 1931), and a member of the U.S. Olympic Figure Skating Teams in 1928 and 1932.

A member of the Commonwealth SC and a lifetime member of the SC of Boston, he was also the founder and former president of the Cape Cod SC and Country SC, formerly the Skridsko Club. Turner taught many youngsters to skate on his pond in Walpole, Mass. and authored Edges, a manual on figure skating.

Turner also served the sport in an official capacity as a national, international, and world judge. He judged 10 U.S. Championships among other events during his judging career. Turner's judging activity spanned several decades making him the USFSA's first 50-year judge. Upon his retirement from active judging in 1982 at the age of 81, he was named an honorary national judge. He was also appointed a referee in 1938 and served in that capacity as well. As a volunteer, he served the USFSA as its vice president from 1930 through 1931 and as chairman of its Standards and Tests Committee from 1934 through 1940.

A lawyer by profession, Turner earned his law degree from Suffolk Law School in 1926 and his master's in 1962. He practiced law for over 60 years and tried cases before the U.S. Supreme Court and the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Husband of the late Louise H. (Lambert) Turner, he is survived by two sons, Roger F. Turner, Jr. and Michael W. Turner, three grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.

Frank Loeser Nowosad, Canadian writer, historian, and coach, passed away on November 1 after a long illness. He was 45 years old. An authority on music and choreography, Nowosad wrote articles for several figure skating magazines through the years including Tracings and Thin Ice, a magazine published in British Columbia. During the 1980's, he had a column, "Loeser on Music" in Skating. Also a historian of the sport, Nowosad wrote and produced the CBC production, 100 Years of Skating, in honor of the 100th anniversary of the I.S.U. As a coach, he worked with Canadian skater Gary Beacom. Nowosad was a co-founder of the Canadian Ice Dance Theatre, a forum for students and instructors. His loss will long be felt by the Canadian figure skating community.

Barbara Flowers, skating choreographer, succumbed to cancer on November 20, at the age of 45. She had valiantly battled the disease for nearly 10 years. Although Flowers choreographed skating programs for skaters at all levels, she is best known for her work with 3-time U.S. Ladies' Champion Rosalynn Sumners and 1991 U.S. Ladies' Champion Tonya Harding.

A dancer since the age of three, Flowers opened her own dance school in Honolulu in 1969 while continuing her own dance education at the University of Hawaii. She ultimately earned a master's degree in dance. While in Hawaii, Flowers was an active member of the Hawaii State Dance Council. In 1974, she moved to the state of Washington where she taught for the British Academy of Dance, Ewajo Centre, the Chettici Council on Ballet, and the Cornish School for the Arts. She also choreographed "Rhapsody on Ice" for the Oregon Symphony.

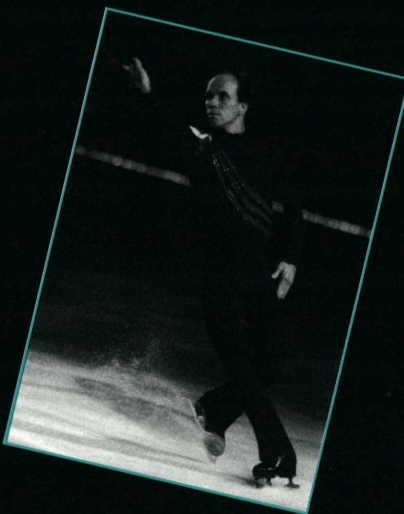

She was widely respected for her work and admired for her courage. Flowers is survived by three sons, her parents, three brothers, and three sisters. ■

Figure skating history was made at the Boston Garden on October 31, 1993. Jim Spence of Sports Television International invited all Olympic figure skating gold medalists to appear in IBM Skates of Gold, a remarkable celebration of figure skating excellence. The show was divided into four segments: dance, ladies, pairs, and men, and featured both cameo appearances by early medalists and performances by recent winners. The skaters were presented chronologically within each event, and introduced with a career synopsis which included a photo or video clip shown on huge screens hanging over center ice.

First to be presented was the winner of the first Olympic medal given for ice dancing: Aleksandr Gorshkov, who won in Innsbruck in 1976 with the late Ljudmila Pakhomova, representing the former Soviet Union. Also making a cameo appearance were 1980 gold medalists Natalia Linichuk and Gennadi Karponosov, also of the former Soviet Union. Opening the skating portion of the evening were

IBM Leaves of Gold

1984 winners Jayne Torvill and Christopher Dean of Great Britain, followed by Russians Natalia Bestemianova and Andrei Bukin (1988) and Marina Klimova and Sergei Ponomarenko (1992).

In the ladies' portion, cameo appearances were made by Barbara Ann Scott (1948, Canada), Jeannette Altwegg (1952, Great Britain), Tenley Albright (1956, USA), and Trixi Schuba (1972, Austria). Performing for the welcoming crowd were Peggy Fleming (1968, USA), Germans Annett Poetzsch (1980) and double gold medal winner Katarina Witt (1984, 1988), and Kristi Yamaguchi (1992, USA).

The oldest medalist present was German pairs skater Ernst Baier, 87, who won gold in 1936. He was followed at the podium by Belgium's Micheline Lanoy, who won the pairs title in 1948, Paul Falk (1952, Germany), Elizabeth Schwarz and Kurt Oppelt (1956, Austria), Barbara Wagner and Robert Paul (1960, Canada), and pairs legend Irina Rodnina, who appeared with both of her partners, Alexsei Ulanov (1972) and Aleksandr Zaitsev (1976, 1980). Performing were Russians Elena Valova and Oleg Vasiliev (1984), Ekaterina Gordeeva and Sergei Grinkov (1988), and Natalia Mishkutenok and Artur Dmitriev (1992).

The cameo appearance of Men's gold medalist Manfred Schnelldorfer (1964, Germany) was followed by performances by Robin Cousins (1980, Great Britain), Scott Hamilton (1984, USA), and Viktor Petrenko (1992, EUN). American Brian Boitano (1988) closed the show.

A finale choreographed by JoJo Starbuck gave the appreciative audience one last opportunity to see Olympic gold medalists in action, and whetted many appetites for the upcoming Olympics. Skating fans unable to see this fabulous collection of skaters in person will be able to catch it on television, since ABC-TV plans to broadcast the event as part of its pre-Olympic coverage in February. ■
